

EVENTS OF THE WEEK.

THE SILEZ RESERVE.—Senator Mitchell has furnished the Oregon City land office with a copy of the law relating to the Silez Indian reservation...

OPIN SWINDLE.—Bob Garthorne and George Powers were taken to Recorder Louts' court Saturday morning and were arraigned on the charge of obtaining money by false pretense from Chinaman Charlie H.

A DAM SUIT.—Three suits aggregating $22,500, have been filed in the state circuit court against the Oregon Iron & Steel Company by attorneys Idleman, Johnson and Moody...

THE BENEFACTIVE FARM.—So far as production is concerned, one of the largest farms in Oregon is that of the Benedictine brothers at Mt. Angel.

INDIAN PEOPLE.—Clarence Pickernel, aged 14, who lives near Skamokawa, Wash., David Obhlegelager, aged 12, and Anton Bertran, aged 11, of Portland, were taken into custody here Saturday for stealing a boat...

FATAL RUNAWAY.—A terrible runaway occurred at Marquam last week which resulted in the death of Mrs. T. P. Soules.

A $1000 FIRE.—The residence of Mrs. Ivy Straight was burned to the ground on Saturday evening about 6:30.

COMMENDABLE.—County Judge Northup of Portland has placed himself on record as a friend of home industries.

VARNISHED PLANTS.—A slick-tongued stranger has been traveling around the county in the vicinity of Springfield selling what he called japonica plants at $1 each.

CALL FROM SPOKANE.—Rev. G. Wm. Gibney on Thursday morning received a telegram from the First Presbyterian church of Spokane, announcing that a unanimous call to the pastorate of that church would follow by mail.

TEACHERS' MEETING.—The next meeting of the Clackamas County Teachers' Association will be held in Oregon City on October 27th.

A HOUSE ROBBED.—The summer house of Fred Smith, on the Sandy, 18 miles east of Portland, was broken into a few days ago and robbed of a number of articles.

RIVER BUSINESS.—P. F. Morey, president of the electric company of Oregon City says the business done on the Willamette is increasing, and the tonnage passing through the locks this year has been 33 1/2 per cent larger than in any former year since he has been connected with the business.

THE PULP MILLS.—The W. P. Co.'s mill A resumed operations on Tuesday after being closed two weeks for repairs.

NEW STORE ON THE HILL.—Now is the time to get your goods cheap. Shively's New Store is now open on Saturday, October 20th, and continues for ten days.

SURPRISE PARTY.—On Friday evening last a surprise party was given to Miss Nora Curran. Those present were: Lola Meyers, Lulu Hankins, Addie and Bertha Scoggin, Mary Bishum, Ellen Shaw, Mary Thompson, Harry Reilly, Chancy Ramey, Waldo Adams, Willie Logan, Arnie Holden, Fred Meyer, Herbert Shaw and Charlie Criswell.

CHILDREN CRY FOR PITCHER'S CASTORIA.—There has never been in this city a better line of shoes than the ladies' fine kid at $1.35; best kid, $1.50; course shoes, 90c; best grains, $1.35; men's good kip tap, $1.35; best grains, $1.50; baby's kid, 25c and 30c; best school shoe for price—$1 to $1.15.

LOCAL NEWS ITEMS.

Mrs. Robert Warner has been quite sick.

H. B. May of Canemah has been quite sick.

Dr. Cowan gives an address this week at Forest Grove.

F. Drake of Marquam has moved to Oregon City to live.

Some departments of the woolen mill are running until 9 p. m.

J. B. Ziegler and P. D. Hall are now managers of the Herald.

Mrs. C. T. Darling becomes the mother of a daughter on Tuesday.

On the 11th papers were quoted by the New York Bulletin at 10 cents.

Mrs. J. W. Cowan was confined to the house by sickness last week.

H. F. Gibson began teaching at Linn's Mill, district No. 21, last Monday.

Mr. Mallon began teaching at Jones' Mill, district No. 61, last Monday.

The elegant fixtures for Huntley's new drugstore arrived on Wednesday.

Harding's bakery team ran away on Saturday and E. E. Williams on Monday.

Petition and bond in estate of Lillie E. Bradley filed in probate on October 16th.

G. W. Prosser of Oswego was appointed notary on Thursday by the governor.

Stonewall Vaughan carries his left arm in a sling. He cut the wrist on a piece of glass.

The season when game birds are allowed to be sold in the markets opened Monday.

