PATRONIZE HOME INDUSTRY.

OREGON CITY, JAN. 10, 1896.

NATIONAL DEBTS.

The national wealth, real and personal, of the United States, according to the last census, was $65,037,091,197. It far exceeds that of any other country, and the interest-bearing debt of Great Britain, one-quarter that of France and one-half that of Germany.

The following shows the interest paid by the different countries and the market price of their securities:

Kind of security.	Interest.	Price.
Great Britain, consolidated	2 1/2	105 1/2
France, Paris rentes	3	101 1/2
United States bonds	4	117 1/2
Germany, funded debt	3	102

The debt of each and per capita of debts is as follows:

Country.	National debt.	Per capita.
Great Britain	$3,350,719,563	$57 79
France	4,467,934,398	116 38
United States	215,302,122	14 83
Germany	1,327,307,017	23 61

A YANKEE farmer in Brazil, says an exchange, who longed for ice water, has utilized a kite for the purpose of obtaining ice. He fills a tin can with water and sends it to the height of three miles, where it is promptly frozen. After a sufficient interval the kite is rapidly hauled in and the cake of ice secured. The inventor is so pleased with his toy that it is said he now proposes to send up a kite 150 feet long by a steel wire cable. Under the kite will be suspended a pulley, over which runs an endless chain bearing cans attached to hooks. The cans will be filled with water and the speed of the belt upon which they run will be regulated so that the top, most can be converted into ice sufficiently hard to stand the downward journey.

WHEN California wheat is shipped to Australia and Pennsylvania locomotives to Russia, it indicates that we are still doing business on both sides of the country. And when McKinley gets both items of news in a single issue of his calamity newspapers it is likely to make him suspect himself of a tendency to become a local issue.

THE republicans last week reorganized the senate. They are now in control of both houses and are responsible for all legislation. If they have power to control for spells they have power to control for legislation, and the country will probably hold them responsible for that is done and all that is left undone.

A GRANT county exchange says, "It pays to be a populist, now. A plain democrat or republican pays $1, $1.50 or $2, or what he's a mind to give, for a paper which pays a poppy $1, or $1.50 or $2 a year to take it."

You make governments just as "paternal" as you please; still the classes that show the most energy and skill in conducting their business, and will come out ahead.

THE Roseburg Review deserves credit for getting out the best New Year's issue that we have seen among the country papers.

MULINO.

W. H. Seltzer has returned from his trip to Washington, in poor health.

W. E. Wells froze his feet while he was in the mountains. His wife, Eva, fell from the horse while on the way home from the dance in school district No. 102 and hurt her back. A friend is doing chores for them.

Our school commenced Monday, the 9th of January, with Mr. Young as teacher. The term will be three months.

We understand the grand ball at the grange hall Christmas eve was a failure financially.

There was a dance at Jack Knotts on New Year's eve.

The war scare has given the republican congress an excuse for a return to a war tariff, but we think Cleveland and the senate will give it a black eye.

A. Burley purchased a four-horse team, expecting to haul flour and feed all winter, but the flour and feed ran out and Albert is left with his team on his hands and no work for them to do.

We understand there will be a grand ball at the grange hall on February 22, January 6. SOCIALIST.

CLACKAMAS.

New Year's has come and gone. It is a thing of the past. There are some things in this world too foolish to me, and I think I saw some of those things in last week's paper. They were a few notices about the M. E. church, which were mostly true, but I believe that Brother Sanford Laurence made some misstatements. The "Clackamas news" was not completed in last week's editorial, but will be today.

The Union Sunday school on Christmas eve gave an unequalled entertainment. The church was handsomely decorated and a large Christmas tree stood resplendent with nuts and candies, presents, etc., for the Sunday school scholars. The entertainment began at 7 o'clock and the programme was as follows: Music, Miss Lewinwaite; Song, Strike the harp of Zion; Prayer, Mr. Runyon; recitation, Amy Root; song, Why Stand ye there Idle?; recitation, Edmund Dixon; reading, teacher and class No. 2; song, Tell it Out; recitation, May Foster; address, Mr. Runyon; song, Bring Your Gifts to Jesus; song, Christmas Chimes; responsive reading, P. S. V. P.; recitation, Francis Helmer; recitation, Annie Hickey; song, Dannie Dixon; Tableau, children's prayer; recitation, Arthur Wickman; recitation, Grace Robinson; song, Edmund Dixon; song, Gather Them In; recitation, Dannie Dixon.

At the close of the entertainment the presents and confections were distributed and each little heart made happy. The benediction was delivered by Mr. Runyon and the congregation was dismissed. CHAS. LEMCOE
