

LOCAL EVENTS.

NEWSPAPER CHANGE.—With last week's issue J. B. Zeigler resigned his position as editor of the Herald of this place and says: "Your editor had hoped much, both for himself and the paper from his connection with it, and with a feeling of disappointment, resigns. He has wasted, as far as he is concerned seven months of hard, but hopeful and pleasant work. To those who have helped him with the paper in the same unselfish spirit that he has contributed his own work, he extends his heartiest thanks, and would say to all of you, gentlemen, learn to appreciate your plodders in proportion your assumptions, your jawbones and your fly traps." T. B. Hankins and P. D. Hall have temporarily charge of the paper. It is understood that H. B. Luce and others desire to make a state paper out of the Herald.

A PERIPATETIC HYPNOTIST.—A wandering lecturer on biblical topics who gives his name as Stewart, wears a Salvation Army coat and breeches, and claims he was recently working with the "blood and fire" soldiers in Oregon City, a few days ago hypnotized a lady living near Multnomah, at whose house he was stopping. He sat down in her kitchen and began to look at her intently, but as soon as she perceived that trick he was playing on her she hurried out through the door into the woods hard by, where she lay down for some time in a secluded spot to recover, if possible from the shock to her nervous system occasioned by Stewart's hypnotic influence. She is now under a physician's care. As every experiment of that kind puts Stewart in a state of high nervous excitement, followed by prostration, his object can hardly be a good one.

RAILROAD IMPROVEMENT.—The track laying gang of the S. P. have passed this place. Besides putting in 62 pound rails instead of 56 pound ones they are putting in improved switches, using split rails. The laborers and tamperers receive $1.40 per day and spike boards at $1.00 and pay $1.50 a week board at a box car hotel with Chinese cook. It is learned from L. A. Noble of this place, who has a brother who is an engineer on the road in California, that the company expect to improve the road through to San Francisco, by relaying heavier rails, putting in steel bridges and trestles, etc., and that the time between here and there will be reduced from 20 to 25 hours. At present the trains make about 20 miles and hour but after these improvements will make about 30 miles.

IN THE INTEREST OF GOOD ROADS.—F. J. Beatty, one of the two 5000-mile cyclists sent out by Hofer Bros., publishers of the Salem Journal, to make a tour of the state and report on the condition of the roads, arrived in Oregon City on Saturday. Mr. Beatty has traversed about 900 miles already, and has been on the road since April 29. He expects to be on his wheel at least 100 days. After reaching Portland he will go east to the mountains and follow them south till he reaches Salem, when he will go south. The object of the Journal in sending out these wheelmen is to promote the cause of good roads, and the enterprise certainly is commendable and deserving of encouragement.

SPECIAL SESSION.—A special meeting of the city council was held Monday evening. Remonstrances against the improvement of Seventh and Sixth streets with brick were filed. Ordinances were ordered published declaring the rebate on the assessments for the Main street and Fifth street improvements the rebate to be paid when all the assessments shall have been paid into the city treasury. Councilmen Bronington and Jagger were appointed to act with the local Grand Army people in arranging for the coming campment. Bill of C. C. Babcock for $94.95 for improvement of cemetery was allowed.

M. E. CONFERENCE.—The Ministerial Association of the Portland district conference of the M. E. church will meet in Oregon City, May 20, 21, and 22. On Monday evening at 8 o'clock Rev. J. C. Wilding, D. D., will lecture on "Why Our Preacher Did Not Succeed," on Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock D. D. Driver, D. D., on "Bob Ingersoll and the Devil Combined," on Wednesday evening Rev. Chas. Locke, D. D., on "A Yankee in Bible Lands." Besides the lectures in the evenings, there will be discussions and remarks during the morning sessions. Every one that can, should attend.

BEVERLY ACCIDENT.—On Friday evening H. K. Jones and Ed. Stappie were riding a tandem along Main street when a large dog jumped in front of the wheel, throwing the riders to the ground, where they were run into by Tom Cowing, who was about five in the rear. Jones was quite badly cut on the face, Stappie was rendered unconscious but soon revived and Cowing was scratched a little.

BASKET PICNIC.—The Mark's Prairie school, W. T. Hankins teacher, will give a basket picnic on Saturday, May 25th. The school closes on the following Friday, but as the county teachers' association meets the 25th at that place the picnic will be held on that date. A large number of teachers are expected to be present. J. P. Campbell of this place will make an educational address.

The regular monthly meeting of the board of trade was held on Monday night. T. L. Chairman was elected treasurer. Matter of making arrangements for extending courtesies to the following referred to committee: State grand meeting on May 28. G. A. R. encampment on June 17 and 18, and the Chautauqua assembly July 10 to 20. Steps were taken towards assisting in building a large assembly hall at the Chautauqua grounds and for a large hotel. Cowan and Robert Warner, Congregationalist; Mattie Gray, Sadie Seaver, G. W. Swopes and Leroy Case, Baptists; W. G. Beattie, Presbyterian. Rev. Cowan delivered a practical talk on "What Boys and Girls are Good For." Next year the "C. E.'s" will meet at this place. H. S. Gile of Salem was elected president and W. L. Stanley of Salem secretary.

Howell; Oregon City camp, Elizabeth C. Howell and Thos. F. Ryan; Oswego Rebekah, Ida Starkweather; Oswego lodge, J. S. Raley and W. I. Phinogus; Aurora lodge, P. M. Graves and John H. Daly; Scotts Mills lodge, F. J. Ridings.

GETTING POPULAR.—A man and a woman were seen to board a "side-door Pullman" on the south-bound freight on Tuesday evening at this place. They were probably going to a more congenial climate. Two well-known drummers, who had lost their jobs in Portland, dressed as tramps, took the same train for San Francisco, saying to an acquaintance here "that they did not propose to pay what little money they had for fares."

TRAMP BIRD.—On Tuesday afternoon as the local train was passing, John Dickman isovred red a small bird, resembling a canary, perched on the breakbeam of a car. The bird was covered with dust and was about exhausted when taken off, but after being washed and placed in one of McKittrick's cages, hopped around and seemed quite at home.
