
As endorsed and recommended by the New-York Health Authorities.

Royal Unfermented Bread is peptic, palatable, most healthful, and may be eaten warm and fresh without discomfort even by those, of delicate digestion, which is not true of bread made in any other way.

To make One Loaf of Royal Unfermented Bread: quart flour, I teaspoonful salt, half a teaspoonful sugar, ing teaspoonfuls Royal Baking Powder, cold boiled about the size of large hen's egg, and water. potato about the size of large hen's egg, and water. Sift together thoroughly flour, salt, sugar, and baking powder; rub in the potato; add sufficient water to mix smoothly and rapidly into a stiff batter, about as soft as for pound-cake; about a pint of water to a quart of flour will be required—more or less, according to the brand and quality of the flour used. Do not make a stiff dough, like yeast bread. Pour the batter into a greased pan, 4½ by 8 inches, and 4 inches deep, filling about half full. The loaf will rise to fill the pan when baked. Bake in very hot oven 45 minutes. placing paper over first 15 minutes' baking, to prevent crusting too soon or top. Bake immediately after mixing. Do not mix with milk.

Perfect success can be had only with the Royal Baking Powder, because it is the enly powder in which the ingratients are prepared so at to give that continuous action necessary to raise the larger bread loaf.

The best baking powder made is, as shown by analysis, the "Royal." Its leavening strength has been found superior to other baking powders, and, as far as I know, it is the only powder which will raise large bread perfectly.

> Cyrus Edson, M. D. Com'r of Health, New-York City.

Breadmakers using this receipt who will write the result of their experience will receive, free, the most practical cook book published, containing 1000 receipts for all kinds of cooking. Address

ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., 106 WALL ST., NEW-YORK.

sey coast. "Long ago?"

"Cracky!"

The Ocean No Longer Trackless.

Here he would have to work again acro tween two ports less than 3,000 miles apart, but with winds and current almost uniformly favorable, and with fine and brac-ing weather. -Goldthwaite's Geographical

A Wonderful Bird.

L. E. Thompson, manager of Snipsic

grove, who is a great collector of curiosi ties, relies and animal pets, is rejoicing it the possession of a blue heron, which, if half that is told about him is true, must be a remarkable bird. The heron is a young one and was chased by a dog into some bushes, where it was captured. It was placed in a large cage and attempts were made to educate it, which have proved en

Rockville (Conn.) Journal.

The Structure of Ferns.

A Weird Snake Story That Happened to Veracious Citizen.

"I got my start in a queer way," re-marked a man of evident wealth as the drummer fluished a story, "How was that!" inquired the drummer.

"Twenty-five years ago," continued the successful citizen, "I was traveling with a sideshow, and the business went to pieces, leaving me its creditor for wages to the amount of $100, and no assets but the stock in trade. This was divided, and my share was an anaconda about 18 feet long and as big around as my body. It wasn't fat, though, I think, for air was about the only thing it had to live on forseveral weeks be-ploring expedition.

"Just as he was crossing the platforms of the second and third coaches the couplings came loose, and there's no telling what would have happened, for we were going up a heavy mountain grade, if the snake hadn't twisted himself around the brake

"It did?"

"Did it? Well, you just ought to seen it.

"The fust blast took every stitch o' sail clean sheet as well as he: and I tell you has a line and hung on. It was a line and letter of the snake sheet as well as he: and I tell you has a line and lang on. It was a line and letter of the sea, in the direct such as one meets with in these elegests and a such as one meets with in these elegests and it was a line at a line and it was a line at a line a rods and railing and hung on. It was a before the stuck to it, and off the yards, an in three minutes more we have a lawyer if he didn't hold that train together two miles and no doubt saved the miles an hour."

Sheet as well as he: and I tell you he pork and beans was a dish that would make you blubber like a baby for more and his plum duff was so indescribably together two miles and no doubt saved the lives of all the passengers in the rear coaches. They thought so anyhow and made me up a purse of $500."

The drummer coughed.
"What became of the anaconda?" he in-rator. "You see, the $500 wasn't a drop in the bucket, but when we got the snake loose the strain on him had stretched him out 20 feet longer, and I went into St. Louis with a snake that no other exhibitor could hold wind."

"I never heard of that." allower that 1 never the strain on him had stretched him out 20 feet longer, and I went into St. Louis with a snake that no other exhibitor could hold wind." a candle to, and if you don't believe me I can show you that snake stuffed and hung up in my hall at Denver."

The drummer got up with the air of man who was uneasy.

"You ought to sell it for a telegraph pole," he said reproachfully and went out.

—Detroit Free Press.

