JUDY ONE YEAR OLD.

Just one year ago, she was the most interesting little doll that was ever created. A handsome nurseman in a sable coat stood beside her, and all those who beheld her could not help but fall in love with her. She was the original of all beauty, and her heart was like a rose, full of fragrance and delicacy.

The FORTUNE-TELLER.

"Oh, yes," said the fortune-teller, "your fortune will be quite different from what you have been expecting. Your money will increase, and your health will be restored. You will be happy and contented, and your children will be healthy and prosperous."

DO YOU THINK THAT YOU HAVE ALL THE ANSWERS?

There was a knock at the door, and in walked a young man with a solemn countenance. "What is the matter, sir?" asked the fortune-teller. "I have come to ask you a question.

RUSSIAN PEASANTS.

In the midst of the throng, there stood a little girl, her eyes full of grief and sorrow. She was the daughter of a peasant, and her father had been taken away from her by a cruel Fate. "I want to go to Moscow," she said, "to see my father."

SHIFTLING AND IMPROVING QUOTATIONS.

The kind of people who-transact their business in the exchanges, the brokers and the grain-politicians, are the most shiftless and unprincipled of mankind. They are always seeking ways to make money, and they will go to any length to do it. They are the worst criminals in the world, and they are the most greedy and selfish people on earth.
