partially covered with about a loot of water. The game was well contested

but in the last half the athletic boys Brown, was released on a $500 bailmade 12 points. The best work was bond. A. V. Davis, Frank and George done by Pope, Parker, Church and Strong who went after Alvis Russell Somers. J. P. Lovett acted as referee, returned on Saturday without being able this (Thursday) morning. Nello Johnson was umpire, F. W. to get to the mines where Alvis lives, Greenman lineman and J. E. Hedges but on Monday he came to town and timekeeper. Nothwithstanding the bad denied the story told by Prisoner weather some 500 people witnessed the Moore in regard to the murder "busigame. Numerous horns constantly rent ness." Russell claims he "filled" the air. The colors of the militia boys Moore some but did not tell the story were orange and white and of the others that Moore related. From personal purp'e and white.

THE BATTLE OF DEMOSTHENES. - The first of the three joint dicussions between the Park Place and Hesperian societies took place last Friday evening. A large gathering listened to the oratorical battle in which the Park Place gladiators, led by their gifted orator W. Donchy, defeated the Hesperian boys in double quick time. The auditorium was beautitul decorated with the national colors and a great profusion of evergreens and demonstrated arti stic taste on the part of the decorators. The Hesperian young ladies with their refined instrumental and vocal talent once more delighted the audience and were warmly applauded and cheered by the spectators. Miss Jennie Noble delivered a well appreciated recitation. Prof. S. W. Holmes in his familiar unique style rendered a beautiful literary selection, which was well received by the audience. The boys'quartet made their first appearance that evening and were greeted by loud cheers and warm applause. May the public turn out in greater number for the next discussion on January 4th .-M. H. S.

A CHURCH PAPER. - The first number of the Falls City Leaguer made its appearance last week. It is published by the Epworth League of the M. E. church, with Rev. S. W. Stryker, E. E. Martin, Miss Kittle Paine and W. M. Moore as editors and B. M. Doolittle, E. J. Maple, W. C. Kirby and Miss Mamie Aldrich as publishers. This 16-page monthly paper is but 25 cents per year and all who can afford should enbecribe and help the good cause. It is quite ifberally patronized by the Oregon City merchants. Much credit is due the pastor Tuesday. for his untiring assistance in getting out the initial number. Mr. Stryker was st. home. .... upon a time a print how to succeed in a venture of this kind. And, right here, it might be said, he also is 'in antiquisatid shows worker and has done much toward the upbuild-ing of the H. E. church and congregation. Muccess to bim.