THE 87,500

Has Not Be n Paid to Mr. Fellows of a chart, will hardly diverge by fifty miles Suffalo—It Cost Him $30 to Send His at any point. The same is true of every ticket to Kansas tity—Lawyer Stone other route. Let us consider the case of a cost Paul Will Try and Getthe Money vessel bound to New York from Liverpool. for Him – Schroeder, the Man Who Sold the Ticket to Fellows, is Indig-stant battle against diverse winds and cur-

"Not a cent," said Joseph B. Fellows of Pros

"Not a cent," said Joseph B. Fellows of Prospect avenue, when asked by a Times representative whether he had received the $7,600 won by him last May from a lottery concern run by £. For & Co. of Kansas City, called the Little Louisiana lottery, but which has no connection with the Louisiana State Lottery proper. "When they saw I was persistent and after the publication of the Times article giving the particulars of my holding a winning ficket and their failure to pay, they telegraphed me that they were enfolined from paying by the court. Since then I have heard nothing from them."

"Occurse you expect to," said the Times man. "Well, I don't know," replied Mr. Fellows. "There is a lawyer at St. Paul who wrote me that he represented a man who had won a $15,000 prize and named conditions under which he would undertake to get my $7,500 at the same time. I told him to go shead, but I seem to be as far away now as I was before. It cost me $50 to send my ticket to Kansas City, and I think they might at least return that amount to me, as I had to pay it to the express company."

"What does Schroeder, the man from whom you bought the ticket, think of it?"

"He was as badly taken in as I was."

"Does he sell tickets for them still?"

"Schroeder is a barber on Nisgars street, and knew nothing of the character of the concern which he represented. When he learned it through the Times and his experience in the Fellows matter he dropped them quick, and has warned all those who for merty purchased tickets of him not to do any more business with them or their representatives.

Mr. Fellows is an honest, industrious citizen, who has a right to believe that he should receive what they acknowledged was his. There are those, however, who are of the opinion that, as this is the same company that swindled the late Julius Hass out of a like amount, Mr. Fellows and a very small chance of ever getting a penny from it.

Just what success Lawyer Stone will have for his client Mr. Fellows, of course, cannot tell, but he hopes for the best.

late Julius Hass out of a like amount, Mr. Fellows stands a very small chance of ever getting a penny from it.

Just what success Lawyer Stone will have for his ellent Mr. Fellows, of course, cannot tell, but he hopes for the best. People who have been investing their money in this concern are of the opinion that, if this company is the fraud it seems to be, they should be exposed in all sections of the country. Their game, like that of the green-goods man and the bunco man, is one of fraud.

In the first account of the fraud practiced on Mr. Fellows it was shown that in St. Paul and other cities the same game had been played on the unsuspecting. Some people think there may be a compromise through Lawyer Stone, but those who have read and heard more of this concern than they, say that he (Fellows) is out the $1 he paid Schroeder for the ticket, out of the $20 he paid to send it to Kansas City and out $7,500, which his ticket called for as a half-winner of a capital prize.

There are lotteries which are said to pay, and pay gromptly, but it is plain to be seen that this the Little Louisiana—so called—run by £. Fox & Co., Kansas City, is not one of them.—Bufalo (M. Y.) Times, Sept. 18. tirely satisfactory.

It will take food from no other hand than that of Mr. Thompson, of whom it is very fond, and whose approach it greets with cries of delight and flapping of wings. The bird's food is mostly frogs and fish, although it occasionally indulges in ice cream, allow-ing it to melt in the cavity of its large bill

The Queen Had No Change. The English queen has an income of little experiences of finding herself don she called a wayside mendicant to carriage only to find that neither she cess with her had a shilling. and this regal queen of England and em-press of India was obliged to borrow some pence from the keeper of the tollgate near -New York Sun.

N. P. N. U. No. 514-S. F. N. U. No. 591

THE LOVE UNKNOWN

Sweetheart, you have not known me-If I am great or wise.
Yet, somewhere you shall own me
Beneath God's spiradid skies.
Though now life's broken chalics. No earthly sweets can win, Some day, at Love's own palace, Your arms shall take me ini

Some day a rose will blossom White in the thorny ways,
And on the dark Night's bosom
Will fail the morning's rays;
Some day, when I am lying Pale from the storm and strife, Your lips shall seek me, dying. And kiss me back to life!

Then will the bird songs, ringing.
Fall soft on fields of bloom:
Then will the streams flow singing.
Through groves of rich perfume!
Then shall the world benighted.
The rarest splendor win.
And at Love's palace lighted.

STEALING A JOSS.

Your arms shall take me in! Frank L. Stanton in Atlanta Constitution.

Clara Kinghan was one of the pretti est girls that ever walked on two feet. When a fellow hove alongside her he couldn't help remarking the beauty of her lines. She was as lovely as a clipper ship bowling along under a cloud of canvas, and that's saying a good deal. All the men in Old Salem, Mass., were madly in love with her, and no wonder. But there was no lubberly landsman good enough for her, I warrant you. She had hauled down her colors long ago and surrendered to Jack Crowninshield, the big captain of the East Indiaman Coromandel, lying down at the dock and taking in cargo for Colombo.

