

LOCAL EVENTS.

FIREMEN'S TOURNAMENT.—The boys returned on Wednesday evening from the tournament at Vancouver. President J. W. O'Connell and Chief C. M. Mason of this place were in attendance and D. W. Kinnaird acted as one of the judges and T. F. Ryan as time keeper. The "wet test hose race" was won by Vancouver 24, Astoria 34 and Oregon City 4th. Our boys made the best run on record but missed the coupling at the hydrant. The "dry test hose race" was won by Oregon City in 49 seconds, the other teams making better time but failing to make coupling tight. The "hub and hub race" was won by Astoria in 23 1/2 seconds with Oregon City 21. The Dallas 34 and Vancouver 4th. The "association championship race" was won by Vancouver in 1:18 3/5 with Astoria 21 and The Dallas 34. Oregon City did not run on account of rain.

NATIVE SONS.—The committee on Native Sons and Daughters' day at the fair comprises ex-Mayor D'Arcy, of Salem Colonel R. A. Miller, of Oregon City, and Miss Cecil Remy, of Harrisburg. All are enthusiastic, and announce that the most entertaining of the special programs at the fair will be furnished by the native sons and daughters. The program on that day will be of a literary nature, and will probably terminate with a grand ball in the evening. Among other things will be a song composed by an Oregon boy and sung by an Oregon girl. The oldest native-born woman and the oldest native-born man will be present on that day. Col. Miller will deliver the address for the native sons.

GAVE HIM THE WORD.—Deputy Sheriff Moody has no use now for women officials. He "learned this week that R. V. Jackson, who is wanted for forging School Clerk Harrington's name to a $30 paper, was in Klamath county and wrote to the county superintendent, a woman, asking if he had applied for a teacher's certificate. He also wrote to the sheriff there but she probably gave Jackson a hint and he escaped to California, getting over the line about a half hour ahead of the sheriff. Now a requisition from the governor of that state will be required, thanks to the superintendent.

HOWARD-GAGE.—On Monday at the residence of the bride's parents in Stafford, Judson J. Howard of Oregon City was united in marriage to Miss Agnes Gage by Rev. M. L. Rogg, pastor of Baptist church of this place, after which an elegant wedding dinner was served. The bride, a charming and well-educated young lady, is a daughter of one of the most well-to-do and respected farmers of that place. The groom is a citizen of the west side and occupies a prominent position in the paper mills there. The couple has the best wishes of the COURIER.

CHANGE IN MAIL ROUTES.—The special service to Willamette from Oregon City will be discontinued after September 30. The star service from Oregon to Aurora will also be discontinued at the same time. A star service has been established from Oregon City, by Willamette and Stafford, to Wilsonville, 12 1/2 miles and back, six times a week, by a schedule of not to exceed 2 1/2 hours running time each way, from October 1, 1895, to June 30, 1896. Henry Kleinsmith of Clarkes and Elvases S. Enderby of Cherryville have recently been commissioned postmasters.

BOGUS HOLD UP.—The guest at Willhoit Springs arranged a bogus hold up a few weeks ago, in order to have a photograph taken of the genuine hold up some of them were involved in. They got up a party of robbers in masks and used arms, and went out to meet the stage. Selecting a favorable location, the stage was loaded with passengers; the robbers came on the scene in all the paraphernalia of their office; the driver reined up his team and the passengers began shrieking out, and then the photographer got in his work and immortalized the scene.—Woodburn Independent.

JACKSON COUNTY PROBERS.—Mrs. R. A. Miller will deliver the occasional address at the annual reunion of the Pioneer and native sons and daughters of Jackson county, at Ashland, on September 12th. On this occasion the Native Sons and Daughters have charge of the program, and will furnish the dinner. The annual reunion will be held at the Chautauqua grounds and the literary program will take place in the tabernacle.

KIND WORDS.—The Albany Democrat says: "We are under obligations to Register R. A. Miller, of Oregon City, for a pamphlet of Oregon City, an illustrated edition, splendidly gotten up. It is called the Willamette Falls pamphlet. That city has reason to be proud of its magnificent water-power, the best in the northwest. The writ-up is creditable not alone to Oregon City but it reaches out and shines in the whole valley in a brotherly way."

