The Treatment of Strikes From a Military View.

WANTS THE ARMY INCREASED

Conditions So Change That an Increase in the Effective Strength of the Army is Demanded—Particular Reference Made to the Debs Strike.

WASHINGTON, October 13.—Major-General Schofield has made to the Secretary of War his report on the operations of the army during the past year. General Schofield, who has been at the head of the army since the death of General Sheridan, announced his retirement next year. The report is principally devoted to a discussion of the necessity for strengthening the military arm of the government to cope with internal disorders as well as possible danger from without, particular reference being made to the Debs strike.

KEEP OFF RESERVATION.

The Court Decides a Puyallup Indian Cannot Alienate His Land.

SAN FRANCISCO, October 13.—The United States Circuit Court of Appeals decided today that the Puyallup Indians have not the power to alienate the land granted to them in severity, and approved the conduct of the agent, who drove the workmen off the reservation. The decision is one of the most important that has been rendered since the organization of the court, and unless reversed by the Supreme Court of the United States will be an insuperable barrier between the unsophisticated Indian and the enterprising white. The case before the court was that of Edwin Eells, Indian agent of the Puyallup reservation in Washington, against Frank C. Ross.

WIND AND WATER

Storm Causes Great Destruction in Florida.

DISPATCHES TELL SAD TALES

Damage Done to Towns in the Path of the Storm is Reported to be Almost Incalculable—Appalachicola and Cedar Keys the Principal Sufferers.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., October 14.—Communication has been re-established with all points on the west coast visited by the recent storm, and dispatches tell woeful tales of the destruction caused by the wind and water. Appalachicola and Cedar Keys were directly in the storm's path, and the damage at those places is almost incalculable. The storm first struck Cedar Keys, and the following dispatch describing it has been received: "Cedar Keys has just experienced the most disastrous storm for twenty-five years. Main street is piled with debris, consisting of wreckage from boats, wharves, fishhouses and logs of every description. The damage is great. The Florida Central is a heavy sufferer. Almost the entire track to the mainland, a distance of three and one-half miles, is destroyed. From the mainland to Sumner, four and one-half miles, there are nearly 100 washouts. The Town Improvement Company is a heavy loser, as a number of business and dwelling houses were swept away. The total loss here amounts to several thousand dollars. The city hall, a two-story building, had the roof blown off and one side knocked out. The city jail cannot be found. The five bridges to the shell road are washed away. Many small boats were wrecked. One sleep cabin in Tuesday with five men, who had clung to a palmetto tree since Monday night. It is reported that five sponge vessels went ashore during the storm and were driven seven miles into the woods. From Cedar Keys the cyclone traveled up the west coast to Appalachicola. At that point it was even more severe than at Cedar Keys. The following dispatch from Appalachicola says: "Never before in the history of this town was such havoc and destruction followed by storm and tide. Water, Combs and Market streets were a mass of logs, boats, lumber and dead fish. Two lives are reported lost. Two residences were carried a mile away and placed in the marsh near Cypress Mill, and injured. The docks were totally destroyed, and the houses were unroofed. The families sought safety on the hills, only to be routed by the terrible gale. The water was five feet deep. The water level of some of the best dry-goods stores were battered into pieces by the floating lumber and shattered to destruction. Five persons were killed. NEW FREIGHT RATES.

Most of the Dealers Are Indifferent to the Advance.

PORTLAND, October 13.—Wholesale merchants appear to be indifferent to the raise in west-bound freight rates announced recently. So far as can be learned, there is no complaint at the advance. It is thought that the increase in west-bound freight charges would be of assistance to water lines doing a freighting business around the Horn, but the present advance is not enough to make any material difference at least at the present time. Merchants here are ordering sparingly from the east, and are only enough for present needs, and are not inclined to speculate. The advance toward bringing their goods via the lengthy Cape Horn route. But for the prevailing depression in business a change, even such as comes effectively to make any material difference, would stimulate the clipper trade.

FORFEITED THEIR SEATS.

Refused to Take the Oath of Allegiance to the Emperor.

BERLIN, October 13.—Deputy Bueh and young Oppler, both Social Democrats, have refused to take the oath of allegiance to the Emperor before entering the Provincial Council in Strasbourg, and have forfeited the seats to which they were elected recently. Their objection to the Emperor's salute, neither Bueh nor Oppler are acting on a new principle of the party or merely on their own responsibility. Neither Bueh nor Oppler have ever refused to take the oath upon entering the public bodies to which they had been elected.

THE PRICE OF COAL.

The combination reported to have been formed by the two big coal-mining corporations of British Columbia and the predicted increase in the price of coal, an evening paper says: To ally the fears of San Francisco consumers we may state that no advance here need be expected. The city is full of coal, and the harbor is full of it, and large quantities of it are on the way. On board ships in the harbor are over 6,000 tons, for which storage room cannot be found, and there are 15,000 tons on the way from Cardiff, 7,000 on the way from Newcastle and 15,000 from Glasgow, Kutchinotzen, Japan, and other ports.

TO CLOSE WITH TACOMA DAY.

TACOMA, October 13.—On account of the great success of the Interstate Fair the management to-day decided to continue it until October 20, when the fair will close with Tacoma day, when excursions from all parts of Washington, Oregon and British Columbia will run to this city. The Northern Pacific has made an excursion rate of $10 from Walla Walla, $3.50 from Ellensburg and North Yakima and $3.50 from Portland for that day.

