PROFITS TOO SMALL.

OREGON Rail WANT MORE. work.

The latest returns from the Oregon Rail showed that the company had made a 20% profit on its operations for the first quarter of the year. This came as a surprise to many investors, who had expected a smaller profit. The company had increased its rates by 10% earlier this year, but this had not been enough to offset the increasing costs of operation.

IN A MIGHTY NORTH.

What a Moment! When the Senate finally passes the bill to allow states to have their own immigration policies, it will be a momentous occasion. The Senate has been debating this issue for years, and it is about time that we see some progress. Oregon, along with other states, needs to be able to control its own borders and make decisions that are best for its citizens.
