

EVENTS OF THE WEEK.

NATIVE SONS - K. H. Gabbert, formerly of this place, writes as follows in regard to native sons of Oregon: The recent great gathering of Native Sons of Oregon is in marked contrast to the apparent apathy of the native-born residents of Oregon.

RUBY WEDDING - It was just 40 years ago on Thursday last when Thomas Charman and Miss Sophia Diller were wedded in Oregon City.

THE STEEL STOVE RACKET - Those in Clackamas county who have bought steel stoves "on time" may be interested in and instructed by the following item from the Hillsboro Independent.

ANOTHER PIONEER GONE - Septimus Huelat, a well-known member of the Oregon City bar, died at his residence here on Tuesday at 5 p. m., aged 67 years, and was buried on Thursday.

THE ISRAELI ASYLUM - There were received at the insane asylum at Salem during September, 20 patients - 11 males and 9 females; number discharged, 17 - 10 males and 7 females; number died, 7 - 3 males and 4 females; number eloped, 6 males; number remaining September 30th, 956 - 630 males and 306 females.

MAIN STREET CONTRACTORS - The city officials were on Tuesday served with a copy of the amended complaint in the case of the Portland Clay Company against Hamshaw & Behm, successors of the American Bridge & Contract Company, and the city of Oregon City.

PIONEER GONE.

Mrs. Lola Cochran died here last Saturday morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. R. Reddick, aged 67 years.

No More Night Work - The work on the west side will not be carried on at night hereafter. The improvement is so far advanced as to dispense with the night shift, and the force of workmen is thus reduced about half.

ONE PAPER LESS - The Industrial Herald, the populist paper of this city, will soon move to Portland and consolidate with Joe Waldrop's Leader.

JEWISH NEW YEAR - On Sunday the Jewish New Year began, 5655 A. M. With that evening begins, for the Jewish world, the reckoning of time, traditionally affixed to the creation of the world.

OUR SCHOOLS - Professor Powell reports that the schools opened in a very satisfactory manner, except that some of the rooms are somewhat crowded, which will be remedied by dividing the classes.

PLEASANT PARTY - Miss Greta Strickler gave a pleasant party to a few friends last week in honor of Miss Vera Pillsbury of Oregon City and Miss Bertha Barin of Portland.

GRAPES - Mr. Broetje of Oak Grove, between Portland and Oregon City, appears to be one of the most successful grape growers in the Willamette valley.

TO BRITISH COLUMBIA - Silas Wright starts this week for the Kootenai country, going to where John O'Neil is located near Boundary City.

SUDDEN DEATH - Capt. Lyons, of Kippoo, rode to Oregon City Monday last on horseback, when returning, he complained in the road near Mr. Grace's store, of feeling unwell.

ACCIDENTAL DROWNING - Gus Sneider, who was employed as deck hand on the steamer Altona, fell overboard on Tuesday morning about 9 o'clock.

STEARNS HATCHERY - The new salmon hatchery on the Siuslaw is a failure so far. The fishermen completely filled the river from bank to bank with gill nets and traps and not a single fish was secured by the station.

LOCAL NEWS ITEMS.

County court is in session. Ezra Hutson is confined to his bed by sickness.

The Oregon City Laundry reopened this week. J. W. Curran is building a house on his property at Ely.

The Butte Creek fair opens at Marquam on October 4th. F. E. Donaldson is painting his residence on the west side.

The car Bona on the east side road has in it an electrical heater. Mrs. Chas. Meserve became the mother of a boy on Sunday.

On the 2d the petition and will of Joshua Logan was filed in probate. H. A. Ball of Tualatin will begin school at Fog Pond next Monday.

Gardner Kidder sells the best and freshest vegetables at living prices. Ira Lacey, a pioneer of Springwater, was buried on Tuesday last week.

C. A. Nash is now employed in Burmeister & Andersen's jewelry store. The Beaver Creek school began on Monday with J. H. Imel as teacher.

Remember J. Tompkins when in need of anything in the vegetable line. The original Blind Tom will appear at Shively's opera house on October 15th.

