Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde. Of the appearance of Richard E. French and his excellent company in Seattle the Telegraph of March 24th, says: "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde was enthusiastically received last night."

Mr. Richard E. French in the title role, sustained the character with the tact, method and art of the accomplished actor that he is, his characterization, delicate, yet bold, portraiture, artistic submergence of self, natural adaptation to condition and circumstances, a refined and true conception of the psychological structure of the characters portrayed, his metamorphose from the villain Hyde to the learned Doctor Jekyll in the third act, we think was the most impressive climax.

After the curtain descended on this great scene, Mr. French was called before the curtain again and again. Miss Eva Earle French captured the good will of all hearers by her pathetic rendering of her role. This lady has a magnificent stage presence and a voice admirably suited to emotional acting.

Prime hops are now 8 1/2 cents. A Chinaman who owns a 75-acre yard near Salem is of the opinion that the hop buyers have found a trust to keep prices down, and he will therefore keep his crop till prices are higher, which they ought to be as only one pound of hops, it is said, goes into a barrel of beer.

ABOUT PRESCRIPTIONS. The best of medicines are none too good for sick folks. It is bad enough to be sick without running chances with second grade drugs. That's the reason we buy only the very highest quality of everything. It's great satisfaction to us to know that every prescription we send out is just as good as good drugs will make it. No matter what you paid for it you couldn't get it any better. C. C. HUNTLEY, Prescription Druggist.

A MODEL SHOE. You begin to find out what sort of a shoe you have bought when you've worn it a little while. The test of a shoe is the wear it will stand. We call our $2.50 shoe a model. It is a handsome looking shoe but that is by no means all that can be said about it. It is not only handsome looking but it keeps its good looks. If you've ever seen anything cheaper in footwear you've had an experience that we've never enjoyed—the big in quality and the little in price have never been more happily combined. This same happy combination is also found in our $2.50 shoe.
