Dve, Charles this location for the Chautauqua assembly of northern Oregon and southern Washington was thoroughly discussed and signed making this a joint stock R. Pogh and J. Barton company with a capital of $5000, of which 1000 shares are to be sold at $5 each. The committe visited Gladstone in a body, decided upon the location, and stock will be offered at once, the proceeds to be used in building a suitable auditorium and in securing talent for the next great assembly, to be held some time in July. All the colleges, Chautauqua circles and other elucational forces will contribute to this assembly money, mind and membership. It is a great movement and a credit to Oregon City. The officers are as follows: President, Col. R. A. Mil ler : vice-president, Prof. C. H. Chapman of Eugene; secretary, Mrs. C H. Dye; treasurer, D. C. Latourette.

day the following officers for the ensuing year were chosen: T. J. Gary of Milwaukie, president; G. H. Bestow of Oregon City, first vice-president; B. E. Courtright of Redlands, second vicepresident; Miss Myra Barkley of Oregon City, secretary; B. M. Fisch of Milwankie, assistant secretary; W. G. Beatty of Ely, corresponding secretary; Mrs. W. B. Conversions made during the year were 58. Amount given for missionary work was $171 besides $49 for benevolence. The meeting closed on Sunday evening with a grand rally. The third annual convention of the Clackamas county Christian Endeavor societies convened at the Congregational church on Friday, with Rev G. Parker as temporary chairman tary. About 125 members were en-

EVANS CANTWELL .- The parlor of the Electric hotel was the scene of a pleasant gathering on Thursday, October 4th. 1894, it being the occasion of the marrage of Miss Cassandra Cantwell and Wm. Henry Evans, both of Clackamas co :nty, Rev. G. W. Giboney officiating. The charming bride was attired in a handsome costume of cream henrietts of cream rosebuds, while the groom wore a fine dress suit. The happy couple recaived many valuable presents both usefull and ornamental. The guests were: Grandma Blacker, Mr. and Mrs. James Evans, Wm. Cantwell, Hon, G. C. Brownell, Major Thos. Charman, Rev. G. W. Giboney, Clyde Evans, Misses Ida and Ethel Cantwell and Emma Evans. Mr. and Mrs. Evans left on the 4:20 car for Portland, thence for a short trip on the Sound, after which they will settle down to housekeeping near Canby.

THE ORIGINAL BLIND TOM .- Who has not heard of Blind Tom, the great negro wonder in the musical line? But it is far better to have heard him than to have heard of him. He is an idiot, and as black as negroes can be produced. He was given but one talent and that the gift of music. That one gift has made Blind Tom since early boyhood one of the wonders of the world Blind Tom will appear in the opera hall here to give an exhibition of his wonderful skill in manipulating the piano. No one should miss a chance to bear this great and mysterious musical wonder, for he will never forget the strange and pleasing effect of his performances. We are not speaking here for Blind Tom's managers, but for our readers who have not heard this mysterious, fascinating musical wonder.

THE PULP AND PAPER MILLS -On about the 25th the new sawing outfit of the Willamette Pulp & Paper Company's mill A will be in and ready for operation. As some of the logs are seven feet in diameter a very large saw is necessary and a pair of 60-inch saws are being put in. As soon as the mill gets in operation the company will com mence filling an order from Australia ing 1300 pounds to the roll. The company now furnish the San Francisco Call, Examiner and Chronicle with paper. The Call has but recently began again to get its paper here, haying been buying Eastern stock for about two years.

STATE SECULAR UNION .- The Oregon Secular Union which met in Forest Grove Friday and Saturday of last Oregon City; secretary, Katie Kehm junior woodard. Smith of Oregon City; treasurer, C. E. Futrell; Oregon City circuit, T. Thomas; J. W. Shreve, supernumerary; Tillamook circuit, L. H. Morrison; McMinnville, H. F. Dennis.

ELECTRIC WORKS .- Only about 150 men are now employed on the electric plant on the west side. The work is progressing rapidly and it is not known yet whether the force will be employed all winter or not. Some delay will be caused later by the loss of dynamos in the Portland fire. There is difference of opinion in regard to who should bear the loss by fire, the railroad or the electric company. President Morey will soon go East, where he will no doubt see about replacing the nine carloads of machinery which were destroyed.

INHUMAN HUSBAND. - Mrs. Amy E. Johnson has filed an application for divorce in the Multnomah county court. She says Mr. Johnson and she were married in Oregon City on July 3d, 1887. Immediately after marriage he began treating her in a cruel and inhuman manner, rendering life burdensome to her, and also accused her or committing adultery with a man named Mac ings lowered so the floor will be even Masters. WHEN YOU PUT MONEY

In a pair of our shoes, you are parting with it in a good cause. These shoes are not the melancholy remains of a sacrifice sale, They are made with a due regard to durability as well as to appearance, and they are made to keep the wearer perfectly clear of disappointment. You can think of nothing a shoe should be that these shoes are not: Handsomely finished. comfortable as an easy-fitting glove, shapely and pleasing to the eye, a better investment has never been recorded in all the history of shoe leather.
