Ever since the start of her tour last fall Miss Plaisted has been liberally rewarded by both press and public for her conscientious efforts to please, and her merry company also have come in for a large share of the encomiums. People go to the theater either to be amused or edified. The repertoire which will be presented to the Oregon Cityites has been specially selected to amuse the playgoer, if high artistic comedy and choice musical features can entertain the average auditor. Every role is in competent hands, and musical numbers, consisting of solos, duets and quartets, and behind the scenes choruses follow in rapid succession. Not a dull moment is allowed to appear throughout the evening. No effort will be spared to make this engagement an ideal one, one to be remembered in future by the "old theatergoer." The full strength of the company appears at every performance, and the following comprises the list of artists in the organization: Miss Dorothy Rossmore, Irma B. Fitch, Minnie Ellsworth, Daisy Thorne, Lillian Allison, little Nina Cook, Frank Valerac, Cornell Makin, M. Dellanotte, Harry Lewellyn, Charles N. Warner and H. Sherwood. CRUELTY TO FEET

Is entirely done away with by our shoes. In fact, they are a regular "Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Feet." What are their methods? Perfect fit, prompted by respect to the shape of the human foot. A simple creed, but doesn't it cover the whole field? Then a shoe may treat a foot "shabbily" without being exactly cruel to it. That is to say, the shoe may lack style and wearing capacity. But ours have the wearing capacity and style along with the fit, and that should be enough to make you buy them.