City Treasurer Holman makes a call this week for warrants issued prior to March 1st, 1894.

The old folk's dancing club will give their first party at the Armory on next Thursday evening.

J. Comer of San Francisco is now employed in the general merchandise store of I. Selling.

The young men of this place are trying to organize a gymnasium. Young men, give it a "lift."

Married, on October 15th, by Rev. Gabriel Sykes, Eugene Roberts and Lucy M. Greenwell.

Patronize the Oregon City boys. They will give a dance at the Armory on Saturday evening.

The Presbyterians will hold their opening services in the new church on a week from next Sunday.

Ten new members were added to the M. E. church on last Sabbath, three by letter and seven on profession.

The formal opening of the new Bismarck saloon will take place on Saturday evening. A free lunch will be served.

R. H. Henry of Tualatin has organized a colony of Oregon farmers who will in November leave for the Hawaiian Islands.

Frank May, aged 23, oldest son of H. B. May of Canemah was buried on Monday. It has been but three weeks since his other son died.

A. Conifer has traded his Abernethy farm to W. B. Hildeson of Kalama for a ranch on the Columbia river. The value of property is about $5000.

several needed improvements and the general work starts with more than usual promise.

Farwell resolutions to Rev. W. L. Molloy, who will soon leave for Lebanon, were passed at the last regular meeting of the Ministerial Association of Oregon City.

Fred Smith, the Gervais cattle thief, was seen and shot at by Marion county deputies near Highland last week.

Mrs. Jane Hedges and her daughter, Emma, left on Saturday for Pueblo, Colo., where they will spend the winter for the benefit of Miss Emma's health.

A teacher from another county wrote to Superintendent Gibson this week, asking the prospect for him getting a school in this county.

Everyone that dances should go to the dance at Armory on Saturday evening. Music by Oregon City boys.

Chas. Holman of Meadow Brook is favorably mentioned by the press in connection with the office of food and dairy commissioner.

Some 40 members of Portland Rebekah lodge made a fraternal visit to Willamette lodge here on Friday evening.

Walter Kirchem, one of the most successful farmers of Logan, was in the city last week.

Frank Burk, teacher at Whiskey Hill, was in town Saturday. He reports the school in fair condition.

Prof. Chas. Cutting left on Wednesday for his mountain ranch, which is 30 miles from here by trail.

Will Graham, of Clackamas county, eldest son of J. W. Graham, is paying Jacksonville a visit.—Times.

E. P. Dedman, clerk of school district No. 64, of Clackamas, was in the city Saturday looking after school affairs.

G. O. Rineason returned the latter part of last week from eastern Washington where he has been campaigning.

O. D. Austin and wife left for Seio on Saturday, where Mr. Austin will engage in the general merchandise business.

G. B. Richardson and wife of Martinsburg, Iowa, who have been visiting at County Clerk Horton's, returned home this week.

W. R. Shively arrived from Portland on Wednesday to stay. He is now busy arranging for his opening sale on Saturday.

Miss L. A. Wilson of Willaburg was in town Saturday making enquiries about schools. She is teaching in Columbia county.

Misses Annie and Aurie Flinn, daughters of Judge Flinn of Albany, spent Tuesday here as the guests of Mrs. R. D. Wilson.

Leslie Cowing returned from Burns on Tuesday afternoon. He came over the mountains to Salem by team and from there by train.

Mrs. W. Carey Johnson and son, Ronald, and G. R. DeVore returned Saturday from the coast, where they have spent the summer.

Our former fellow-citizen, J. J. Hinderman, was found by the writer comfortably located on a five-acre garden spot in the suburbs of Pendleton.

E. C. Hackett called on Superintendent Gibson Saturday. Mr. Hackett has been very successful and is at the present time teaching the Holcomb school.

G. Storts of Woodburn, formerly of Clackamas, visited Superintendent Gibson Saturday and Sunday. Mr. Storts was on his way to visit J. Gordon at Kingsley, Oregon.

CARD OF THANKS.—The family of the late Mrs. Francisco Friedrich desire to express their sincere thanks to those who consoled and assisted said family during her late sickness.

We are prepared as usual to do all kinds of watch and jewelry repairing and guarantee satisfaction. Bormeister & Androsen.

W. M. Stevens and family of Independence have moved in the McMillan cottage.

J. Winkler, of St. Louis, son of Wm. Winkler, is visiting his father here.

L. H. Doollittle has the frame up for his new house.

Alex Whitehill of Brookville, Penn., is visiting at Dr. Payne's.

