Charming.

A charming girl is at her best when as a background she has charming sur-roundings Furniture, like music, has charms, and certainly no belle of the charms, and certainly no belie of the ball was ever more lascinating than our display of up to date furniture. All Oregon City is charmed with it, to state the case exactly, and speaking by the grammar, our stock is in the buy-case. All who see it are anxious to parse the inspection as a case of buy under the home rule of "make the house as attractive and charming as possible." There can be no better time to put the home in order than this week, when we home in order than this week, when we are selling a pair of portieres for $2.50.

Reply of the Porte.

Constantinople, August 6.—The re-ply of the porte to the demands of the powers for reform in Armenia is conwith the powers' demands. It proposes to appoint Christian assessors to assist the Turkish provincial govern-ment, and to admit a proportion of the Christians among the minor officials, police and gendarmes. The porte also promisies to restrain the Kurds from violence. It also declares that some of the powers' demands are impossible of execution. It is probable that the