McDonald & Borgeson's dancing school will reopen on Friday evening of this week. Mrs. Anna Reed has been employed to teach another room at the Park Place school.

E. M. Ward commenced school at Maple Lane on Monday with a good attendance. Henry Pusey, who has been quite sick for several weeks, is able to be around again.

T. P. Worsham, formerly of this place, was recently married again at Malheur City. Married, on September 27th, by Rev. W. J. Gardner, Leonard E. Gardner and A. Avery.

Complaint and summons filed on the 23rd in case of A. P. Hotaling Co., vs M. J. Broderick. On Tuesday the men commenced putting in the sawmill machinery of the wood pulp mill.

The plank road in the Abernethy bottom needs the attention of the road supervisor right now. Albert Knapp will open a saloon in the building formerly occupied by Albert Schilling on the 15th.

Ora McLaughlin of Milwaukee commenced a term of school at Hazelia (Shipley's district) on Monday. John Morris, who was employed at the new powerhouse on the west side, fractured his ankle on Saturday.

Hamshaw & Behm, the contractors who paved Main street, have just completed a $10,000 job in Portland. Archbishop Gross has let the contract for a three-story cathedral 100x100 on the church property in Portland.

Col. R. A. Miller has commenced housekeeping in Capt. Shaw's house, corner of Washington and Sixth. A lodge of the Foresters was instituted here on Wednesday evening with a charter membership of about 30.

The family of E. M. Rands is moving to Vancouver, Wash., this week, where Mr. Rands has been for some time. A daughter was born on September 9th to Rev. and Mrs. J. A. Eckstrom, of Chicago, formerly residents here.

The two Chautauque circles have decided to join forces. The meetings are very large and enthusiastically attended. Owing to Jewish New Year, the store of L. Selling will be closed on Wednesday next, October 10th, until 6 o'clock.

Notice the fine display and the low price of Rogers Bros' silverware in the show windows of Burmeister & Andersen. Mortgage loans on improved farms at low rate of interest. Security must be given. Apply to C. O. T. Williams, Oregon City, Ore.

J. W. Thomas of Molalla and L. White of Oregon City were present at the annual meet of the Oregon dentists in Salem this week. F. T. Griffith and Geo. W. Swope were admitted to the bar on Tuesday at a session of the Oregon supreme court held in Salem.

Misses Edith Wiahart and Winnie Williams are clerking in the store of Thomas Charman & Son. The pioneer store is still in the lead. Fresh Olympia and Shoalwater Bay oysters served daily from 8 a. m. to 2 a. m., at the Novelty Refreshment Parlors, opposite Commercial bank.

The first regular drill of Company F, after three months' vacation was held on Monday evening. The weekly drills will continue from now on. Mr. Fuller, of the 5 cent coffee house opposite H. Straight's store, has sold out his interest, to take a position as traveling agent at $100 per month.

There is talk of a reduction of four or five hours in the running time of the overland train on Southern Pacific between Portland and San Francisco. Rev. J. C. Reed will preach in Shively's hall next Sunday at 7:30 p. m. Bring Gospel Hymns No. 5. The singers will be assisted by an orchestra.

The Presbytery of Portland assembled on Wednesday. Rev. G. W. Giboney was elected permanent clerk to fill the unexpired term of Rev. D. O. Ghormly. The Chinese harvest festival which began Sunday night closed on Thursday. Every Chinaman is expected to pay tribute to the good and wise joss.

Hon. John Myers will have the residence on his farm overhauled and partly remodeled. It is to be hoped that this means his return to Clackamas county. Alfred Howland of Mt. Pleasant has raised this year as fine a lot of big yellow pumpkins as can be found in any field in Oregon. Thorough farming pays.

Rev. J. W. Cowan and C. H. Dye were appointed members of the executive committee of the Congregational association which met at Salem last week. Last Thursday afternoon Mrs. P. Paquet entertained a few of her friends

CITY COUNCIL MEETING.

