

LOCAL EVENTS.

INSTALLATION. The installation ceremonies of the Rev. A. J. Montgomery as pastor of the Presbyterian church were celebrated Wednesday evening, October 23.

THE NEWSPAPER.—Dr. Cowan at the Congregational church Sunday evening discussed the influence of the modern newspaper and among other things appealed to his people to take the daily paper, if they could, making sure that it was the right kind of a daily, and to take the local newspapers, which are doing for the local community a work worth 10 times their cost, but not on any account to fall to take the papers of the church, which would keep them in touch with the life of a world in which the great names were not Durrant and Corbett and Fitzsimmons, and where the great events were not the last priestly fight and the most noteworthy utterance the things the murderer said to the reporter in his cell the night before.

THE HESPERIANS.—The second regular meeting of the Hesperian Literary Club was marked by the deep interest manifested by its members Miss Virdie Monroe, the young energetic president, called the meeting to order and acted her part well. The main feature of the evening's program was the spelling match in which the conquering heroes were Prof. Holmes and Chas. McCushland. Fred Meindle read an essay on Ben Franklin. The girl's quartet rendered one of their silvery strains and took inspiring selections. Everyone who took part deserves congratulation and credit. The next meeting will be held next Thursday evening at 7:30. A good program has been prepared for the occasion. Adults are always welcome.

FROM CLACKAMAS.—Prof. Jacob L. Wortman, whose find of an extinct species of monkey in Colorado has brought him into national notice, is not, strictly speaking, a "Yamhill county boy," though his father is living at McMinnville now. The professor was born in Clackamas county, along about 1856, at the family home on the bank of the Willamette river about 12 miles above Oregon City. His brothers, John and H. C. Wortman, are in business in Portland, the latter being treasurer of the Olds & King Co. Dr. Frank C. Wortman, another brother, died there some two years ago.

THE JENNINGS ESTATE.—Items continue to appear from time to time concerning a vast estate belonging to an English family of the name of Jennings, heirs to which are in Oregon and Washington. The most direct and authentically established succession in this part of the country is said to be that of the late Berryman Jennings, of Jennings' landing, on the Willamette river between Portland and Oregon City. The estate is supposed to be worth something like $80,000,000.

PROBATE MATTERS.—Petition of T. F. Ryan for order to sell property set for hearing on November 23d. Appraisal of estate of W. C. Groff extended to November 23d. Petition for removal of Eva Newman as administratrix denied. Partition of property of Rinearson estate agreed to.

Awarded Highest Honors—World's Fair. DR. PRICE'S CREAM BAKING POWDER MOST PERFECT MADE. A pure Grape Cream of Tartar Powder. Free from Ammonia, Alum or any other adulterant. 40 YEARS THE STANDARD.

ROBBERIES.—Robbers attempted to gain entrance to the store of A. R. Doer little of the west side Saturday morning about 3 o'clock, but were discovered and left on seeing light. They also entered the store of C. A. McMillan of the same neighborhood when they were also discovered before anything was taken. They made their escape. The day before was pay day at the mills and the stores keep considerable money to cash checks those days but had very little on hand. They also entered the house of Mr. Harding and secured a watch.

CIRCUIT COURT.—Actions filed during week with county clerk: Winter & Harper against J. Trembath; Lanra M. Welsh et al against John N. Howett et al; R. L. Sabin against Moody & Rinearson; H. R. Holmes against H. A. Kaylor; Mathew Athey and wife against H. E. Hayes; Rudolph Koerner and Fred Meyer against Willamett Iron Works; Minnie Kuttel against Peter Kuttel; Baptist College against John W. Draper et al; Oregon City against L. T. Barin and against S. E. & P. Paquet.

FAT BREVEES.—This week the enterprising butchering firm of Petzold & Galer received from Eastern Oregon two car loads of the fattest Durhams that have been in this market for many a day. This drove of 50 steers is a fine lot and speak well for the buyers, who are always trying to please the patrons of their two markets by giving them the best and tenderest steak to be had.
