siys the Statesman of the 6th, although 18 cents is freely offered. Ezra Mceker, PORTLAND'S GREAT EXPOSITION.—The name of Liberati, as a musician, is a mane to conjure with here in the Northwest, and it was in obedience to an imperative popular demand for his services, the directors of the Great Portland for his services for the present year. With a select band of fly instruments and several accompleted soloits, he is now making a tour through the principal cities of the East and winning golden opinions from all sorts of people. Important as music is as an adjunct to the exposition, the attractions in other directions will be attractions in other directions will be formany and great. ## No Better Medicine, and have induced many to use it."

"Thirty-five years ago this Spring, I was run down by hard work and a succession of colds, which made me so feeble that it was an effort for me to walk. I consulted the doctors, but kept sinking lower until I had given up all hope of ever being better. Happening to be in a store, one day, where medicines were sold, the proprietor noticed my weak and sickly appearance, and after a few questions as to my health, recommended me to try Ayer's Pills. I had little faith in these or any other medicine, but concluded, at last, to take his advice and try a box. Before I had used them all, I was very much better, and two boxes cured me. I am now 80 years old; but I believe that if it had not been for Ayer's Pills, I should have been in my grave long ago. I buy 6 boxes every year, which make 210 boxes up to this time, and I would no more be without them than without bread."-H. H. Ingraham, Rockland, Me.
