DROWNED.—Henry Stock, a young man, drowned in Abernethy creek shortly before noon on July 4th. He was engaged in pulling some sawlogs he owned down the stream to Broughton's mill, the back water making the creek deep and almost without current, so that the logs made little progress, without pushing. Stock must have fallen into the water so unexpectedly that he strangled, for his outcry was feeble, and he sank in the perfectly placid water scarcely four yards from a grassy, sloping bank, before George Broughton, who happened to be driving past at the time, could run 10 rods to give assistance. He was 23 years of age, industrious, and exemplary in his habits. His parents live a few miles up the Abernethy. He held a policy for $2000 in the Woodmen lodge. The coroner's jury found it to be a case of accidental drowning. The funeral services were held under auspices of W. of W. and the Catholic church.

BODY FOUND.—The body of A. E. McCafferty, who drowned in the Clackamas river, June 16, was recovered last Friday morning by Charles Bolds, in the log boom at the Gladstone mill. At the coroner's inquest, it was found that quite a severe wound had been inflicted on McCafferty's head before death, and it is supposed that the horse he was riding, in fording the stream, struck him while they were struggling in the water. The body was taken to La Camas, Wash., for burial. A reward of $100 was offered for the recovery of the body. He held a $200 policy in A. O. U. W.

PROGRAM FEATURES

For the Chautauqua Assembly at Gladstone Park.

JULY 7-17 INCLUSIVE

Third Annual Gathering and The Richest Intellectual Feast of All.

A better Assembly and a brighter program is the motto of the management for each succeeding year. Their success in the past is a guaranty for the future. The best talent available, eastern and home, is laid tribute to the Assembly; and the eastern talent engaged now makes by arrangement the circuit of five assemblies, three in California and two in Oregon.

FRANK LINCOLN.

Mr. Lincoln is reputed to be the first truly successful venture in the humorous line since Artemus Ward. He is easily first in this class of work, not only in America, but in the world. So successful has he been that a trip abroad planned for months was extended for years by the demand for his services. He has appeared before nearly all of the monarchs of the world. High-class humor, the best of American fun, commanding mimicry, irresistible story-telling, these have won plaudits for him from audiences and press everywhere. He will brighten the Assembly with two appearances, July 9 and 10, in which he will give his world-famed monologues, "Is Music a Failure?" and "The Ligheron Side of Life," consisting of original musical travesties and social satires.

REV. ANNA SHAW.

Rev. Anna Shaw of Philadelphia, is reputed to be the most brilliant woman speaker on the platform. She has come to be not only the coadjutor but the successor of Susan B. Anthony as an advocate of equal suffrage. Susan B. Anthony being unable to fill her engagement here sends in her stead this brilliant woman of whose sayings the California papers just now are full. Her subjects are: "The Fate of Republics," and "The New Man."

SELMA BROWN.

Selma Brown, of Los Angeles, has won for herself a unique place on the Pacific Coast as an entertainer almost without a peer on the platform. He has come to be a leading favorite from Puget Sound to Los Angeles, but this is his first appearance in Northern Oregon. His subjects: "From New York to Jerusalem" and "Away Down South in Dixie" are brimful of humor, good sense and personal observation. Dr. Brown will also preach the Baccalaureate sermon Sunday afternoon, July 12th; subject: "One Tymes and New Tymes, or the World Growing better."

DR. ELBERT R. DILLE.

Rev. Elbert R. Dille, D. D., of San Francisco, is one of the busiest and most popular pastors of the Bay City. Every year he gives a hundred lectures, the overflow of his well stored and imaginative mind. One of his lectures here, "American Shrines," is the fruit of frequent pilgrimages to those spots endeared to the American heart. Dr. Dille illustrates with the stereopticon. He also gives the address: "The Building of a Man" on Recognition Day to the Chautauqua graduates, July 16.

MRS. MARION B. BAXTER.

Mrs. Marion B. Baxter, of Chicago, is a national lecturer and organizer of the W. C. T. U. As the able assistant of Francis Willard she has for several years led the noon-day prayer service at the million-dollar Woman's Temple of Chicago. She brings with her her gifted daughter, Beatrice, of the Columbian School of Oratory, Chicago, who will assist her as teacher of Delsarte at the School of Methods in the W. C. T. U. headquarters.

EDWARDS DAVIS.

Edwards Davis, of Oakland, Cal., needs no introduction to Oregon audiences. All those who heard the wonderful boy orator at the state fair last fall unite in pronouncing him a prodigy of eloquence. He gives the principal address, "New America," on Patriotic Day, and illustrates in a remarkable manner "The Science of Art," on the closing day of the Assembly. Of him the June Overland Monthly says: "With all the literati, artists, scientists, that the West has given to the world—Harte, Twain, Stoddard, Miller, Rosenthal, Royce, LeComte—place some day must be given to this western boy, whose sceptre of speech shall sway the audience of the unnumbered multitude."

MRS. ALICE HAMILL-HANDCOCK.

Mrs. Alice Hamill-Handcock, of Chicago, is the famous daughter of a famous father, Professor S. S. Hamill, one of the best-known elocutionists in the United States. As a child Alice Hamill traveled with her father and assisted in his platform readings. She brings with her for use in her class in elocution, copies of her father's books now in popular use throughout the East. She will instruct a Shakespeare class and also give readings.

CRUELTY TO FEET

Is entirely done away with by our shoes. In fact, they are a regular "Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Feet." What are their methods? Perfect fit, prompted by respect to the shape of the human foot. A simple creed, but doesn't it cover the whole field? Then a shoe may treat a foot "shabbily" without being exactly cruel to it. That is to say, the shoe may lack style and wearing capacity. But ours have the wearing capacity and style along with the fit, and that should be enough to make you buy them.
