EVENTS OF THE WEEK

STUMP SPEAKER HORR - The presence of Rosswell G. Horr of the N. Y. Trib and in the city Sannelay evening war-made the occasion for a grand republi-can demonstration. The Portland flam bean ciub composed of genteel young men in showy uniforms, accompanied by a splendid brass band, was the most stiractive leature of the noisy marching column as it swept from Main street up Seventh street to Shively's hall. Before Captain Apperson introduced the speak er of the evening to the vast audience that could not get even standing room inside, a quartette composed of four young men of the club erdowed with young men of the club, erdowed with splendid voices, entert ined it with two funny campaign songs, the subject matter of which was ridicule of the democrats and populists Mr. Horr, who is pussy and white-baired, is a No. 1 stump speaker. He has been at it for the standard and referance it. He presents years and understands it. He presents the republican side of the national issues and national questions in a manner most favorable to the g o party, by either suppressing or distorting facts and seasoning his flights of sophistry with jokes and sallies of wit. This vet-eran orator proved by his utterences that it not that it is not necessary to be able conscientiously prove or impartially explain every proposition set forth in a political speech. The stumper must have plenty of gall. It is a part of a hip-hurrah-boys affair, and its main object is to enthuse the voters and make them feel happy. To be brief, Mr. Horr is a mouthy plitical revival preacher, a protection evangelist. preacher, a protection evangelist.

Gov. PENNOVER'S SPEECH -The antic inated speech of Governor Pennoyer on Monday brought together an audience of about 600 in the grove near Mr. Morey's house where the populist meet-ing took place, about half of them republicans and democrats. A prominent populist said to the writer as the crowd