The skipper was as smart a sailorman as ever took a sight at the sun and the Coromandel was as splendid a ship as ever flew the saucy stars and stripes from her monkey gaff. Mind you, I am spinning a yarn of times ever so long ago, when Salem was a busy, thriving maritime town with her merchants en gaged in the Indian trade, and when her ships, laden with oriental silks, spices. hides and other products, were continu ally coming into port. I was a lively Stranger-I presume a man who has follad in those days, having taken to the lowed the sea so many years must have sea like a goose to the pond, and when been in some wrecks.
Old Sea Captain—Wrecks? Well, a few
The wust wreck I ever had was on the Jer stone church on the hill I was there as large as life. The skipper seemed more flustered "Some'at. You see I got becalmed off than she did, and as they passed down the aisle it was admitted that a likelier "Yes. Well, I tried every which way to couple had never before been united at start a wind, but it was no go. Not a the altar. They went to Boston to spend breath stirrin. At last I got desperate." took off my Sunday-go-to-meeting togs

"I presume so."

"Yes, I got so desperate I made up my mind I'd try a plan I'd often beard of, if it look the last dollar I had. Can't raise the we were to sail in three weeks' time All our crew was already shipped, as thing it had to live on for several weeks before the failure. Be that as it may, I took the snake and started for St. Louis, where I proposed to exhibit it. I had him in a box in the baggage car, and somehow he got out and started through the train on an exploring expedition.

Look the last dollar I had. Can't raise the wind without money."

"I's a good deal the same way on shore."

"I'esso. Well, then, I took a big silver dollar, kissed it three times, swung it nine times around my head, and then flung it as far as I could into the sea, in the direcwere neither Dutchmen nor dagoes were neither Dutchmen nor dagoes
were neither Dutchmen nor dagoes
were neither Dutchmen nor dagoes

and his plum duff was so indescribably Inscious that every Sunday forenoon "I sh'd say so. Well, the nex! thing I knew, bump wen't 'er bow, an there we was bein' dashed all to bits square up agin Long Branch. Why, sir, we struck with while it was a-sizzling in the coppers "He gave me my start," replied the nar- and walked dry shod right into a hotel."

the water fairly running out of their mouths as they inhaled the fraggant months as they inhaled the fragrant who had sons to dispose of to get them "I suppose not."

"No, sir. After that I never flung any aboard of her. Mothers used to bring their boys down to the dock and waylay begger'n a ten cent piece."-Nev the skipper. Some of them would fall down on their marrowbones and just beg of him to take their boys. It was a We speak of the ocean as "trackless." It is so no longer. If two vessels sail from proud day for me when 1 was shipped, and on that occasion I felt as laughty New York to Calcutta, they will, if intelli as a dog with two tails. This was my gently navigated, follow so nearly the second voyage, and the skipper took charge of his cabin and used to keep his traps in order when at sea, the steward being a little old and shaky on his pins. The day before the ship was to sail rents and winter gales, select a route not very different from that followed by ocean the dearest little old fashioned cottage steamers between those ports.

Otherwise be would follow the southern that ever was, It was covered with route laid down by the sailing directors; and after beating to the westward a few creepers and vines, and in the little garden that surrounded it hollyhocks, sweet hundred miles to make sure of clearing the coast of Spain, would shape a course to the williams and any amount of other scented posies grew luxuriantly and perfumed southward, passing as far west of Madeira the air.

as the westerly winds of these intitudes will permit. Between Madeira and the Canaries, but a few hundred miles to the westward of both, he would fan his way Mrs. Crowninshield came aboard the ship that afternoon, and while her hus band was at the custom house getting across the baffling "Calms of Cancer," and pick up the northeast trades. With these his clearance papers and transacting other business she and I fixed up the astern and freshening every mile, he would sweep down to the south and west, captain's cabin. It did my heart good to see that dainty little woman devoratand when well over toward the West Indies, haul up to the northward toward ing the cabin with ribbons and putting everything in apple pie order. The contrivances for his comfort that were evolved from her shapely little head the Calms of Cancer, and then with the uncertain but probably westerly winds of our Atlantic coast, and with the Gulf my mouth with admiration. A lucky me down swiftly and I could easily fellow was Jack Crowninshield, always reach my ship. stream in his favor, he would stand on and make his port, having sailed 4,500 miles be eating the fat and drinking the sweet of life. But while this labor of love was occupying the little woman's mind and busy fingers big tears were welling up in her blue eyes, for tomorrow was the day of sorrowful parting, and she would served to make darkness visible. I knew not be likely to see that big husband of hers for at least two years. I fell in love perfectly and soon had the idol in my with her at sight, and for nearly two years I dreamed about her. In the morning there was a large crowd to see us off. When the skipper stepped aboard I noticed he looked sad and grave-so different from his usual reckless and jovial appearance. Mrs. Crowninshield did not see the ship off. The strain would have been too much for her. They gave us three cheers as we spread our canvas to the breeze and sailed out to sea. The wind was fair up the stream, cleaving the water with and it was a delightful August day. We gave her every stitch she would stagger under and Salem was soon out before swallowing it. It also takes coffee from a spoon, but, having had its throat Nothing particular happened during calded once, invariably sticks a toe in the liquid to test its temperature before pa-taking of it. The bird will whistle or the passage out. The skipper confided to me that he intended to make a collecdance at command and is now learning to tion of "cornes" for his wife, who was a turn a back somersault.

