Carol Gail Nickachos

10/11/1951 - 02/02/2016

Carol Nickachos passed away on Tuesday, February 2 in Portland from complications of a 5-month battle with cancer. She was a 1974 graduate of PSU, member of the Roosevelt HS class of 1969, a James John grade school alumnus and attended OSU in Corvallis as part of her participation in US Bank's early Work Study program. Eventually graduating from PSU with a BS in Finance, she spent many years at the Bank's downtown Corporate HQ in the Trust Department, completing her later years at their Tigard leasing offices. Retiring early, Carol transferred most of her boundless energy into service for others. An inveterate knitter, she focused her attention on hats, scarves, blankets, mufflers and dish cloths both for her many friends and family, but more significantly for Portland's needy, elderly and homeless population. Years before she received a personal cancer diagnosis, Carol made hats and prayer shawls for people in crisis in the community. Hundreds of Hand knitted hats and scarves were donated to hospitals, shelters and ministries throughout the metro area in her effort to encourage and brighten the lives and hopes of people she would never know nor meet. A childhood member of St. Johns' Christian church, then youth member of Portland's First Christian, she spent the last years of her life associated with Mosaic Church in both North-