Council met in regular session on Wednesday evening with Mayor Straight and Councilmen Stevens, Kelly, Jagger, Cooke, Howell, Greenman, Albright and Broughton present, also Chief Burns and Street Superintendent Babcock.

Appropriations: Mrs. G. W. Church $15, Chas. Burns $60, E. L. Shaw $60, T. W. Fouts $25, R. L. Holman $35, N. F. Zimmerman $2, Wilson & Cooke $8.22, Chas. Babcock $109.92, P. G. E. Co. $171.10, W. J. Davis $15, Courten $20.25, C. O. T. Williams $83.75, D. W. Kinnaird $25, Pope & Co $45.15.

An overflow sewer pipes was ordered put in at corner of Sixth and Water streets. Street superintendent ordered to cut down or trim trees that obstruct electric lights.

Saloon license of John Cobery continued. License of W. H. Close transferred to Henry Close. New license granted to Albert Knapp. Petition of fire commission asking for a new hose cart for Company No. 3, referred to fire and water committee.

Report of treasurer referred to finance committee. Petition of residents in block 2 asking that the laundry people better guard against fire referred to fire and water committee.

Petition to open certain streets referred back to petitioners, they to get the property holders, if possible, to dedicate the streets. No action taken in regard to the Molalla railway ordinance.

WILLAMETTE FALLS. The Machinery of the Shoe Factory is Being Put in Place. On Saturday evening an enjoyable party was given at the residence of H. Ralstrom in honor of Miss Ida Hickman's 22d birthday. Refreshments were served and the evening was spent very pleasantly.

Soon an opening masquerade dance will be given in J. Radford's new store building, which is nearly completed. The shoe factory building is about finished and six men commenced Monday to put in the machinery, which arrived last week. It is expected that about 15 will be employed in making shoes as soon as the machinery gets to running.

The town now consists of six dwellings (no shanties), a blacksmith shop, an architect's office and shop, a store and hall and the shoe factory, and A. W. Schwan has commenced building one of the two houses he will erect here. Frank Morrison's family arrived last week and are temporarily living in the architect's office. Mr. Morrison will soon build a house for himself.

Mr. Wilson of Seattle has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Ralstrom. Some enterprising young men are building a large saw here, to be used by them in buying furs, junk, rags, etc. The electric pump at the spring works admirably, with no care at all except to oil it once a day. The pump is furnished in an iron building. This plant furnishes an endless supply of pure spring water.

Harshcrabble addition has about the same number of wood-choppers as during the spring, and they are kept busily employed. The sixth annual convention of the Oregon State Secular Union will be held in Vert's hall, Forest Grove, October 5th, 6th and 7th. This will be the most important convention ever held by Oregon Secularists. A very fine program has been arranged. Reduced rates on all lines of the Southern Pacific in the state.

A citizen of Oregon City went to one of our stores and asked the price of a mackintosh, which he thought was too high, so he went to Portland and they asked him $3 more for the same coat. He told them he could do better at home and named the place. The Portland merchant said, "you had better buy your coat of Tom Charman then, as I can not sell for any such price."

Choice hay by the ton or bale at the Star Grocery. Call and see line of Lyon & Healy and Kimball organs kept in stock by Burmeister & Andersen.

Herbert Thorne returned on Thursday last from Marshfield. Leighton Kelly will on Monday attend the Portland academy. Mrs. Augusta Unger, the mid-wife, has returned to Omaha, Neb.

Miss Emma Hedges of Seattle is visiting Mrs. Mary Barlow. Prof. F. W. Warner of Curriaville spent Tuesday in Oregon City. B. F. Sargent of Malheur, representing the White automatic farm gate, is in the city.

Henry Wilber of Eagle Creek is before the county court with a road petition. Will L. Miller left on Tuesday for Jacksonville, where he will spend a month. Mr. and Mrs. D. O'Neil left this week for Redondo Beach, Cal., where he has a situation.

A. C. Strange of Willer will go to Clackamas county soon to take charge of the Damascus school. - Roseburg Review. W. P. Johnson of San Francisco, general manager of W. P. & P. Co., who spent the past week in Oregon City, has returned.