One story told about the bird is worth reparticular admirer of things from foreign parts. I was only a youngster, as ceating. Apparently objecting to the stiff forms of the bullheads upon which it feeds, I have said before, but if the captain had only known how madly I was in love the heron carefully bites the horns off be-fore swallowing the fish. When the bull with his wife he would doubtless have seads are all devoured the bird will give a kicked me around the decks. I think I smack of satisfaction, pick out an appropriate bullhead horn, jump on his perch.
and, looking around in a dreamy fashion.
calmly pick his teeth with the horn.—

Trum a pretty woman has more a sailor from a pretty woman has more a sailor from a pretty woman has more a sailor. from a pretty woman has upon a sailor boy accustomed to fewer halfpence than licks! Besides, my love was akin to

When flowering plants usually make seed, that is generally the last effort for plant life—the seed is the beginning of the life of the new plant. Ferns, however, only produce spores for reproducity nurses. produce spores for reproductive purposes.

These spores germinate and go through the lalong through the northeast trades and same process subsequently that flowers go through in the production of seeds. The which to run down, we were hampered by a dead calm. It was quite lucky for me, but the skipper fretted and fumed like a newly caught bear in a pit. He wanted to make the smartest passage on record. The ship was surrounded by flocks of Cape pigeons, Cape hens and an occasional albatross. The pigeons, which are birds of beautiful plumage, were caught easily with hook and line. All you had to do was to throw over your line baited with a morsel of salt pork and haul them in hand over fist. I caught several hundred and grew quite expert in skinning them and curing the skins. They were all intended for Mrs.

Crowninshield. It was a triumphant hour for me when captured an albatross. I am an old, oroken dewn man now, having been a sailor boy and man for more than fifty years, and chiefly in the southern trade For voyage after voyage I have tried to eatch an albatross with bait, but failed always. Cape hens-the vultures of the bite at any garbage. But the albatross is a cleanly bird and I never knew one to be taken with hook and line. This morning, however, I was on the forecastle head, hanging out a shirt to dry, when the albatross blundered on board. He was a magnificent bird, one of the finest I ever saw. He settled down on the deck and looked like a sailor that had lost his bearings. In a moment ensued a battle that beat hollow the tilt of the Knight of the Sorrowful Figure in his duel with the windmills. I grabbed him by the neck and he thrashed at me with bill and wing. The watch below, hearing the noise, came running on deck and rescued me, all covered with blood. For the next two days I was engaged on his skin. It used up all my arsenical soap, and I had to get a bottle of red pepper from the steward to complete the task. It was all for Mrs. Crowninshield. Did any misfortune happen the ship after the killing of the albatross? Not a misfortune.

The ancient mariner was an adept in mantic fiction. You can kill albatrosses without any weather breeding results. I have no superstition, but will tell you something gleaned from ripe experience. Fish, flesh and fowl may be sacrificed at sea without any su pernatural results. But I have never known a pig to be stuck aboard a ship but that either a gale of wind followed or something disastrous happened. This will swear to.

We got to Colombo on the hundredth day out from Salem-a capital passage in those days. Every rupee I could scrape up was spent in gathering together curios for Mrs. Crowninshield. My father, a vell to do Salem merchant, had thoughtfully placed in the captain's hands a couple of hundred dollars to be doled out to me during our stay on the Indian coast. I bought a big cedar wood trunk with quaint silver handles, and in this moth proof receptacle I stowed away all my precious bird skins and mounted fly ing fish. My love grew madder than ever I had a letter of introduction to harming English family living near Kaduwella, a Singhalese village on the southern bank of the Kalany river, about day's journey in bullock wagon from Colombo. I easily obtained leave of ab sence while the ship was discharging her cargo, and spent a week there thoroughly enjoying myself. My host made things very pleasant for me, and we took many excursions in the neighborhood that pleased me much. barians. Cut out of the natural rock, it was shaded by banyan trees, whose big leaves, shaped like a heart, quivered con tinually in aspen fashion.

Inside the temple, which was guarded by a fat, good natured priest clad in a yellow robe, reclined the image of Buddha, leaning on his left arm. The priest showed us around the temple, and I explored every nook and corner. Carefully quite an interest in me. I was given concealed behind a curtain was a little niche in which were arranged a number of little idols, evidently the priest's own particular Lares and Penates. One was the quaintest and most picturesque thing lips, but not the teeth. Then, when con-Captain Crowninshield brought his wife back from Boston and installed her in high. It had three heads, each of which was supplied with three eyes of greenish stones which looked like emeralds. The priest wouldn't sell me this idol, and in fact looked quite offended when I offered to purchase it. He was propitiated and appeased, however, by the welcome gift of a rupee. I was bound to get that idol for Mrs. Crowninshield. Accordingly I laid my plans with what I thought was rare make me feel as if something had loosskill. I bought a little cance from a native for a trifle and concealed it in the jungle near the river. I knew that if I attempted to steal the idol and take it to Colombo overland I should be detected. this remedy every five or six days for a and probably murdered by the superstitious Singhalese. Therefore the river were so ingenious that I fairly opened was my sole hope. The tide would carry

One pitch dark night I made for the joss house. The fat old priest was asleep. You could hear his snores afar off. There were neither locks nor bolts on the portal, and two little lamps of cocoanut oil grasp. Was it only imagination that made me think it trembled as I hugged it to my bosom and made for the canoe I launched my little craft and paddled vigorously down the river. The current was rapid. The boat struck a sunken tree and in an instant capsized. I clung to an overhanging branch for my life.

