St. Johns Bridge 2016 PICTURE Contest Rules:

* For each issue the editor will choose two pictures to be used as either a Masthead or as a Photo of the Week. (A third picture may also be used as space allows.)
 * At the end of 2016 (most likely in November,) the pictures will be voted upon by readers for which photo they liked the best. The winner will receive a $100 cash prize from the St. Johns Review.
PICTURES MUST BE:
 * Sent in high resolution (200+).
 * Unaltered photos are preferred but will not be turned away.
 * Send pictures in a JPEG format.
 * Do not send a photo more than once.
 * Pictures appearing in the paper must belong to the taker of the picture, but the Review has the right to use them in current and future issues.
 * Color pictures are preferred.
 * Do not send more than three pictures at a time.
 * Pictures may be cropped (by the Review) to fit the paper's perimeters. For photos appearing in the Masthead they need to be vertical more than horizontal. Masthead pictures are 10.25" across, and 3" to 5" tall. Pictures of the Week can be vertical or horizontal and any size.
 The newspaper has the right to change or alter these rules during the year should it be needed.
 Voting begins in November where all the year's pictures will be re-shown. A winner will be announced in December.
(Disclaimer: Pictures appearing in the paper are reformatted to tiff's at 600 resolution for printing presses. After placement in the paper and being printed on newsprint, the photos may lose a certain amount of clarity. The Review cannot be responsible for lack of clarity or any other changes in the pictures. The Review is not responsible or liable for pictures sent in saying their author has taken them when in fact they may not have.) Contest ends October 21, 2016.

Letters to the Editor

Letters to the Editor are welcome and encouraged. They must contain a name; Anonymous letters will not be read or published. Letters may be altered for really-really bad grammar or space when necessary, but it is the publisher's intent to leave them as they arrive. It's good for community members to use this space to express opinions, concerns, ideas, or other sentiments, but they are not necessarily the views of the editor/publisher. Don't be shy. Don't worry about spelling. Don't worry about grammar. Just write your letter and send it. Your thoughts & concerns are important.

Dear Editor,
 I enjoy the Review very much. I have suggestions to bike riders: Please paint your bikes florescent colors so they can be seen at night, and also wear bright yellow jackets. Walkers - wear the same kind of jacket so you can be seen easily.
 Claudia Hinkle

Dear Editor,
 Thank you for alerting me (Jan. 29, Opportunities & Events) to the Aszemar Glenn music program at St. Johns Christian Church, free, Tuesday noon. It was wonderful!!
 Thank you,
 Anita Malady

Dear Editor,
 I appreciate you reminding me that my subscription renewal was due. I don't want to miss any isues of our wonderful local newspaper.

Thank you for putting in a crossword puzzle. It's hard to find them since everything has gone to the interest. I enjoy having a real newspaper to hold in my hands and read with a cup of coffee. I do not read any other publications any more because they've gone online, or they're just full of old news and ads. Guess I'm old fashioned.

Dear Editor,
 I've been reading about the Ivy Island issue in the Review. I'm confused whether this is a good thing for the community, or a bad thing. I've always thought Ivy Island was somewhat of an eye sore and wonder if it was so important to people, why wasn't it maintained with flowers, lovely shrubs and other pretty items. I can see where it could be made unique, but since the city obviously had no interest in keeping it maintained, perhaps it does need to go. As for the new development, I also have mixed feelings about that too. I'm glad a couple of the old buildings and businesses are gone, but have concerns about the large brick buildings coming in their place. I'm just not sure they're going to fit in well with the rest of the neighborhood. They appear to be so modern, not like our rustic one or two story older building. But there again, maybe that's a good thing. I think the point I'm making is, we won't know whether removing Ivy Island and the new devel-
