Elwood and Keshah Wiles went down near Portland Friday to Mr. Turple's, returning Sunday.

It is stated Ed Davis has rented Harris Deardorff's place.

January 8. JUXTA.

BUTTEVILLE.

Well, holidays are over and the new year has introduced itself to our part of the country with almost every kind of weather.

Farmers are building fences, remodeling buildings and getting ready for spring work.

Johnny Swan and wife have set up house-keeping in his new residence on the hill.

Henry Cone has moved into town and set up a harness and barber shop in the old butcher shop.

Miss Retta Dawson, who is teaching school in Fairfield this winter, came home to spend the holidays with her parents and friends, but returned again last Sunday.

Miss Der is still on the sick list, but is recovering slowly. Miss Emma Ackerson is doing the housework during her illness.

Mr. John Hastings is still unable to be around much.

Mr. Robert Kirk, the St. Paul store-keeper, was awakened about one o'clock one night this week by a noise in the store. He got up and went in at the back door and found two men there who immediately left before Mr. Kirk could capture them. He says one was quite a tall man; the other one not so tall. They had just broken the lock on the safe as he happened upon them.

Professor Tripp of Iowa gave three very interesting temperance lectures here last Sunday.

The ladies' aid society gave a supper in the old schoolhouse last Friday evening for the benefit of the Masonic lodge.

Rev. Mr. Day of Woodburn will preach here next Sunday at 11 o'clock a. m. and 7:30 p. m.

It seems as if some one at Rural Dell had a few remarks to make in regard to the French Prairie mail carrier, some time ago. We think perhaps it was the young writer, but it seems hardly possible that he could have said so much all by himself, poor fellow. It is quite likely that he had some help from a young lady who lives a short distance farther toward the sawmill where the panthers chase the young man home every Sunday night. We thank the parties for the compliment and kindly invite them to write again, but look out for,

QUACK.

BRIAR CREST.

Mr. Deshazer and son passed through here last week on their way to the county seat. He formerly resided here and owned what is now known as Riverside.

The young people, to the number of 25 or 30, met at people's party hall, New Year's eve, and enjoyed a very pleasant watch party. All report a good time.

Miss Landers of Portland was the guest of her uncle for several days last week, returning home Thursday. Her cousin, Miss Maggie, accompanied her home.

We understand that Mr. Laurence Wise has traded his beautiful homestead here for a farm at Sunnyside and will remove there soon.

Miss Mattie Dedman of Portland is visiting old friends here this week.

Mr. Edward Wise from Lents was seen on our streets Tuesday. He had a broad smile on his face and looked as if he was enjoying life hugely.

Rev. Mr. Mulligan of Sellwood preached a very able and interesting sermon Sunday last.

Miss Laura Johnson of Oregon City is visiting at the home of her father, Mr. Marion Johnson. She will remain for about two months. She attended Sunday school and church last Sunday.

Young Mr. Douglas from Eagle Creek, passed through our town one day last week en route for Portland.

Mr. Wells, one of Clackamas county's best teachers, we hear has been engaged to teach another term of school at the Capps school house.

Three young men of the same name, and, it seems, they were of the same mind, met at the same place last Sunday evening in north Clackamas. One of them had a bank, and the other two were with the song, "When the Roses Come Again."

The Sunday school at the M. E. church held its annual election last Sunday. The following officers and teachers were elected for the year 1896:

Superintendent..... Mr. Laurence Asst. Superintendent..... Mrs. Langcoy Secretary..... Charles Cramer Treasurer..... Doris Talbert Librarian..... Milo Thompson Chorister..... C. F. Clark Organist..... Miss Jessie Talbert Asst. organist..... Mrs. Thompson The teachers elected are Mr. J. A. Cook, Mrs. Cook, Mrs. Hartnell, Mrs. Thompson, Miss Georgia Ruth, Mrs. C. F. Clark, Mrs. Longcoy, Miss Moorh, Mrs. Humphrey.