Now a strange thing happened. The idol, with a glare of baleful light glittering from its nine green eyes, swam the impetuosity of a salmon trout. It had suddenly come to life. This was too much for the. I lost consciousness, When I recovered I was in my friend's ungalow. It appears that a party of ishermen going out to eatch prawns for he morning dish of curry had seen me linging to the tree. They had recognized me as the guest of the "Burra Sahib" and had taken me to his house. made a clean breast of it to my host. He told me that it was impossible to steal an idol from the joss house. They al-ways returned to the temple. He took me to the shrine and pulling aside the curtain from the niche there sat the amimate as you please. How did he get back?

graphs to show.

Husband (a wise man)—Huh! The idea "Come to the village with me," said my host. We went to the hut of a native carpenter, who was engaged in whittling ut an idol almost the exact counterpart of the one I tried to steal. I bought it same old idol, as unconcerned and infor fifteen rupees.

through in the production of seeds. The spores expand when the germinating time comes, and form a flat, green membrane what are then really the flowers appear on this membrane. As a general rule, after the seed of an old sailor, who was something of a taxidermist. These fish I would mount on panels of wood given to me by the carpenter, and with their wings extended in germanent and continues to enlarge, be coming really a portion of the plant. Every year a new blade is formed, which spreads over the old ones. The large plant is of a totally different character, having the fronds of ordinary ferna.

The captain did his best to make a spread over the old ones. The large plant is of a totally different character, having the fronds of ordinary ferna.

The captain did his best to make a spread over the old ones. The large plant is of a totally different character, having the fronds of ordinary ferna.

The captain did his best to make a spread over the old ones. The large plant is of a totally different character, having the fronds of ordinary ferna.

The captain did his best to make a summart passage. The Coromandel was in hore looking lovelier and more blooming the first of the finest and largest and preserve them for keeping, after the recipe of an old sailor, who was something of a taxidermist. These fish I would mount on panels of wood given to me by the carpenter, and with their wings extended with ingenious skill (though I say it who shouldn't) they looked quite orunanental. The captain did his best to make a swapen and concluding a most prosperous voyage. I hired a wagen, and packing all my curios was driven up to the house of Captain Crowninshield. Choosing a time when the skipper was engaged at the office of the owners. Mrs. Crowninshield was at home looking lovelier and more blooming the first of the f

35 degs. south tatitude, and were in hopes | tion and presented it, including the idol. of getting a piping westerly breeze with | She kissed the ugly faces of the monster. Then turning to me she exclaimed: "Tom Jackson! How can I ever repay you for your kindness? I am ever so much obliged."

Then she paused for a few moments. Suddenly a bright thought illuminated her lovely countenance.

"I'll tell you what, Tom," she exclaimed enthusiastically. "You can come up stairs and kiss my baby. He is nine months old today, and he is having a sort of a birthday party!"—A. J. K. in New York Recorder.

Depredations of a Coon. That coon of Rueger's, which has been sauntering around the lamppost on the corner of Ninth and Banks streets from time to time during the past three months, made things lively Sunday afternoon at Mr. B. A. Fox's bird store on Broad street.

Mr. Rueger got tired of the quadruped and wished to dispose of him. The coon was accordingly turned over to Mr. Fox, sea-you can capture at will. They will who was to sell him. He was kept at the bird store. Sunday afternoon, when everybody was away, there began a general havor on the part of the animal. Climbing over a partition in a show winlow, he proceeded to chew up five Abyssinian rabbits. Only one of the pets was left to tell the tale. His coonship then dined upon a handsome Brahma cock in the rear of the establishment and afterward proceeded to deprive a beautiful tropical song bird of his plumage.

He next made an attack on a number of goldfish, and when his appetite was satisfied there wasn't a single representa-tive of the piscatorial tribe left in the aquarium. Several other depredations were committed, and his coonship was making preparations to exterminate ev making preparations to exterminate every valuable bird in the establishment when two festive coppers crawled over the transom and put an end to his calculations. He was carried back to Rueger's, but soon effected his escape and made it lively for the squirrels in the Capitol square. A small regiment of small boys were in pursuit of the animal, which with an all important air mounted the Washington monument and soon sat complacently on the top of George's head, eying his pursuers with an expression of mingled defiance and curiosity. He was finally captured.—Richmond Times.

