The thumb is an unfailing index of character. The Square Type in-dicates a strong will, great energy and framese. Closely alled is the Spatialated Type, the thumb of those of advanced ideas and business shifty. Both of these types belong to the hose man or woman; and hi f aminy. Both of these types belong to the beay man or woman; and Dedocrest's Family Magazine pre-parce sepacially for such persons a whole volume of new ideas, con-densed in small space, so that the record of the whole world's work - AP record of the whole world's work for a month may be read in half an hour. The Conical Type indicates refinement, culture, and a love of music poetry, and fiction. A person with this type of thumb will thor-oughly enjoy the literary attractions of Demorst's Magazine. The Ar-tistic Type indicates a love of beauty and art, which will find rare measure in the magnificent oil-pict-Conical. beauty and art, which will find rare pleasure in the manificent oil-plct-ure of roses, 1614 x24 inches, repro-duced from the original painting by De Longre, the most celebrated of living flower-painters, which will be gives to every subscriber to Demorest's Magnatics for 1890. The cost of this superb work of art was $350,000; and the reproduction cannot be distinguished from the original. Resides this, an exquisite oil or water-color picture is pub-lished in each number of the Magn-jule, and the articles are so pro-5 Arhistic zine, and the articles are so pro-fusely and superby illustrated that the Magazine is, in reality, a port-folio of art works of the highest order. The Philosophic Type is the fourth of the thinker and inventor of ideas, who will be deeply inter-ested in those developed monthly in Demorst's Magazine, in every one of its numerous departments, which cover the entire attaile and which cover the entire attaile and which cover the entire attaile and which cover the other attaile and perfective is a simply a perfect Philosophic.