January 8. ANON.

COLTON CULLINGS.

Holidays. People can't say there has been a dry time for it has been raining nearly all through the holidays.

W. E. Bonney gave a Christmas dinner and all present seemed to enjoy themselves.

Christmas night there was a masquerade ball at Canyon Creek Alliance hall and between 55 and 60 numbers were sold. There was quite a variety of masques some of them ridiculous and comic enough to make anyone laugh. One had a long rubber nose, another was a man dressed in lady's apparel with a placard fastened on his back, 12 by 18 inches, with these sad words: "Looking for my husband."

New year's eve there was a dance at Mrs. Gottberg's. Have not heard from it but presume it was just the thing as she is an admirable pastess. New year's eve the Salvation people had a supper. Though we bear hard times on every side, yet there seems to be some and to spare.

Mr. J. Gorbett has his saw mill going again.

Water in the small streams is "booming." Snow is pretty low down on the foot hills. Last Monday night the wind blew fearfully. It over-turned a cabin in the mountains, lifting it off its foundation and set things up side down in the interior of the cabin, which was on Mr. Stoke's claim.

January 2. PEY.

MACKSBURG.

Mrs. Dora Haly returned home last week from Baker City where she has been for her health.

John Hepler has invented a stump-puller and he is just jerking the stumps out. A. Klebe and sons are also digging stumps.

The New Year's masquerade ball in Scramlin's hall was a grand success. Bill Samson was floor manager and Pete Adams was caller. Vienna Callahan and H. Bair got the prize for the two best dressed persons. Everybody had a good time, and everybody had a good time, but Mr. G. W. Scramlin. While he was up stairs some one went into his house and stole a satchel with $15 in it. The boys seem to have it for Scramlin. Mr. A. Reynold got up a supper, but times are so hard the boys could not afford it, so he was out. Whoever wants to have a good time must attend the dances at Scramlin's hall.

Times are so hard that the streets have not been swept for some time.

The leap year dance at Miss Morris' last Friday was 'out of sight.' They danced until midnight and every one went home happy. SHORTY.

CANBY ITEMS.

This is the first winter for a long time that we have not had snow on our hills.

Mrs. Deval, aged 72 years, died on the 20th and was embalmed and taken to Powell's valley for burial.

There are several new comers in town: Mr. Kindred and family, Mr. Dougerty and family of Colorado, who bought property and will make this his home; he paid $400 for six acres of F. Zelmger's land. Mr. Rowe Mack and wife of McMinnville are now located here.

Mr. John Cook is improving his property here, building sidewalks and fences.

There are several cars being loaded at the gravel pit for Lake Labish. There are about 22,000 cords of wood to be cut for the railroad company.

S. Garrison is shipping hoops to California. He has an order for 180,000.

D. C. Dimick is putting up a large wagon shed and a place to store goods.

D. J. Cox started for California on December 25th.

Dr. White is now putting up a barn. He has been building all winter.

J. Shull has moved into his new house which is partly done.

The Christmas tree at the Christian church was well attended and the tree was decorated with fine presents.

Mr. Shull has a gallery of the photographs.

W. W. Weed has his barn finished.

There have been several persons sick with something resembling the grip, sore throats and very bad headaches.

Mr. Price and wife left for the East a short time ago.

Rev. S. Mathews is on the sick list. He has been running his orchard.

Quite a number have not dug their potatoes yet.

Rev. McGiffin's family have moved to Portland for the winter.

The new council members on the 6th H. Lee is mayor. The council are Dimick, Clanger, Weeks, Rizza, Smith, G. Knight, Jr., Vornahl and Rosenkrantz.

There will be an oyster supper at the Christian church on the 15th.

There are several parties shipping potatoes to Fresno.

Mr. Garrison has returned from east of the mountains where he went to visit his sick son.

Mr. Perry's little boy had his eye badly hurt by the bursting of a gun cap.
