MANSLAUGHTER.—As the south-bound freight was pulling out of New Era on Tuesday night at 10 o'clock R. W. Moore who was stealing a ride was discovered by a brakeman and ordered off. He told the trainman that it was a bad place to be put off, to which the brakeman replied, "to h— will you" and off he went. He was discovered next morning lying in the ditch where he had fell, a distance of 35 or 40 feet, and was brought to the Gladstone hospital where he died at 4 p. m. He said he was 32 years old and resided at Ottumwa, Iowa, and was on his way home from Washington via California. The four brakemen on the train were arrested Thursday morning and discharged as the coroner's jury said he fell from a moving train. The statement he made before he died had no weight with officials because he didn't make it according to law. Someone is to blame for not bringing the murderer to justice.

INSTALLATION.—Rev. A. J. Montgomery will be installed pastor of the Presbyterian church Wednesday evening of next week, October 23, at 7:30 p. m. The Rev. Thos. Boyd, D. D., pastor of the Fourth Presbyterian church, Portland, will preside, propound the constitutional questions and offer the installing prayer. The Rev. Edgar P. Hill, D. D., pastor of the First Presbyterian church, will preach the sermon. This will be an opportunity to hear Dr. Hill, who has but recently come to this coast from Freeport, Illinois. The Rev. W. T. Wardle, of the Mizpah church, Portland, will deliver the charge to the people. Mr. Wardle was a classmate of Mr. Montgomery in Lane Theological Seminary. Rev. W. P. Miller, pastor of the Westminster church, and late president of the Oregon State Education Union, is expected to deliver the charge to the pastor. The public is invited to be present.

Bill of $7.59 for stereopticon slides was paid, the slides to be shown free by a man who is making a series of scenes of the West for Eastern use. S. Smyth, President Charman and Secretary Lawrence were added to advertising committee to confer with the electric company. Surveyor Kinaird gave a short talk on the benefits to be derived from the new Oregon City and New Era road. Treasurer T. L. Charman explained the straightened condition of the finances of the board. More interest should be taken in the board of trade by business men.

NO SALMON OR EGGS.—Superintendent W. F. Hubbard, of the government hatchery on the Clackamas, who was ordered to Pocatello to secure salmon eggs, returned. He found no salmon in Idaho, and, of course, secured no eggs. If he had been allowed to put a rack across the Clackamas, he might have secured plenty of fish and eggs after the fishway was put in the dam, but now it is too late to secure eggs, as the spawning season is about over. Deputy U. S. Fish Commissioner Bass arrived from California on Wednesday with 1,500,000 eggs for this hatchery. The hatchery there took more eggs than they could hatch.
