

POLITICAL FUSION.

The idea of fusion between the democrats and populists is being contemplated by some democratic party leaders...

A portion of the democratic party in the state of Oregon appears to be willing to sell their votes for a mass...

Many democrats in different parts of the state are seriously discussing the proposition of fusing with the populists...

Populist legislation has failed of usefulness chiefly because of the bitter prejudice that drove it to extremes...

According to the Textile World of Boston, 172 new mills for the manufacture of textile goods were erected in this country last year...

Under the pressure of foreign competition, wheat growing has fallen also in England to a sorry and serious basis...

Mr. Dyer asks why pay the bondholder in gold and the poor soldier in depreciated currency? The answer is...

Consumption is the most deadly of diseases. It kills one-seventh of the people who die. Yet it is one of the diseases most easily prevented...

MR. HERMANN AND HOPS.

The duty on hops, under the law of 1833, was 5 cents a pound. McKinley increased it to 10 cents. The Wilson bill restores the old duty...

This is demogogy. The truth is that about one-third of the annual crop of hops in the United States is exported...

Table with columns for countries (Russia, Germany, Holland, Belgium, France, United States) and years (1891, 1892) showing hop production and value.

This table shows clearly how hops produced in this country are sold in Great Britain in free competition with the hops of the producing countries of Europe...

If the American producers of hops can sell one-third of their crop annually in European markets, competing freely there with the hops of all European countries...

The disposition of priestcraft to ally itself with kingcraft, with the selfish object of fighting the hold on the masses...

The "Catholic Directory" for 1894 gives the number of Catholics in the United States as 8,902,933. Compared with the total of 1892, the increase in Catholic population last year was 95,938.

Victor A. Lotier, populist candidate for congressman at large, received in Philadelphia only 205 votes in a total ballot of over 177,000. Socialism is still prosperous in the City of Brotherly Love...

People who were acquainted with L. A. O'Meara while he was a resident of Oregon may be interested to know that he is writing articles in support of the McKinley tariff for California papers...

More than 800 applicants have been given meals at the free eating-house of the Sisters of Charity of St. Vincent's hospital. It is an interesting manifestation...

At their state convention in Portland on April 11th, the republicans can nominate no man more worthy of the office of secretary of state than Harrison R. Kincaid...

A recent number of the Morning Call, San Francisco, contains an account of the trial in that city of a gasoline car. In the trial the car was found to be so dangerous that it was ordered to be destroyed...

That's a good maxim, but it will not work as a rule in the purchase of a real estate. The maxim is "Buy cheap, buy twice." In fact none of them will. Don't trifle with life and prolong agony...

The sheriff of Malheur county evidently is no drops. The Vale Gazette gives the gentleman this complimentary mention: "Sheriff Kelly has returned from Portland where he has been buying a stock of liquors and cigars for his saloon."

Religious tolerance is wearing away the conscientious denominational differences. "It is an interesting manifestation," says the New York Sun, "that Catholics, Protestants, Jews and secularists work together for charity, and that priests, rabbis, ministers and ethical lecturers can unite peacefully at meetings to help the needy, whether believers or unbelievers..."

That mungwump organ, Harper's Weekly, has had its gentlest stomach soured by the democratic party because it isn't high toned enough and an income tax has been annexed to the Wilson tariff bill...
