We miss thee from our home dear,
We miss thee from thy place.
A shadow o'er our life is east,
We miss the sunshine of thy face,
We miss thy kind and willing hand,
Thy fond and earnest care,
Our home is dark without thee,
We miss thee everywhere.

When we see the precious blossom,
That we tended with such care,
Rudely taken from our bosom,
How our hearts atmost despair.
Round the little grave we linger fill the setting sun is low,
Feeling all our hopes have perished
With the flower we cherished so.

The little chair is empty now,
The little clothes laid by,
A mother's hope, a father's joy
In death s cold arm doth lie.
Go little pilgrim to thy home
On yonder blissful shore,
We miss thee here, but soon will come
Where thou hast gone before. AUNT LOU.