When we recollect that the stomach is the grand laboratory in which food is transformed into the secretions which furnish vigor to the system after entering and enriching the blood; that it is in short the fountain head of strength at it is in short the fountain head of strength at it is about the food is transformed into the secretions which furnish vigor to the system after entering and enriching the blood; that it is in short the fountain head of strength at it is about the food is transformed into the secretions which furnish vigor to the system after entering and enriching the blood; that it is in short the fountain head of strength at it is about the food is transformed into the secretions which furnish vigor to the system after entering and enriching the blood; that it is in short the fountain head of strength, it is essential to keep this important supplying when it becomes inactive. This Hostetter's Stomach Bitters does most effectually, reasonably, regulating and reinforcing digestion, promoting due action of the liver and bowels. Strength and quietude of the nerves depend in great measure upon thorough digestion. There is no nervised the medical fraternity than the Bitters. Physicians also strongly commend it for childs and fever, rheumanism, kidney and biader trouble, sick headache and want of appetite and sleep. Take a wineglassful three times a day. finally captured.—Richmond Times.

The "Oyster" of the Turkey. Many will recall the oft repeated story of the young epicure, Brillat Savarin's son, who ordered thirty turkeys for his dinner. When his father reprimanded him for such extravagance on an occasion when he dined alone, the youth recalled the fact that there was one portion of the turkey which the father had al ways reserved for himself-the very tid bit of the bird-and as there were but two small portions of it in each bird the order could in no way be called extravagant. This tidbit is known as the "oyster of the turkey, and probably not one car ver in twenty can tell you exactly where it lies. It is not, as many suppose, a piece of the white meat of the The breast is composed of only two distinct layers on each side, the upper and lower fillets. The "oyster," in fact, is a portion of exceedingly tender dark meat, which lies in the hollow on each side of the backbone near and just above the second joint.

By examining the bare carcass of a carved turkey the two hollows where the carved turkey the two hollows where the "oysters" lie will be easily perceived, and one will note that their shape is a long loval similar to that of a Rockaway oyster. Unhappily this tidbit is often ignored by the carver or is sliced with the second joint. It should be served intact to any one at table who can appreciate the best lift of the bird. Now York Tribuses was a Buddhist temple, irreverently called a joss house by heathens and barbit of the bird .- New York Tribune.

A Cure For Stammering. A gentleman who stammered from childhood almost up to manhood gives a very simple remedy for the misfortune: Go into a room where you will be quiet and alone, get some book that will in terest but not excite you and sit down and read two hours aloud to yourself, keeping your teeth together. Do this every two or three days, or once a week if very tiresome, always taking care to read slowly and distinctly, moving the versing with others, try to speak as slowly and distinctly as possible and make up your mind that you will not stammer. Well, I tried this remedy, not having much faith in it, I must confess, but willing to do almost anything to cure myself of such an annoying difficulty. I read for two hours aloud with my teeth together. The first result was to make my tongue and jaws ache-that is, while I was reading-and the next to ened my talking apparatus, for I could speak with less difficulty immediately The change was so great that every one who knew me remarked it. I repeated month, and then at longer intervals until cured.-Good Health.

Washington a City of Churches. There is no city in the United States which might be called the city of churches with more appropriateness than Washington. They are not particularly large or imposing, these Washington churches, but there is an immense number of them. As a matter of fact, the capital contains nearly 200 churches. The Methodist denomination claims 52. The Baptists come next with 45, then the Episcopalians with 26 and the Presbyterians with 21. The Roman Catholics have 13, the Lutherans 10, the Congregationalists 4, the Hebrews and the Christians 2 each and the Unitarians. the Universalists and the Swedenbor gians 1 each. Besides these there are half a dozen nonsectarian bodies. -

Washington Letter. Respect For the English Language. If we reverence our mother tongue as we ought, we will be on our guard not to insult it by violating its rules. We will not say, "You hadn't ought to do this." or, "He ain't a-goin to do that." We will avoid that last and worst error of the vulgar, the double negative, will be above misplacing moods and tenses and putting the nominative case where the objective belongs by right,-Harper's Bazar.

Money Saved, Money Earned Mrs. Climber-My dear, Mrs. Highupp has had her portrait painted by a cele brated artist, and I haven't had a thing but common, ordinary, everyday photo-of advertising to the whole world that her complexion is so bad it won't stand the camera!-New York Weekly.

Black Flowers. When one thinks of it, black flowers ar or fifteen rupees.
"That one can never get away—it asn't been blessed," said the Burra ahib.
"The blessed," said the Burra ahib.
"The blessed," said the Burra ahib.
"The blessed," said the Burra ahib."
"The blessed," said the Burra a

She Wanted Codfish She had come over to New York to do

ome shopping with friends from Brookyn, whose guest she was. Her garb and bearing betokened an abundance of this world's goods, and her unreserved speech plainly indicated to other patrons of Delmonico's who were within sound of her voice that she had made some purchases of a costly character.

pausing in her talk about jewelry, silks and laces. "What do I want? Let me see. Girls, let us have as nice a luncheon as the house affords. Each of you give your orders." The taste of the three Brooklyn ladies ran to patties, salads, partridge, cold turkey, potato chips, sliced oranges an cream puffs. The polite waiter made a note of those delicacies and turned inquiringly to the visiting lady. She careully studied each page of the bill of fare, and, after ascertaining what her friends had ordered, she looked the waiter straight in the eye and said with the air of one born to command, "Young man, bring me a large plate of picked up codfish."—New York Times.

