MOLALLA.

Several in this vicinity are complaining of severe colds. It almost amounts to the grippe with some. Molalla is trying to have a new school house. There seems to be some dissent among the tax payers of our district; some want a new house, others want to patch up the old one, while others think our present school building is sufficient for the present. The directors met recently after a school meeting had been held and a tax levied to build one, and could not agree on the dimensions of the proposed new house. It is to be hoped though that they will come to an agreement and there will be a new house built this summer. The dimension of the present contemplated house is 32 feet in width and 64 in length, two stories high; two rooms below and a hall above. Such a building would add much to the appearance of our village, besides it is surely needed at this time. Dick Austen had the misfortune last Saturday evening to get his left collar bone badly fractured and his right wrist severely sprained by his cayuse throwing itself and falling upon him. The horse pitched head first and landed upon his back with Dick on the wrong side. Professors French and Hale of Portland are instructing a large class in vocal music at the Molalla school house. They are giving better satisfaction than any one that has ever had a class here before. They are thorough masters of vocal music and have a splendid system of teaching. It is to be hoped that they will teach the second term when the present one expires. They will give a musical entertainment here on or about the 28th of this month when they expect to have both vocal and instrumental music. They also have classes at Marquam, Scott's Mill, Teazel Creek and Needy. Stewart and Russell expect to commence operations on their Ogle Creek mines about the 1st of May. Alys Russell went to the mines a few days ago and reports the snow only from two and one-half to three feet at the mines and hard enough to bear the weight of a horse. Unless there is a further snow fall the mines will be clear of snow by the 1st of April.

The political pot is beginning to faintly bubble out here but it won't be long until we see the smiling face of the office seeker occasionally in our midst.

There is some talk of organizing a brass band again. There is a set of band instruments here and it would be a good thing if the boys would reorganise and have a band again.

John Bagley has recently taken his regular annual cougar hunt on the head waters of Molalla and Butte creek but owing to heavy winds that prevailed during the hunt the animals would not remain long enough for John to get to the tree. His dogs treed a large cougar several times but it would remain only a short time in the tree and finally the dogs and cougar went entirely out of hearing and John had to give it up.

Charley Pelkey has ordered a bear trap and expects to capture a bear this spring. He is staying at the bee ranch this winter. He was all alone for a period of 23 days this winter. He was shut in by high water so that he never seen any one during that time.

REDLAND.

F. Whiteman was at Linn's mill on business last Monday.

The drama and minstrel show at Linn's hall the 1th was a success, but there was not as large a crowd as was expected, although the play was fine.

G. Spees was at Linn's mill Monday.

B. F. Linn has got a force of men repairing his mill, which will be running in full blast about the 17th.

The next M. E. conference of the Viola circuit will be held at this place on Feb. 23d and 23d.

Dr. Gue will give one of his interesting lectures at the M. E. Church on the 25th or 26th of this month. Those who have once heard the doctor will go a long way to hear him again.

Rev. Quinby will begin a series of revival meetings this month, commencing on Monday, the 17th.

Mr. J. W. Orr who has been ill a long time died on Jan. 28th.

Mrs. Frank Stone, of Tacoma, is visiting relatives here.

It is easy to tell by the broad smile on Will Brown's face that something is the matter. It is a 10-pound girl.

John Higgins, one of the best known residents of this place died Jan. 30th, aged 73 years.

ENGINEER.

STAFFORD.

Yesterday rains stopped farm work in general; today the weather is chilly with some snow falling, which melts as fast as it hits the ground.

Jack Hanna will again work at Sharps for a few weeks.

Wm. Schatz came nearly suffering the loss of a hand a few days since. Mr. Schatz was trimming his fruit trees when he made a stroke with his ax which cut the cords of the left wrist almost in twain and also cut through into the artery. Summoning assistance he was taken to Tualatin, when the wound was dressed and the flow of blood stopped by Dr. Taylor. His hand still has a numb sensation and it will be sometime yet before he regains sufficient strength of cords to use his hands and fingers to grasp and hold anything. The cutting of the cords in his left wrist so Mr. Schatz says, takes the strength out of his right hand also, causing a sensation similar to that in the crippled member.

The Literary society was well attended last Saturday evening. A rousing program was rendered including the debate on, "Resolved, That a tobacco user has more pleasure out of life than a non-tobacco user." After an hour and a half of lively sparring by some of our ablest speakers it was decided in favor of the affirmative. Now boys, if you wish great pleasure out of life (not in) just pitch in and use all the tobacco you can possible get away with and you will, undoubtedly, be blessed with much joy in the world to come.

Jake Hoff, aged about 17, had some words with his father, and like many wayward youths thought it better they live apart and also thought he knew too much to receive advice from the "old man" so he sold his hounds for $3.50 and skipped out for California to seek his fortune.

Mr. Polifka is making pickets and intending to renew the fence around his chicken yard soon.

Emerson Woodruff is building a small yard in which to confine his poultry.

Miss Lizale Schatz, one of our most estimable young ladies, leaves us on Monday next for South Dakota, to return no more. Our hearty congratulations go with her and we wish her unbounded joy and happiness in her new home. Most of Miss Schatz's relatives are settled here, but she still has a brother in Dakota.

Messrs. John Schiewe, Sam Mayer and T. Reichle are making a stump machine and preparing to hook it to some of our large fir stumps and either, making, breaking or busting in the business.

John Welch is suffering with a carbuncle on the knee.

S. E. Johnson has been improving his place by building a sheep shed, which was finished last week. It is 40 feet long.

S. H. Christian is in the wood business.

Mr. Coty has been ill, but is better at this writing.

Our merchant and postmaster, Mr. S. E. Johnson, has gone to cobbling shoes, in addition to storekeeping.

Some of our people attended the district quarterly meeting of the Free Methodist at East Portland, which closed Sunday.

Fred Hartman is with us again.

February 4. JUNTA.

HARMONY.

Notwithstanding the rain which poured in torrents a large crowd turned out last Friday evening to the school house to hear the debate on, "Resolved, That married life is happier than single life." The affirmative was led by Chas. Frankhauser, and the negative by Walton Hagenberger. The affirmative made the best points, in favor of whom the judges decided. The subject for February 7th is, "Resolved, That the invention of machinery is beneficial to mankind;" for the 14th, "Resolved, That foreign emigration be prohibited;" affirmative leader, Wm. H. Karr; negative, George Mooney.

Chester McLaughlin had the misfortune to get his foot hurt by a wagon wheel passing over it.

At the special school meeting a tax of 1 1/2 mills was voted.

Rev. E. Maner, pastor of the Evangelical church, expects to commence revival meetings, beginning Monday evening the 10th inst.

There will be populist speaking at the school house Thursday evening.

MULINO SQUIBS.

A special school meeting was held on the 30th and a tax of (5) five mills voted to meet the first payment on the money borrowed to assist in building the house. The money has been used with good judgement, the work donated and the district feels justly proud of a neat building for small cost.

In addition to other business done was a vote to meet on the next afternoon and assist Mr. Howard in moving his fence, which was cordially responded to by the patrons and neighbors. Mr. Howard wishes to express his thanks for the favor.

Mr. Denison, our road boss, had a gang of men putting in corduroy on the hill near the mill-race last week, it was a very needed improvement, but we would like to suggest to Mr. Denison the propriety of getting some person to keep the mud and water from standing in the Molalla and Mill creek bridges and for a slight expense now, save the bridges many years longer, some of us think taxes are about high enough already.
