CORRESPONDENCE.

CANBY CAMP MEETING.

The attendance at the Methodist camp meeting here has been large, notwithstanding the heat. A small admission fee has been charged at the gate, and freely paid, to meet the expenses of fitting up the grounds...

The strong barbed-wire fence has made everything secure, and regulates the crowds, sending them out and in just where the authorities intend them to go.

CANEMAH.

Mrs. Alderman of Woods is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Edmunds. Master Ben Day of Portland was visiting friends in Stringtown Sunday. He left Stringtown about 8 years ago...

Prof. Griffith, the phrenologist, gave a series of lectures Wednesday, Thursday and Friday evenings of last week. His lectures were very interesting but were poorly attended.

The fruit as well as potatoes is a failure in this part of the country. The only sure crop that the farmers of Stringtown see ahead is the tax levy of '97.

MULINO.

Still hot and dry. Haying is about over. Wasco Kellogg of Falls City was out on his wheel to see his father last week.

Mr. Carlisle has the frame of his new house up. Albert Burley has gone east of the mountains to look for work.

Molalla grange took in six new members at their last meeting. W. A. Woodside is talking of buying an engine to run his separator.

Mrs. C. E. Nash was out on a visit to her mother's last week. Wheat harvest will commence next week. If the new free silver saints and half-breed populists capture the national...

CLACKAMAS.

Mrs. Humphrey went to the coast for a few days last week. Miss Wannie Paddock came home from Salem Monday morning. She expects to remain two weeks.

Miss Laura Johnson is home visiting and is resting up preparing for a trip out to the coast that she expects to make soon. She is very much appreciated at church, Sunday school and League when at home.

Mr. J. C. Paddock and Edward Johnson purchased a new Empire self-binder last Monday and expects to start it soon.

The school board have hired Miss Strickler of Harmony to teach the fall and winter school. This was a wise act of the board.

Mrs. Manning still tarries at Spokane and will not be home for a week yet. Mr. Manning is feeling very disconsolate over it.

Mr. Health returned home a few days ago and will now remain for the future. Mrs. Rodonald and Mrs. Knox visited with the Congregational church last Sunday evening.

Mr. Willis Johnson went to camp meeting at Canby last Sunday. Mr. Runyon went to Oregon City on Tuesday on business.

STAFFORD.

The young people met last Friday and putting strong sills under the old school house moved it on to a corner of Mr. Poliska's place, which he had kindly offered them for the purpose, leaving the old school house vacant for the new building. The old house has stood there for nearly 23 years, and witnessed many changes.

The young people are going to fit up the old building for literary purposes. Richard Meubaner has been very sick. His father also has been sick, caused, they thought, by the heat and hard work.

send them to Stafford. Our directors (three promising young men), Messrs. Schatt, Weddle and Myer are getting used to being interviewed and begin to rather like it, as some less than three hundred have applied.

Mr. Phillips talks of going to Hubbard with his family soon. They will be missed. A number from here attended the Chautauqua at Gladstone last week. They report a very instructive and pleasant time.

From a Gold View Only.

Mr. Editor: With your permission I should like to ask through the COURIER if Mr. Latourette is willing to take silver in payment for any notes he might hold, or is he thinking of calling in all his double-eagles and hoarding them up until silver gets down to where the greenbacks were during the rebellion?