Mrs. L. Glover, with her two sons, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. H. S. Gibson. They arrived on Tuesday to spend a week. Dr. J. P. Smith of San Francisco, who has been examining the geological formation of Willamette valley, spent a few days in Oregon City this week. Dr. Smith is editor of the Pacific Arrow Maker and an archaeologist of wide learning and reputation.

J. S. Pordom left on Saturday for Grant's Pass, Or., where he will have charge of the station during the absence of the agent, who will spend about two months in Colorado for his health. W. H. Speer of Junction City will fill Mr. Pordom's place during his absence. Mr. Speer is an old friend of Agent L. B. Moore.

Mrs. Professor Young and children of Portland are visiting her old friends, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Dye. Professor Young, late principal of the Portland high school, has been called to the presidency of the Presbyterian college at Albany, and has already entered upon his work there. Mrs. Young is on her way to join her husband.

We are prepared as usual to do all kinds of watch and jewelry repairing and guarantee satisfaction. Burmeister & Andersen.

CANBY.

Considerable Building is Going On - Death of Mrs. Hart. The potato crop does not turn out very good and the tubers are rather small. The wheat, oat and potato yield is smaller than usual. Everybody is picking apples. The apple crop is very good.

J. Sims is building a fine house on his place near Canby. F. Hampton has the roof about on his house. J. H. Redman is building on his lots. James Pholey is building a barn on his place. There is quite a number of teams hauling ties to the railroad from Atkin's sawmill.

Mr. Ringle's child is very sick with the lung fever. A Dakota man has bought the Zeek property and is fixing it up. He is also giving the house a coat of paint. There is quite a number of the citizens of Canby going to the mountains after huckleberries this week.

Thomas Hubbard of Salem was in Canby this week. Albeit Lee has the lumber on the ground for a new house. There was a wedding in town this week, Mr. Gardner and Miss Avery being the happy ones.

The rains of late have made the roads very slippery. J. A. Cox has laid up his threshing machine for the season. Mrs. Annie Hart died on September 30th, also her baby.

Everybody is complaining of hard times, the scarcity of money and such a low price for wheat. School will open on Monday, October 8th. The principal is Miss B. McDaniels of Halsey; Miss J. Rowen will teach the intermediate department and Miss B. Deering of Oregon City the primary. September 29th.

STAFFORD. Farmers are preparing to go to plowing; a few more heavy showers and the ground will be wet enough for a start. Jacob Schatz is all smiles now; he has just bought another sack of flour to feed his little daughter on - born last Wednesday.

The literary society was well attended last Saturday, there being a house full. The infant babe of Mrs. Zack Ellington died Sunday and was buried Monday. Miss Rosa Weiser, lately from South Dakota, is spending the rainy season at Mr. Reichles. Miss Rosa had been having poor health prior to coming to Webfoot, but we are pleased to note she now rapidly improving.

Henry Melcher has the foundation of his hog pen laid. The pen is 24 x 60 x 8. Looks like bait eh? October 1st. LENGTHY. Gardner Freytag has always a large supply of vegetables on hand. Let him know what you want and he will call.

C. D. & D. C. LATOURETTE, Attorneys at Law. Commercial, Real Estate and Probate Law Specialists. OFFICE: Commercial Bank Building OREGON CITY, OREGON.

Brownell & Dresser, Attorneys at Law. Office One Door North of Cashfield & Huntley's D. - OREGON. OREGON CITY, OREGON.

E. F. DRIGGS, ATTORNEY AT LAW, OREGON CITY. Noblitt Livery and Sale Stable OREGON CITY, OREGON. On the Street between the Bridge and the Depot.

L. M. ANDREWS, M. D. DEALER IN Drugs, Notions, Perfumeries, Toilet Articles, etc. Prescriptions Carefully Compounded. Shively's Block, or, of 7th & Madison St., Oregon City

The Commercial Bank OF OREGON CITY. CAPITAL $100,000. Transacts a General Banking Business. Loans made. Bills discounted. Makes collections. Buys and sells exchange on all points in the United States and Europe and on Hong Kong. Deposits received subject to check. Interest on all kinds of loans. Gas and Telephone bills collected. Any Part of the World. Telegraphic Exchange Sold on Portland, San Francisco, Chicago and New York. Interest Paid on Time Deposits.

