

LOCAL EVENTS.

TO EJECT A ROAD COMPANY.—United States Attorney Murphy, in response to a petition filed with him some time since, is making preparations to commence a suit to eject the Mount Hood & Barlow Road Company from the Cascade range forest reserve, and will also attend to the cases of any trespassers on the Bull Run reserve, in accordance with the act of congress of March 3, 1891, and the report of Special Agent J. H. Morrison. The Mount Hood & Barlow Road Company is an incorporation having its headquarters at Oregon City, and was organized, as the petition states, for the purpose of "buying," constructing and maintaining a road and bridges across the Cascade range, south of Mount Hood, from a point on Gate creek, near Barlow's gate, to a point where Alder creek empties into the Sandy. Petitioners allege that the corporation has no charter of authority to collect toll, and no right to maintain a place of business within the Cascade reserve. It is further alleged that the company does maintain a toll gate within the limits of the reservation, on unsurveyed government land, where an employe lives with his family and pastures his stock in direct conflict with the letter of instructions issued by the commissioner of the general land office. This letter was posted in the form of notices at various places on the Cascade reserve, it is claimed, are being torn down, and, if the parties who are doing this can be caught, there will be trouble ahead for them.

EDITORS VISIT THE FALLS.—The following newspaper men, on making a tour of the coast, visited Oregon City and the falls on Friday last: Commodore David Ward Wood, editor of the Farmers' Voice, Chicago, who is in charge of the excursion; Dr. O. W. Nixon, president of the Chicago Inter-Ocean Publishing Company, literary editor of the paper and brother of William Penn Nixon, editor of the Inter-Ocean; Mrs. Nixon and Miss Bertha Nixon, daughter of William Penn Nixon, John Connor, of the Indiana Farmer, Indianapolis; George W. Powell, of the Daily News, Indianapolis, a prominent citizen of that place, connected with the police department; Dr. H. E. Whitford, of the Farmers' Voice, Chicago, one of the most prominent physicians of Southeastern Chicago; George Longman, of the Rural World, St. Louis; W. H. Lawrence, of the Ohio Farmer, Cleveland, one of the Lawrence Brothers, who own the Ohio Farmer and the Michigan Farmer, of Detroit, and Stephen Conroy, of the Northwest Magazine, St. Paul, who is the representative of E. V. Smalley and of the Northern Pacific, and is managing the excursion for the road.

A. O. U. W. OFFICERS.—The following officers for ensuing term were elected by Falls City Lodge No. 59 on last Saturday evening, and who will be installed on Saturday, July 6th: Max Behr, plus, master workman; Max Ham ton, foreman; C. H. Dye, over-seer; Geo. Callif, recorder; W. B. Wiggins, receiver; J. A. Stuart, financier; Joe Froming, guide; M. E. Butler, site guard; Michaels, outside guard; W. M. Moore is past master workman. The following were elected to represent No. 59 at the grand lodge: T. E. Gault, a Geo. Callif, delegates, and Wm. Moore and J. A. Stuart, alternates. E. F. Leitch, No. 65 elected Rudolph Koerner as delegate and Thos. F. Ryan as alternate to grand lodge.

SUIT OVER A TRUNK.—A suit to recover $240 for a trunk and wearing apparel lost July 29, 1893, by Emma D. Rolfe, a passenger from Oswego on one of the Oregon boats, was on trial in Portland on Tuesday in Judge Hurley's court. The action is against the Oregon City Transportation Co. and Mrs. Rolfe is the plaintiff. The company alleges that the baggage weighed 300 pounds, and that Mrs. Rolfe obtained no check for it, and that the ticket she bought under those circumstances entitled her to passage only. The baggage it is alleged, was safely landed upon the wharf, and Mrs. Rolfe was informed that if the baggage was left there it should be at her risk, and what became of the trunk the company does not know.

DID NOT PAY TOLL.—G. Harrington and F. Reinbold, two men from the Walla Walla county, were arrested at Gresham on Monday by Deputy Sheriff C. G. Eids, on a warrant served by Vice President Colman, of the Mount Hood & Barlow Road Co., charging them with obstructing travel on that road and forcing their way over the road without paying legal toll. The families of the prisoners came with them, and are now camped in their prairie schooners near the Abernethy bridge, on the edge of town. The men are in jail awaiting trial before Justice Dixon on Friday. They expect to reach the Siletz by the time the reservation hills are opened for settlement in July.

FIRE AT SHERWOOD.—A fire at Sherwood on Saturday evening destroyed the following buildings and contents: McConnell & Her's store, loss $1200; Sherwood hall, loss $150; Young's barber shop, loss $400; S. P. R. R. depot and toothache, loss $600; Sauer's hotel, loss $1000; total loss $3200. The fire seems to have originated from a defective fire in the store of McConnell & Her. The store carried some insurance. The depot will probably be rebuilt but it is not known whether the other losers will do so or not.

Awarded Highest Honors—World's Fair. DR. PRICE'S CREAM BAKING POWDER MOST PERFECT MADE. A pure Grape Cream of Tartar Powder. Free from Ammonia, Alum or any other adulterant. 40 YEARS THE STANDARD.