PERSONAL MENTION.

H. M. Switzer was in town Saturday.

J. R. Spahr of Nedy was in town Wednesday.

Miss Meserve is visiting her brother, Chas. Meserve.

George Parriah has returned from Lincoln county.

Dr. H. W. Ross of Portland was in the city on Tuesday.

Chas. Gittenden, Teale creek, was in the city Saturday.

Mrs. H. Cochran visited friends in Vancouver last week.

Robert Rutherford of Highland was seen on the streets last Monday.

J. G. Pillsbury and daughter, Vera, returned from Hullam on Tuesday.

Supt. W. T. Hubbard of the Clackamas hatchery was in town Wednesday.

J. M. Larkins and wife of Clatskanie are visiting friends and relatives here.

L. Schwabacker, of the Crown paper mill, left for California on Friday last.

John Stormer, one of Springwater's progressive farmers, was in town Saturday.

Levi Davis, a prominent farmer and stockraiser of Wilhoit, was in the city Tuesday.

Mrs. Dan O'Neil will leave the last of the week to join her husband in California.

Hon. E. Hartman, the hospitable merchant of Marquam, was in the city last week.

H. L. Patterson, J. M. Tracy and Geo. Gibbs of Logan were in town Wednesday.

Mrs. L. O. Moore of Brownsville arrived on Tuesday to visit her brother, J. A. Moore.

Walter Kirchem, one of the most successful farmers of Logan, was in the city last week.

Frank Burk, teacher at Whiskey Hill, was in town Saturday. He reports the school in fair condition.

Prof. Chas. Cutting left on Wednesday for his mountain ranch, which is 30 miles from here by trail.

Will Graham, of Clackamas county, eldest son of J. W. Graham, is paying Jacksonville a visit.—Times.

E. P. Dedman, clerk of school district No. 64, of Clackamas, was in the city Saturday looking after school affairs.

G. O. Rineason returned the latter part of last week from eastern Washington where he has been campaigning.

O. D. Austin and wife left for Seio on Saturday, where Mr. Austin will engage in the general merchandise business.

G. B. Richardson and wife of Martinsburg, Iowa, who have been visiting at County Clerk Horton's, returned home this week.

W. R. Shively arrived from Portland on Wednesday to stay. He is now busy arranging for his opening sale on Saturday.

Miss L. A. Wilson of Willaburg was in town Saturday making enquiries about schools. She is teaching in Columbia county.

Misses Annie and Aurie Flinn, daughters of Judge Flinn of Albany, spent Tuesday here as the guests of Mrs. R. D. Wilson.

WILSONVILLE.

Our school reopened Monday with Joseph Hadley of Newberg at the helm, after one week vacation on account of the Yamhill county fair at Newberg.

Hops are selling very slowly at 6 cents is about all our good farmers are able to obtain for them and for their hard labor of the past six months in the hop fields.

B. Seely, Ed Comstock, Mr. Miley and H. Spencer made Portland a business call this week.

Wm. Murray drove to Portland last week and one of his horses lay down and died soon after arriving at the stable. Mr. Murray purchased a fine new team of about 1400 pounds each and drove home, with less money and better horses.

J. W. Graham has gone to Southern Oregon to spend the winter in the R. R. Co's employ.

Miss Kate Graham has gone to Portland to attend school and Miss Twink Graham began a six or eight month term of school in the Graham's ferry district Monday.

T. S. Riggs is looking for a farm to rent.

Our literary society reopens Saturday evening, November 3d. We hope all will give their time and talent willingly this winter as was done last, to make it a pleasant place to spend our Saturday evenings. Remember, all are invited and a good time anticipated.

October, 13th. B. B.

Potatoes are not turning out very well and are small in size.

J. Evans' family has moved back to Canby for the winter so the children can go to school.

Dr. Powers has left Canby and moved back to Latourelle Falls.

Mr. Dean is building on his Canby property. He is from Dakota.

Everyone is gathering apples.

The Southern Pacific Company is repairing the bridge over the Molalla and fencing its track.

O. W. Sturgis is moving into his new house in Canby.

There is another wedding close at hand. The parties live in Canby.

Mr. Thornton and wife have moved into the Henry Knight house.

There are a few of the farmers sowing wheat and doing their fall plowing, although the ground is not wet enough yet to do good work.