ROSEBURG MAIL DAILY. 6:15 P. M. Lv. Portland Ar. 8:20 A. M. 7:30 P. M. Lv. Oregon City Ar. 7:30 A. M. 10:40 A. M. Ar. Roseburg Lv. 5:30 P. M. The above trains stop at all stations from Portland to Albany inclusive, except Shedd, Halsey, Harrisburg, Junction City, Irving, Eugene and all stations from Roseburg to Ashland inclusive.

OREGON CITY SAUSAGE FACTORY, Michael Munch, Prop. ALL KINDS OF SAUSAGE KEPT ON HAND. Seventh Street, Opposite Depot.

To CONSUMPTIVES The undersigned having been restored to health by simple means, after suffering for several years with a severe lung affection, and being anxious to assist others in the same predicament, has prepared a small book, which he will cheerfully send (free of charge) a copy of the prescription used, which will try his remedy, at his expense, if the patient desires to do so. The book contains the names of the physicians who have cured him, and the names of the patients who have been cured. The book is written in English, French, German, Spanish, Italian, Portuguese, Russian, and Swedish. The book is sent by mail, and will be sent to any address on receipt of the price of the book, which is $1.00. The book is sent by mail, and will be sent to any address on receipt of the price of the book, which is $1.00.

THROUGH TICKETS TO ALL PORTS IN THE EASTERN STATES, CANADA AND EUROPE Can be obtained at the lowest rates from L. B. MOORE, Agent, Oregon City. R. KOEHLER, E. F. ROEGER, Manager. Asst. G. J. & P. ANDERSON

Ripans Tablets cure headache.

WHEN YOU PUT MONEY

In a pair of our shoes, you are parting with it in a good cause. These shoes are not the melancholy remains of a sacrifice sale. They are made with a due regard to durability as well as to appearance, and they are made to keep the wearer perfectly clear of disappointment. You can think of nothing a shoe should be that these shoes are not: Handsomely finished, comfortable as an easy-fitting glove, shapely and pleasing to the eye, a better investment has never been recorded in all the history of shoe leather.

WE HAVE CHILDREN'S SCHOOL SHOES CALORE

Gaze on Our Show Window

McKITTRICK "THE SHOE MAN"

NEXT DOOR TO OREGON CITY BANK

THOS. CHARMAN & SON

CM. HENDERSON & CO'S LITTLE RED SCHOOLHOUSE SHOES TOOK 1st PRIZE AT WORLDS FAIR.

SHOES FOR OLD AND YOUNG. MEN'S BOOTS.

NEW FRESH STOCK! CHOICE GROCERIES & PROVISIONS.

Obtain your family supplies at the Grocery, just opened, on northeast corner of Seventh and Center streets. Prices as low as the lowest.

Country Produce Bought. FLOUR AND FEED FOR SALE.

J. A. BUCK, Prop.

GEO. A. HARDING, DEALER IN DRUGS

Standard Pat. Medicines. Patents, Oils and Window Glass. Prescriptions Accurately Compounded. HARDING'S BLOCK.

Oregon City Transportation Co's STEAMER RAMONA.

TIME TABLE OREGON CITY BOAT

Leave PORTLAND Foot Taylor St. 7:00 A. M. 9:00 A. M. 11:30 A. M. 2:00 P. M. 4:30 P. M. SUNDAY. 8:00 A. M. 9:30 A. M. 11:30 A. M. 2:00 P. M. 3:30 P. M.

Charles A. Baldwin & Co. BANKERS, 40 AND 42 WALL STREET, NEW YORK.

Accounts of Banks and Bankers retained on favorable terms. Bonds and Investment Securities. Daily Financial Letter mailed at Application. CORRESPONDENCE SOLICITED.