WEBSTER'S INTERNATIONAL DICTIONARY.

Standard of the U. S. Supreme Court and of nearly all the State Courts. Warily commended by every State Superintendent of Schools, and other Educational Authorities without dissent.

A College President writes: "For the work sought, for the accuracy of definition, for effective methods in indicating pronunciation, for terse yet comprehensive statements of facts, and for practical use as a working dictionary, Webster's International exceeds any other single volume."

The One Great Standard Authority. Hon. B. J. Brewer, Justice of the U. S. Supreme Court writes: "The International Dictionary is the perfection of dictionaries. I commend it to all as the one great standard authority."

EPH'S Saving of three cents per day for a year will provide more than enough money to purchase a copy of the International. You can afford to be without it?

to work for. Later Mr. Hoffman taught school, and has been engaged at intervals at this profession since completing his education. Mr. Hoffman was elected to the legislative assembly as a Populist from Marion county, where he has been engaged in farming since 1880.

E. HOFFER, Representative from Marion county, is editor of the Salem Capital Journal. Mr. Hoffer's early life was full of struggles, and his education has been largely acquired in the school of experience. He was born in Iowa in 1854. His life since 1876 has been devoted to journalism, and although admitted to the bar, he has never practiced law. Before coming to Oregon in 1880 Mr. Hoffer was Secretary of the Iowa Senate for two terms. He favors economy and simplicity in public affairs and a strict surveillance of the relations between the government and corporations.

W. E. BURKE, Representative from Multnomah county, was born in Clark county, Wash., in 1866, and removed to East Portland with his parents in 1869. His education was received at the Willamette University in Salem. Mr. Burke is a firm believer in the future of this State, which he has proved by investing in land in several counties. In politics Mr. Burke is a Republican.

J. A. BURLEIGH, Representative from Walla Walla county, was born in West Virginia in 1860. He came to Oregon in 1888, and has since resided in Walla Walla county. After teaching school for several years Mr. Burleigh commenced the publication of The Aurora, a Populist paper, in 1893, of which he is still editor and manager. He was formerly a Republican, but became a Populist in 1891, and has since affiliated with that party.

DAVID CRAIG, Representative from Marion county, was born in Toronto, Ont., in 1852. In 1875 Mr. Craig moved to Oregon, and has since lived in the Waldo Hills near Macleay, where he is engaged in diversified farming and the breeding of blooded stock. Mr. Craig says of himself that he has been a Republican since reading "Uncle Tom's Cabin" and hearing of the assassination of Abraham Lincoln when a boy.

S. L. CALVERT, Representative from Marion county, was born in the adjoining county of Clackamas in 1856. Mr. Calvert's early life was chiefly spent on a farm, and his education was derived from 1861. He has been self-supporting from the age of 14. After temporary residence in several Western States Mr. Hope settled in the Malheur Valley in 1883, where he and his brother are now engaged in the merchandise business and also interested in farming and stock-raising. This is Mr. Hope's initiation to public life. By political faith he is a Republican.

CLARENCE COLE, Representative from Multnomah county, was born in Oswego, N. Y., June 24, 1858. His parents moved to Michigan the same year and settled on a farm, where he was brought up. He was educated at the public schools in Charlotte, Mich., and at the Normal School in Valparaiso, Ind. He read law three years at Grand Rapids, and was admitted to the bar in 1880 and began practice in Portland, Mich. He continued a successful and lucrative practice there five years until stopped by ill health. Mr. Cole came to Oregon in 1888, and settled in Portland in 1889. Soon after he was appointed

"To-day we visited the railroad yards, and were informed by the agent that the twelve cars loaded with supplies for the destitute were in the Burlington & Missouri River yards, and about three cars were in the freight depot, besides the flour, wheat, corn, oats, cornmeal, beans, potatoes, krait and a large amount of groceries and clothing. The potatoes, about one carload, were frozen hard. The krait was in barrels, some of which were burst and leaking badly. We were informed that one carload had been shipped out of this warehouse on January 30. We then visited another warehouse, owned by Kendall & Smith. There we found two carloads of supplies, mostly clothing, a few quarters of fresh beef, mutton and packed with other supplies. This lot showed plainly that
