

The U. S. Government Tests Show the Absolute Superiority of Royal Baking Powder.

(Data from the latest Official U. S. Government Report on Baking Powders, Department of Agriculture, Bulletin 13, page 599)

ROYAL is placed first of the cream of tartar powders; actual strength, 160.6 cubic inches of leavening gas per ounce of powder. Every other powder tested exhibited a much lower strength than the Royal, the average being 33 per cent. less.

Every other powder likewise showed the presence of alum or sulphuric acid. The claim that this report shows any other powder of superior strength or purity has been denounced as a falsehood by the Government officers who made the tests.

WILLIAM COURT GULLY.

The Grandson of a Fugitive to Be Speaker of the House of Commons.

William Court Gully, who is to succeed Arthur Wellesley Peel as speaker of the British house of commons, is a grandson of John Gully, the old time English pugilist who twice whipped gigantic Bill Gregson in 1807 and 1808, was offered the championship of England, but declined it, retired from the ring and was elected to the house of commons in 1832.

The speakership of the house of commons, like the speakership of the house of representatives in the United States, is an office of great power and prestige. The salary is $25,000 a year; the speaker is provided with a palatial mansion furnished and equipped for entertaining on a large scale; his pension for life upon retirement is $30,000 a year, even if he only fills the office a few years; he takes precedence as the first commoner of all Great Britain; he is the representative of the commons on all state occasions and is elevated to the peerage. He wears a crown and bears a sword and is a very impressive object when he presides over the commons.

He is elected by the members, and his office is for life. He has a great deal more salary and social prestige but far less real power than the speaker of the house of representatives, and, unlike the latter, is supposed to break all party ties; the moment he becomes speaker. He does his work with a great deal of pomp and ceremony and is accorded much respect, but really has little influence.

William Court Gully is the son of Dr. J. Manby Gully, a noted hydropathic physician who attracted a great deal of attention about a score of years ago because he alleged that the notorious Mrs. Florence Bravo poisoned her husband because she desired to marry Gully. William Court Gully was born in London in 1853. In 1880 he was called to the bar, and became queen's counsel in 1877. In 1878 he became a barrister, and in 1886 was returned to parliament by the electors of Carlisle. In 1892 he was re-elected, and still represents the same constituency. In politics he is a Liberal and a strong supporter of Mr. Gladstone's Irish policy.

In his struggle for the coveted position of speaker, Gully's very weakness has been his strength. He has not particular influence, as evinced by the fact that the public life and has no powerful political enemies.

How a Travelling Salesman Saves Time. One of these peripatetic gentlemen, while stopping in town one day, called to have a small job of printing done. When finished, the postal card had this appearance:

St. Louis, Mo., 1894.

The above is rather unintelligible at first, but with a brief explanation it becomes voluminous with meaning and relevance for love. It is a very simple cipher. The upper row of figures each represents a number of the drummer's family, No. 1 meaning for Mrs. and No. 2 the baby and each of the others a child. In the second row are seen the letters X and figures 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, and have this significance: X means "all right"; 1 means "I don't know"; 2 means "I don't know"; 3 means "I don't know"; 4 means "I don't know"; 5 means "I don't know".

A Curious Oath. The following curious oath was until recently administered in the courts of the city of Man: "By this book, and by the holy contents thereof, and by the wonderful works that God has miraculously wrought in heaven above and in the earth beneath in six days and seven nights, I do swear that I will, without respect of favor or friendship, love or gain, consanguinity or affinity, envy or malice, execute the laws of this land justly between our sovereign lord the King and his subjects within this city, and between party and party as indifferently as the herring's backbone doth lie in the middle of the fish."—Exchange.

The Fortia Law Club. The Fortia Law Club was lately organized in San Francisco, with Mrs. Clara Foltz as president. The club is arranging for a course of law lectures and hopes eventually to organize a regular law school. Ex-President Harrison was invited to address the club when he goes to California to give his course of lectures at Stanford University.—San Francisco Chronicle.

Mrs. Harrison's Portrait. A full length portrait of Mrs. Benjamin Harrison has just been painted for the Daughters of the American Revolution, to be placed in the White House. The painter is Daniel Huntington, late president of the National Academy, and the portrait will hang near the full length painting of Mrs. Rutherford B. Hayes, which is by the same artist. It is valued at $3,000.

TO A WITHERED ROSE.

His sign of life was all too short—
A week or two at best—
From budding time, through blossoming,
To withering and rest.

Yet compensation had there—aye,
For all that little while—
For was it not his happy lot
To live and die a rose?

MORE HASTE, LESS SPEED.

There is a natural and very strong desire in the spring and early summer to ride of underwear and overwear, so that the fresh air may thoroughly refresh. But the frosts of the winter year are taken, and especially at open windows, where the drafts are strongest and a chill the result. It is there where lungbugs sets in. It is in the early morning, when the air is still and makes an attack early. It is just the time also when St. Jacobs oil should be handy for immediate use. It is a time, too, when it makes its surest cures. For lungbugs is a certain remedy.

EUROPEAN SOVEREIGNS.

Many Past Sovereigns, Yet Still Ruling With the Power of Youth.

The Almanach de Gotha for 1894 has buried in its numerous finely printed pages some interesting facts as to the ages of European sovereigns. The oldest of all is the pope, who is in his eighty-fourth year. Next comes the Grand Duke of Saxe-Weimar, who is 75. The king of Denmark and the Grand Duke of Saxe-Weimar are 75; Queen Victoria and the Grand Duke of Mecklenburg-Strelitz, 74. There are six other sovereigns who are older than 70; three who are between 60 and 70, and five who are between 50 and 60. Eleven are between 40 and 50, two between 30 and 40, and two more between 20 and 30.
