stark and county issues except when he replied to his opponent, but the latter confined himself entirely to national af-fairs, which he, as an individual, if elected state senator, could no more mend or mar than could the king of Nepaul.

State and county affairs are important enough and large enough to occupy the entire time and attention of the candidates on the state and county tickers. When Mr. Brownell had delivered his ence left, while to his white haire loppenent fell the lot of sweating like a plowhorse under a hot summer sun as he labored through his reply.

A Figuring Boy.— Last week Friday, Lewis Davis, a boy that loves fight of 16 years, was found guilty by jury trial in Justice Fouts' court of licking a 10-yearold boy named Harry Gilhousen on the 16th of April. The justice fined the juvenile defendant $25, but suspended y judgment until he licks another boy, there being, however, no legal bar to his getting a whaling. It is said that Lewis Davis is the terror of the children of Maple Lane and has been carrying a pistol, and that he has even threatened to kill one of Gilhousen's children. His father is an ardent republican while Gilhousen is a populist. N. F. S. C. E. every Sunday scening at 6:50 prompt.

This is the time of all times when the average voter should be level-healed, and especially so in this a starty. The republican organ is warning the people that they must not allow themselves to be governed by anything but party principles, and that they must vote the ticket straight because there is a small straight because the small straight bears the small straight because the small straight because the sma senator to elect. The populist organ is doing likewise, and tells its followers to "keep in the middle of the road" and they'il surely win. Are you going to do it? Or will you be a little more practical and vote as your conscience and interest dictate you should? In county affairs what matters it to you whether the person elected be a populist, republican or democrat, so long as he is fully capable, honest, and acts for the best interests of the people

Of a Church of England minister cured of a distressing rash, by Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Mr. RICHARD BIRKS, the well-known Druggist, 207 McGill st., Montreal, P. Q., says: I have sold Ayer's Family Medicines for 40 years, and have heard nothing but good said of them. I know of many

Wonderful Cures

performed by Ayer's Sarsaparilla, one aughter of a Church of England minister. The child was literally covered from head to foot with a red and exceedingly troublesome rash, from which she had suffered for two or three years, in spite of the best medical treatment available. Her father was in great distress about the case, and, at my recommendation, at last began to administer Ayer's Sarsaparilla, two bottles of which effected a complete cure, much to her relief and her father's delight. I am sure, were he here to-day, he would testify in the strongest terms
