POLICE & FIRE REPORTS - N./NE. PORTLAND

GUNFIRE IN KENTON DAMAGES HOME

News Release from Portland Police Bureau
Posted on FlashAlert: February 4th, 2016 10:49 AM

On Wednesday February 3, 2016, at 11:21 p.m., North Precinct officers responded to the report that several gunshots were fired at a home in the 9100 block of North Chautauqua Boulevard. Officers arrived in the area and located evidence of gunfire in the street in front of the home and noted several bullet holes in the front of the house. One round traveled through a bedroom wall where a 75-year-old woman was in bed. She was not injured. Another round traveled through the home and exited the rear of the house. Officers checked neighboring homes for damage but did not locate any additional bullet holes.

N. PRECINCT ARRESTS SUSPECTS IN A DISTURBANCE WITH WEAPON CALL AFTER LONG STAND-OFF

News Release from Portland Police Bureau
Posted on FlashAlert: January 31st, 2016 11:31 AM

On January 31, 2016, at 04:39 a.m., North Precinct officers received a call claiming that an individual had been assaulted and that the suspects were armed and inside a home in 4900 Block of N.E. Killingsworth St. Officers contacted the victim near the location and began an investigation. The investigation revealed that occupants of the location had assaulted and threatened at least one person and that an additional female victim might still be inside the location. They also determined that the suspects inside the location were alleged gang members and possibly armed. Officers were able to contain the location and began attempting to establish communication with those inside. Officer could hear yelling from the location but the occupants would not answer phone calls. Officers then began to loud hail the location. After loud hailing a female answered the phone. Officers were able to get the female out of the location. She told officers that an additional victim was still in the residence. Officers were able to get this victim to leave the house. This individual was uncooperative with investigators. Finally, Officers were able to convince the two suspects to peacefully leave the location. They were taken into custody and a sawed-off shotgun was recovered from the location.

To safely resolved the incident required enormous resources including officers from North, Central and East Precinct as well as support from K-9 units and the Port of Portland Police. The Gun Task Force responded to assist with the investigation and specialized unit such as the Special Emergency Reaction Team (SERT) and the Detective Division were consulted. After approximately four hours the situation was peacefully resolved.

The two suspects were lodged at the Multnomah County Jail. Eric L. Harris, a 41 year-old male, was charged with Coercion and weapons charges. Gerald Randale, a 32 year-old male, was charged Coercion, Assault IV and weapons charges.

Anyone with information about gun crimes in the City of Portland is encouraged to provide information to the Portland Police Bureau’s Tactical Operations Division at 503-823-4106 or email information to gangs@portlandoregon.gov.

Information learned from social media sites such as Facebook, Twitter or YouTube should be shared with investigators as these tips may lead to the identification of a suspect or suspects. 24-YEAR-OLD MAN ARRESTED IN NORTH PORTLAND AFTER MAKING 41 CALLS TO 9-1-1

News Release from Portland Police Bureau
Posted on FlashAlert: January 21st, 2016 1:47 PM

On Thursday January 21, 2016, at 1:17 a.m., the Bureau of Emergency Communications (BOEC) began receiving 9-1-1 hang-up calls from numerous locations in North Portland’s Kenton Neighborhood. Several North Precinct officers were dispatched to the area and ultimately located the person making the calls at a residence in the 1200 block of North Winchell Avenue. 24-year-old Brian Lewis-Carter was arrested and booked into the Multnomah County Jail on 41 counts of Improper Use of Emergency Reporting System.

Improper use of the 9-1-1 system can endanger lives and tie up valuable resources that may be needed elsewhere to respond to emergency calls for service. Oregon Revised Statute 165.570, Improper Use of Emergency Reporting System states the following:

(1) A person commits the crime of improper use of an emergency reporting system if the person knowingly:

(a) Calls a 9-1-1 emergency reporting system or the School Safety Hotline for a purpose other than to report a situation that the person reasonably believes requires prompt service in order to preserve human life or property; or

(b) Allows another person to use telephone equipment owned, rented or leased by or under the control of the person to call a 9-1-1 emergency reporting system or the School Safety Hotline for a purpose other than to report a situation that the other person reasonably believes requires prompt service in order to preserve human life or property.

Improper use of an emergency reporting system is a Class A misdemeanor.

SOBER DRIVING IS EVERYONE’S RESPONSIBILITY - #DONTDRIVEDRUNK

News Release from Portland Police Bureau
Posted on FlashAlert: February 3rd, 2016 12:37 PM

During the month of January 2016, Portland Police officers arrested 53 impaired drivers, utilizing additional funds supplied with a grant from Oregon Impact. We hope everyone had an enjoyable New Year’s celebration; however it is important to remember that responsible driving is a year-round commitment.

The Portland Police Bureau will be adding additional DUII enforcement units during the month of February to help ensure our streets stay safe, and to prevent needless tragedies within our community.

The Portland Police Bureau would like to remind the public that drug-impaired driving is just as dangerous (and illegal) as alcohol-impaired driving. Officers will be taking a zero tolerance
