CARLES · DUTCHER. — The following notice, which speaks for itself, was taken from the social column of the Los Angeles Times of January 29th: "The residence of Mr. and Mrs. McCreery, No. 911 Hope street, was the scene of 4 pretty wedding last evening, Miss Adilla Dutcher of Oregon and Andrew Carles of this city being the contracting parties. The parlors were prettily decorated in smilax, with callas in the front room and yellow blossoms in the back. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Will A. Knighten. The bride, a pretty brunette, was becomingly gowned in white silk, and carried a bouquet of carnations; she was attended by Miss McCreery, who looked charming in yellow silk. C. Tate acted as best man. After the ceremony a bountiful wedding supper was served. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Wesner Mr. and Mrs. Parker, Mr. and Mrs. Lyons, Mr. and Mrs. McFeely, Mr. and Mrs Bledsoe, Mr. and Mrs. McCrecry. Misses Dufton, Benjamin, McCreery; Messrs. INJUNCTION DISSOLVED. - We learn from City Attorney Driggs that the Main street injunction case was decided in favor of the city on Friday last, thereby showing the validity of Mun street improvement assessment. These cases were brought against the city last March by Mrs. P. Paquet, T. Wygant, L. T. Barin, Mrs. Dolan, L. and O. Royal, Mrs. Richards, Mrs. Samson, Mrs. Broughton, Mary Lamson, Clara S. Dedman and M. Harris. The Methodist church recently withdrew from the suit, and the only one remaining undecided is that of Miss Barelay, which will no doubt be decided as the others. Much credit is due Mr Driggs for the manner in which he handled the case. The chief allegations were that the city council had no right to order the imfront of the property upon which th