West Riggs, Henry Smith and J. Smith have gone to the mountains for a hunt. Len Shank and Sam Cox have just returned with five deer, one of which weighed 150 pounds.

Apples are selling at Carlton & Rosenkrans' store for 40 cents a box, including the box.

John Stevens sold 15 acres of his land to Mr. J. W. Paddock of Portland for $1300.

Times are so hard that everybody around here wants to rent a farm. There is no work to be had.

Frank Haliday has moved to Newberg, Yamhill county.

October 13th.

Pleasant weather. Send along your rain as we farmers need it in our business.

A lot of bunchgrass horses passed through here Sunday. They were all rather small and scrubby looking. It is a shame that horsemen keep shipping in such worthless, no account plugs, when the country is already over-run with them.

Duplex Literary held a meeting Saturday last in the schoolhouse. A large crowd was present and a roaring good time was had.

October 16th. LENGTHLY.

WHEN YOU PUT MONEY In a pair of our shoes, you are parting with it in a good cause. These shoes are not the melancholy remains of a sacrifice sale.

WE HAVE CHILDREN'S SCHOOL SHOES GALORE

Gaze on Our Show Window

McKITTRICK "THE SHOE MAN" NEXT DOOR TO OREGON CITY BANK

THOS. CHARMAN & SON

SHOES FOR OLD AND YOUNG. MEN'S BOOTS.

Bank of Oregon City. NEW FRESH STOCK!

OLD EST. BAKING HOUSE IN THE CITY. Paid Up Capital, $50,000.

President, THOMAS CHARMAN. Vice President, G. A. HARDING. Cashier, E. G. CAUFIELD. Manager, CHARLES H. CAUFIELD.

Obtain your family supplies at the Grocery, just opened, on northeast corner of Seventh and Center streets. Prices as low as the lowest.

Country Produce Bought. FLOUR AND FEED FOR SALE. J. A. BUCK, Prop.

GEO. A. HARDING, DEALER IN DRUGS.

OREGON CITY SAUSAGE FACTORY. Michael Munch, Prop.

ALL KINDS OF SAUSAGE KEPT ON HAND. Seventh Street, Opposite Depot.

Noblitt Livery and Sale Stable. OREGON CITY, OREGON.

L. M. ANDREWS, M. D. Dealer in Drugs, Notions, Perfumeries, Toilet Articles, etc.

Charles A. Baldwin & Co. BANKERS, 40 AND 42 WALL STREET, NEW YORK.

E. F. DRIGGS, ATTORNEY AT LAW, OREGON CITY.

LOCAL SUMMARY.

Fresh fish of all kinds at J. L. Moore's fish market.

Gardner Freytag has always a large supply of vegetables on hand. Let him know what you want and he will call.

For the best tea and coffee, and sugared hams and bacon, go to the Star Grocery.

What is the use of having sun shine in at your windows when you can get window shades for 30 cents at Bellomy & Busch's?

Call and see line of Lyon & Healy and Kimball organs kept in stock by Bormeister & Androsen.

Wanted, a second-hand one or two-horse tread-power, suitable for running a cider mill. Apply at the Cider & Vinegar Works, opposite Thos. Charman's store.

Leave your orders at the Novelty for a pint or quart of nice fresh oysters. Orders for lunch should be left before 11 a. m. or for dinner before 4 p. m.

Use Pure Prepared Paint. Charman & Co., Druggist, agents. Sample card free.

Mothers and nurses all the world over have given their teething babies and feverish children Steedman's Soothing Powders. Try them.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

$5 REWARD.

A reward of $5 will be paid for the recovery of a saddle which was lost about three weeks ago on the road between Albright's slaughter house and the Seventh street market.

Surprising reductions in the price of genuine Rogers Bros' silverware at Bormeister & Androsen's. They carry a large assortment of spoons, knives and forks, and will be pleased to show the goods and quote you prices that can't be beat anywhere.

Leave your orders for all kinds of fresh fish from Portland at J. L. Moore's fish market, next to Albright's meat market.

W. CAREY JOHNSON, LAWYER. CORNER FOURTH AND MAIN STREETS, Oregon City, Oregon.

The Commercial Bank OF OREGON CITY. CAPITAL, $100,000.

Transacts a General Banking Business. Loans made. Bills discounted. Makes collections. Buys and sells exchange on all points in the United States and Europe and on Hong Kong. Deposits received subject to check. Interest at usual rates allowed on time deposits.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.