A Spanish Method of Luring Sleep. Cures for insomnia are very numerous, nd before any man could try them all he would be asleep forever. A way for putting young children to sleep is of Spanish origin. It requires that the ack from the neck to the waist be gently rubbed.-Chicago News.

THAT

SHILOH'S

Syrup"

Justice of the Peace, George Wilkinson, of Lowville, Murray Co.

Minn., makes a deposition concerning a severe cold. Listen to it. "In posure I contracted a very severe was accompanied by excessive night sweats. One bottle of Boschee'

German Syrup broke up the cold.

night sweats, and all and left me

give German Syrup my most earnest

TRADE S.S.S. MARK

S.S.S. ERADICATES BLOOD POI-

SEVERAL bottles of Swift's Specific (S.S.S.) entirely cleansed my system of contagious blood poison of the very worst type. WM. S. LOOMIS, Shreveport, La.

S.S.S. HAS CURED HUNDREDS OF CASES OF SKIN CANCER.

Treatise on Blood and Skin Diseases mailed free. SWIFT SPECIFIC Co., Atlanta, Ga.

JONES

commendation.'

in a good, healthy condition. I can

CURE

Bismarck is what in Germany they call a "chain smoker." that is he smokes from morning till night without a break, lighting one cigar with the end

THE FOUNTAIN HEAD OF STRENGTE SHILOH'S CATARRH REMEDY. Have you Catarrh? This remedy is guaranteed to cure you. Price, 50 cts. Injector free.

"It's funny about bridal pairs. They are not like other pears at all." "Why not?" "They're softest when they're green."

INSPIRE COURAGE

For more than thirty years Allcock's the Spring of 1888, through ex-POROUS PLASTERS have been doing their be neficent work, relieving pain, inspiring cold that settled on my lungs. This men, women and children with new hope and new courage. Pain is a great discourager. When all Pain is a great discourager. When all the muscles are sore, it is hard to keep up hope. Allocock's Porous Plasters and pain have no affinity for each other, one or the other must yield, and pain is the one to be defeated.

Placed high up between the shoulder-blades and on the chest, they are a sure cure for coughs; on the pit of the stomach they relieve indigestion; over the muscles they relieve strains and stiffness. Wherever there is soreness, they soothe and cure.

BRANDRETH'S PILLS do not injure th

"Don't you believe Lord Rudeleigh is a landed proprietor?" "I'm afraid not. He doesn't seem to have any manors." DEAFNESS CANNOT BE CURED the result, and united by the restored to its normal taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be desiroyed forever; time cases out of ten are caused by extarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

F. J. CHENEY & CO., culars, free.

Sold by druggists; 75 cents Use Enameline Stove Polish: no dust, no smel

TRY GERMEA for breakfast. The Testimonials We publish are not purchased, nor writte up in our office, nor a e they from our employes. They are facts, proving that Hoon's Sarsaparilla Cures.

Buyers' Guide STORE. Three Enemies "For over twenty years I have suffered with neuralgia, rheum tism and dyspensis physicians have treate me and I have tried di

Hood's Pills cure all Liver Ills, Billousn

Regard

is never entertained by the children

for a medicine that

This explains

the popular-bad.

among tastes

ity

Scott's Emulsion,

a preparation of cod-liver oil almost as palatable as milk. Many mothers have grateful knowledge of its benefits to weak, sickly

Baking Powder

When in Portland be sure to take in the greatest novelty at the Exposition We shall bake biscuits and cake every afternoon and evening on our pretty Jewel Gas Stove. Everybody cordially invited to have a biscuit with us and see the wonderful merits of Golden West

Baking Powder proved by actual work

CLOSSET & DEVERS,

PORTLAND, OR.

Pise's Remedy for Catarrh is the Best, Easiest to Use, and Cheapest.

CATARRH

little ones of children.

THE BUYERS' GUIDE is published the first of each month. It is issued in the interest of all consumers. It gives the lowest cash quotation on everything in the grocery line. It will saw you money to consult it. Mailed free to any address on application. Don't be without if It costs you nothing to get it. It quotes whole sale prices direct to the consumer. Mention this paper. Address turn in bed. Several JONES' CASH STORE, failed. Five years ago I began to take Hood Sarsaparilla and it has done me a vast amoun Hood's sarshille Cures nealth, which I attribute to Hood's Sarsap rilla." Mns. E. M. Bunt, W. Kendall, N. Y.

Best in the World GREAS
Get the Genuine GREAS
Sold Everywhere RANK WOOLSEY, Agent, Portland, Or

EOCENE.