WONDERFUL CAVERS.

San Diego, October 15.—Captain Freeman and a party of prospectors a short time ago discovered a series of caverns in the rocky sides of Cajon Peak, a spur of the Cuyamaca Range, the extent of which they were unable to ascertain, having no lights with them. Last Sunday a party was made up for the purpose of exploring the caves, which were found to rival the Mammoth caves in Kentucky in interesting features, as well as the size of the chambers. There are several external openings, by each of which a stream of water flows out, and it is as far as the investigations have been extended it is apparent that a most wonderful discovery has been made. Other passages leading in various directions into the heart of the mountain were traversed for considerable distances, and several mineral specimens of strong saline qualities were found. It is believed that the title to the land on which the entrances were found, which is still vested in the government, and a company will be organized to thoroughly explore the caverns, which are said to be of immense extent, and open their wonders to the public.

RICH MINING STRIKE.

It Was Made in the Gold Hill District North of Jacksonville.

JACKSONVILLE, Or., October 15.—Another rich mining strike was made here last week. A company, composed of E. B. Watson, K. Kubli, Frank Knight and H. D. Kubli, has been working a quartz ledge on Gale's creek in the Gold Hill mining district, about twenty miles north of Jacksonville. The company has been working during the past six months with an aqueduct. Last week they struck a twenty-foot ledge of fine gold, that looks now like the richest strike ever made in Southern Oregon. Mr. Kubli brought some of the quartz to Jacksonville, and to-day sold it on the market for $2,000. The strike is said to be very rich. Many persons have called to-day to see the result of the strike. The mine had been placed on sale at $25,000, but that offer was withdrawn to-day, and Mr. Kubli says the company will put up a five-stamp mill at once.

SOUND LUMBER.

September Shipments Show the Foreign Trade is Improving.

TACOMA, October 15.—The figures for the September shipments show conclusively that the foreign lumber trade is improving. The Tacoma, the St. Pan and Tacoma, the Port Blakely, the Puget Sound and the Stimson Mill Companies, five in number, during September shipped by water from Puget Sound nearly 21,000,000 feet of lumber, of which over 9,000,000 feet went to foreign countries, including Australia, Chile, New South Wales, South Africa, Hawaii and Mexico. The remainder went to California.

WREST GOVERNOR MITCHELL SAYS.

NEW ORLEANS, October 15.—The City Item in answer to a query whether the Corbett and Fitzsimmons fight would be allowed on Florida soil received the following reply from Governor Mitchell: "Corbett and Fitzsimmons will not be allowed to meet in Florida, even if the Legislature has to be reconvened for the purpose of preventing the fight."

SULLIVAN AS A TRAINER.

SOUTH FARMINGTON, Mass., October 15.—John L. Sullivan, the ex-champion pugilist, is negotiating for the lease of the well-known Davis farm in South Sherborn. The deal will be closed in a few days. He will retire from the stage and establish a manufactory on the farm, furnishing the training quarters for pugilists. The Davis estate is large and well located.

FEELING IN FLORIDA.

Opposition to the Corbett-Fitzsimmons Fight Already Developed.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., October 15.—Unless there shall be a radical change in public sentiment there will be no opposition to the proposed fight here between Corbett and Fitzsimmons. Mr. Richardson, one of the principal backers of the Florida Athletic Club, is reported to have said the club had been given "inside assurance" that they have no objection to the fight. It is a surprise is felt at the publication in the Citizen to-day, a paper which took no stand in opposition to the Mitchell-Corbett fight when it was pending, as follows: "Allow us to say right now that the so-called preliminaries of the so-called glove contest must be abandoned. It is a brutal prizefight in which one of the participants undertakes to punch the other's head off according to certain fixed rules. As soon as the Legislature meets in next spring, let it be resolved that no member can get the attention of the Speaker, we shall have an iron-bound anti-prizefight law that will cover every phase of this subject. There is no pugilist in Florida, and we propose to take their show to some less civilized and more lawless country."

NEW YORK CLOAKMAKERS.

Their Parade Last Night the Occasion of Much Rioting.

NEW YORK, October 13.—The assembly of cloakmakers in Rutgers square to-night, preparatory to their parade and mass meeting, was marked by indiscriminate clabbing by the police of the Madison-street station under command of Captain Grant. Revolvers were drawn and shots were fired in the air. Three times the gathering was dispersed. The square was the scene of a riot until Superintendent Elymer permit to parade arrested. Even then the slugging and jostling continued. Women and children were treated alike. The parade was divided into two sections. The first went off without interruption, but the second headed by Joseph Barondess was stopped by the police of the Elizabeth-street station. Barondess was arrested and taken to the station. He had communicated with police headquarters and ascertained that the parade was authorized by the Superintendent. Eight thousand persons, of whom twenty-five were women, assembled in Union square.

Last of Casey's Scouts.

OMAHA, October 12.—The last member of troop D, Sixth Cavalry, were discharged at Fort Omaha to-day. This is the Indian company known as the Casey scouts, the only instance of the kind in the United States history. It seems to be demonstrated that the members do not take kindly to soldier life and are not as contented as they were in the more independent life as scouts. In organizing Troop D, the Indians were all taken from the Cheyennes, which composed Casey's scouts, and in honor of the young officer it was designated Casey's scouts. By the discharge of Major Feliet, Senior Major of the regiment, now at Fort McKinney, is left without a command.