MILLER-GANONG.—Will L. Miller and Miss Matilda Ganong, were married Thursday, September 5, at high-noon, at residence of the bride's parents, near Canemah, Rev. Charles Edward Locke of Portland officiating. There were present the following immediate relatives of the contracting parties: Mrs. Hodges, Capt. J. W. Ganong and wife, Clark Ganong and wife, Mr. A. W. Howard and wife, Col. Robert A. Miller and wife. After the wedding and the receipt of a number of valuable presents by the couple the guests partook of a sumptuous family dinner. The young couple took the evening train for a wedding trip through the state of Washington. The bride is the charming and accomplished daughter of ex-Sheriff C. W. Ganong, an old and respected resident of this place. The groom is a brother of Col. R. A. Miller of the land office here and a graduate of the Michigan law school and is at present assistant register of said office. The couple have best wishes from COURIER and all who know them.

CHAUTAQUA CIRCLES.—All who desire to take studies in the Chautauqua circles this year are requested to meet Monday evening at Mrs. F. E. Donaldson's on the west side, at Mrs. L. C. Dyer's and at Mrs. C. H. Dye's to organize and order books. Lessons will not begin until the first Monday in October, but it is necessary to order books at once to get them here in time. Books can be ordered here. The five beautiful books used this year are just from the press, newly printed and revised up to date. Cost of books and magazine, $7. The annual registration fee of 50 cents must be paid in order to receive diplomas at the end of the course. This is the American year and on that account the classes are said to be the largest in the history of Chautauqua. Thousands all over the country are entering upon the study. Many school districts in Clackamas county are talking of organizing, also circles are under consideration at Maple Lane, Hubbard, Milwaukie, Clackamas Gladstone and perhaps another one in Oregon City.

OREGON STARS.—The two stars of the yacht defender, which will race with the British yacht Valkyrie III for championship, are made of Oregon pine. A Boston paper says: "The sticks are of selected Oregon pine, carefully inspected and chosen for their particular fitness for the work for which they are intended. The largest star measured slightly over 90 inches in diameter. The massive sticks of Oregon pine which will replace those recently in position upon the cup defender, and when it is confidently asserted are of sufficient strength to withstand the force of any breeze upon her huge sail area, were carried across the city of Boston yesterday on a logging truck without exciting any unusual comment."

FOR A WEEK.—The Senter Payton Comedy Co. will begin a week's engagement at Shively's hall on next Monday evening. The Lance of Hollister, Cal., speaks very highly of this company's performances at that place and says that the company is more of a family than a theatrical company, that from the leading man down to the "property" man they have the utmost esteem for the manager. Some members have been with the troupe for six and seven years. This is a chance to see a good show without going to Portland and no doubt but the show will be liberally patronized especially after it has played a night or two.

NEXT ASSEMBLY.—At the meeting of the new board of directors of the Willamette Valley Chautauqua Assembly this week it was decided to have a 15-day session of the assembly next year, to open on the second Wednesday of July, 1896. The date was fixed this time so that Oregon might have a chance to compete with the Eastern assemblies in securing the best talent of the United States. Many eminent speakers desire to visit the coast and by prompt action among the coast assemblies they can be attracted here before engagements are made in the East.

FEEL OF THE EMBARKMENT.—As the Mt. Hood party of teachers were returning on Thursday evening last they witnessed the following accident: Chas. Rorer was driving along the Eagle creek road, about a half mile above the hatchery, hauling Crookshank's threshing engine, the horses balked and the engine rolled off the embankment smashing it into smithereens. Mr. Rorer escaped injury but one of the horses was quite severely scalded and had to be killed.

PROBATE MATTERS.—Sale of real property of the late S. Huelat by W. E. Carl, executor, approved. Will of John E. Horschuch admitted to probate and L. and H. E. Horschuch appointed executors.