IT IS A PERFECT ILLUMINATOR, IT IS HIGH FIRE TEST. IT IS OF UNIFORM QUALITY We guarantee it to be the HIGHEST POSSIBLE PARTY OF ILLUMINATING OIL, Ask for it.

STANDARD OIL COMPANY.

A SQUERADES, PARADES, A "A TECH THEATHECALS.

Everything in the above line. Coatumes, Wigs, Beards, Properties, Opera and Play Books, etc., furnished at greatly reduced rates and in superior quality by the oldest, largest, best renowned and therefore only reliable Theatrical Supply House on the Pucific Coast. Correspondence solleited. Goldstray & Co., 25, 28 and 30 O'Farrell street, also 800 Market street, San Francisco. We supply all Theaters on the Coast, to whom we respectfully refer.

Premared by Scott & Bowne, N. Y. All drangists. INFORMATION WANTED OF THE Webereabouts FRANCI, a citizen of the Canton Tessin, Swit erland. When last heard from he was minin in Oregon. Franci will hear of something advantage if he reports to the SWISS CONSULATE, 166 First street, Portland, Or. Portland, Or., October 2, 1893.

INCUBATORS on INSTALLMENTS. Best makes, Lowest prices. Send for catalogue. W. C. SEACR, Ripon, Cal. ITCHING PILES known by motsture liss perspiration, cause intense itening when warm. This form and BLINI, BLEEDING or PHOTEUDING PILES DR. BO-SAN-KO'S PILE REMEDY,

PILES apermanent cure. Price See. Dr. pormanent cure. Price See. Dr. posanko, Philadelphia

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery purifies the blood. By this means, it reaches, builds up, and invigorates every part of the system. For every blood-taint and disorder, and for every dis-ease that comes from an inac-tive liver or impure blood, it is the only remedy so sure and effective that it can be guaranteed. This tavorite hotel is under the managemen of CHARLES MONTGOMERY, and is as good in not the best Family and Business Men's Hotel in San Francisco. Home Comforts! Cuising Unexcelled! First-class service and the highest standard of respectability guaranteed. Our rooms cannot be surpassed for neathers and confort. Board and room per day, 11.25, 11.00, 11.75 and 12.00; board and room per week, 17 to 11.2; single rooms, 50c to 11. Free coach to and from hotel.

Brooklyn Hotel

208-212 Bush St., San Francisco.

ONE PILL FOR A DOSE.

DOCTOR THE GREAT CURE

CONSTIPATION.

German Regulator of the Liver and Kidneys

> -A SPECIFIC FOR-Scrofula, Rheumatism.

Salt Rheum, Neuralgia And All Other Blood and Skin Diseases.

It is a positive cure for all those painful, delicate complaints and complicated troubles and weaknesses common among our wives, mothers and daughters. The effect is immediate and lasting. Two or three doses of Dr. Parder's Remeny taken daily keeps the blood cool, the liver and kidneys active, and will entirely eradicate from the system all traces of Serofula, Salt Rheum, or any other form of blood disease.

No medicine ever introduced in this country has met with such ready sale, nor given such universal sattsfaction whenever used as that of Dr. Parder's Remeny.

This remedy has been used in the hospitals throughout the old world for the past twenty-live years as a specific for the above diseases, and it has and will cure when all other so-called remedies fail.

Send for pamphict of testimonials from those who have been cured by its use. Praggists sell tat $1.00 per bottle. Try it and be convinced.

MACK & CO.,

and Il Front St., San Francisco.

I HAD SCROPULA in 1884, and cleansed my system entirely from it by taking seven bottles of S. S. S. I have not had any symptoms since.

C. W. WILCOX, Spartanburg, S. C.

Bladdes

Bladdes

HUNT'S REMEDY

THE BEST KIDNEY

AND LIVER MEDICINE HUNT'S REMEDY

HUNT'S REMEDY

Hercules Gas Engine

SOLD BY ALL PRUGGIS S.

(GAS OR GASOLINE) Made for Power or Pumping Purposes The Cheapest Reliable Gan Engine on the Market.

For Simplicity it Beats the World. It olls itself from a Reservoir, No Carburetor to get out of order. No Batteries or Electric Spark. It runs with a Cheaper Grade of Gazoline than any other Engine.

PALMER & REY, MANUFACTURERS. 405 Sansome Street, San Francisco, Cal.

PORTLAND, OREGON.

MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING - FOR CHILDREN TEETHING - For sale by all Druggless. 25 Cente a bettle.

"WHERE DIRT GATHERS, WASTE RULES."

GREAT SAVING RESULTS FROM THE USE OF SAPOLIO

RHEUMATISM CURED BY THE USE OF Moore's Revealed Remedy. ASTORIA, ORBOON, January 18.—I can state with pleasure that by the use of OORE'S REVEALED REMEDY my husband was relieved from an old case of HEUMATISM and my youngest boy coredentirely of INFLAMMATORY RHEUMATISM when the best doctor I could get did him no good. You're in gratified ATISM when the best doctor I could get did him no good. You're in gratified.

SOLD BY YOUR DRUGGIST.