CITY OFFICERS' ROW.—On Monday night Andronicus Clarke and Ed Fortune were arrested for gambling and pleaded guilty before Recorder Fouts and were fined $25 each. Fortune paid his fine at once but a reliable business man stood good for Clarke's, which was to be paid in the morning. City Attorney Driggs asked Fouts for his fees in the case and Fouts put him off, claiming that according to the charter he had no right to pay him (Driggs) without orders from council. The next day Driggs collected the fine and offered to turn over his receipt for fees and the balance of fine in money, to which Fouts objected. This led to some "lively talking" and on the way home at noon on Seventh street steps Fouts struck Driggs, but they were parted before damages was done. On Tuesday Bob Gardner swore out a warrant for Driggs charging him with assault on Fouts. Fouts pleaded guilty to the charge and paid his fine. On Wednesday evening the matter was "aired" in the council meeting which resulted in Fouts and Driggs being asked to resign. Driggs left the room and Fouts refused to resign. Driggs was then removed and a new recorder balloted for with no election. Thursday morning Driggs was again appointed city attorney by Mayor Straight. They will both probably be removed if they do not resign, which they should have done at first and saved further trouble.

ASSIGNMENT.—Hamilton Brothers, whose store has been in charge of James Shaw as trustee since April 16th on a chattel mortgage for $6300, made an assignment on Saturday to C. O. T. Williams. The schedule of liabilities foots up $20,745 63, of which $7204 are due to merchants in Portland, San Francisco and the East. The assets aggregate about $25,000, of which $12,000 is real estate, incumbered for $8192; $3776, the store and stock, mortgaged for its full value, and $350 small notes and accounts, all of which are held by certain creditors as collateral security. This move does not especially change the condition of the embarrassed concern, but it makes all unsecured creditors share alike in the proceeds of the estate, after the securities are satisfied. A number of suits are pending against the firm.

PROBATE COURT.—Final report of Ebenezer Lacy, executor of estate of Ira W. Lacy, approved; W. W. Dickerman, administrator of estate of J. M. Brown, sale of property confirmed; Chas. Albright Jr. administrator of estate of Logus & Albright ordered to sell real property; A. J. Yoder, Samuel Crocker and T. C. Ackerson appointed appraisers of estate of Samuel Smith; W. F. Kirk, administrator of estate of D. Wilson, granted permission to sell growing grass; Sarah M. McCown, executrix, ordered to make deed to Bertha Bachman for tract in sec 12, t 2 s, r 2 e.

THE HATCHERY TO BE BUILT.—A large force of men was sent Monday to begin work on the fish hatchery at the location selected by Fish Protector McGuire. The construction will be under the supervision of Mr. J. G. Reed and Mr. Spurgeon, while Mr. Meldrum will have charge of the hauling of the material which, for lack of roads, will be carried in on horses. The work will be under the auspices of the salmon-packers, who have determined to test thoroughly the feasibility of artificial propagation.

LIABILITY OF THE COUNTY.—Judge Mc Bride, in this judicial district, in the case of Mary Pringle against Columbia county, suit for $500 damages for destruction of property through the alleged carelessness of a road supervisor, has decided that a county is not responsible for the result of its officers' negligence or inexperience. In this case the supervisor in opening a road authorized by the commissioners, in burning brush, let the fire get away from him and destroy an orchard for the plaintiff. The court held that the blame rested with the supervisor.

Children's Day will be appropriately observed at the Presbyterian church next Sabbath. Special exercises by and for the children have been prepared for the Sabbath school hour, 10 to 11 a. m. The morning preaching services will also be given over to the children. The pastor will preach a special sermon (il-lustrated) to the little ones. At 3 p. m. there will be a public presentation of diplomas to those of the Junior Endeavor Society who have finished their course of study. Preaching as usual at 8 in the evening. The public is cordially invited to all these services.

The Mechanic's Mill company filed articles of incorporation with the secretary of state Saturday. C. C. Robbins, T. S. Lawrence and H. E. Harris are the incorporators, with a capital stock of $2,000 in shares of $100, intending to manufacture ash, doors, etc. Messrs. Robbins and Lawrence recently purchased the old Callif factory and H. E. Harris was formerly engineer at the ice works.

Clarence Porter has opened a blacksmith's shop at corner of Main and Fourth streets, the stand recently vacated by Mr. Maple. Mr. Porter is well and favorably known throughout the county and will no doubt soon build up a good business, as he is a first-class workman.

The closing exercises of the Ganeman school on last Wednesday were witnessed by a large number. Principal E. C. Hackett and assistant, Miss Sade Chase, had charge of the exercises by the pupils. Superintendent Gibson and Professor Strangue made addresses.

A joint service of church and Sunday school will be held at the Congrega-tional church next Sunday morning, with singing by children's choir, presentation of honors earned during the year and other special features. The evening will also be occupied with a Children's day Sunday school concert.

Wm. Ballard of Clackamas county was discharged from the asylum at Salem as cured on last Thursday. Harris' Grocery is headquarters for fruit jars, jelly glasses and crockery ware. A new variety of shirt waists will arrive at the Racket store on Monday.
