It is these few, the gold monopoly, that are syndicate, corporation and bool? backing McKinley with their millions. In the words of Mr. Bryan, further provision must be made for silver, and that McKinley's backers say, No! And why? Because under present conditions, they control the United States treasury and the circulating medium of the country. The remonetization of silver, making it equal with gold as primary money, is the only measure that will overthrow the tyranny of these money kings that now form the power behind the presi dential chair. The election of Mr. Bryan will be their overthrow. The election of McKinley will tighten the chairs of our servitude. There has been too much makeshift silver legislation since the demonetization act of 1873, but to it? no measure has been more than transitory in its beneficient effects.
