THE ROAD FUND CASE—In the case of the City of Oregon City vs. M. L. Moore, county treasurer of Clackamas county, a rehearing was denied on Tuesday in the supreme court at Salem. The court below held that the question as to what portion of the road taxes collected from the property and inhabitants of Oregon City should be applied under the exclusive control and direction of the municipality, could not be determined by a mandamus proceeding against the county treasurer; that, as the law made the county court the tribunal to determine that question in the first instance, it is only on an appeal regularly brought before the supreme court that the court could review the decision. The county treasurer could only pay the money collected over to the city upon the order of the county court. The opinion was prepared by Judge Bean.

FOR AN OPEN RIVER—The committee having in charge the matter of arranging for a convention on June 1st to form an association for the improvement of the Willamette river say in their circular: "We hardly think it necessary to formulate an argument to convince you of the desirability of an early improvement of this very important river of Oregon. The only difference there could be would be as to the best means of accomplishing the object. Neither the Oregon City board of trade nor the committee desires or intends to arrogate to itself any special authority on account of taking the initiative in this matter. We presume something would have been done long ago had it not been that one locality was waiting for another to make a start."

THE EVENT OF THE SEASON—Mrs. Theo. Clark, Mrs. R. L. Holman, Mrs. R. A. Miller, and Mrs. W. A. Huntley, four of Oregon City's favorite hostesses, are to be patronesses for a ball masque given in Armory hall on Tuesday evening of Shrovetide. These ladies are to be assisted by committees of prominent society people. The decorations are to be very elaborate and with all the maskers in costume, will make the scene an unusually brilliant one. Maskers admitted only on presentation of invitation and name.

THE LABOR EXCHANGE—On Saturday evening, at a meeting of the Oregon City Branch No. 185 of the Labor Exchange, W. W. Myers, A. J. Kellogg and A. L. Lulling were elected directors and the by-laws of the branch adopted. The election of auditors was postponed until the next meeting on Saturday evening. The exchange is considering the project of securing a cordwood tract, and also that of crushing rock for road purposes, believing that it can crush rock for about two-thirds the ruling price.

TIMBER FOR SALE—About fifteen thousand cords of stumpage, located three-fourths of a mile south of Willamette Falls, for sale cheap. Will sell all or in part to suit purchaser. Inquire of H. A. Belding, care of Belding Bros., 45 Third street, Portland, Oregon.

WHIST PARTY—A delightful party, in honor of Miss Mabel Shaw, was given at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Latourette on last Wednesday evening. Progressive whist formed the chief amusement of the evening. An elaborate and bountiful supply of delicacies, consisting of sandwiches, cake, olives, salads, salted almonds and cocoa, were served. After refreshments the party participated in various games and Miss Kate Ward favored the gathering with a popular solo which was highly appreciated. The following were present: Misses Mabel Shaw, Emma McGetchie, Laura Pope, Nettie Walden, Betta Fouts, Elma Albright, Alice Lewthwaite, May Wishart, May McBride, Imo Harding, Josephine Chase, Maude Upton, Kate Ward and Bird Walker. Messrs. Chas. Wilson, Rea Norris, J. W. Welch, John and William Lewthwaite, Ed Allen, Grafton Cheney, Chas. W. Pope, Lee Harding, Leighton Kelly, James Church, R. Scott, and W. Upton of Portland, and Howard, Jack and Morton Latourette. Sociability prevailed throughout the entire evening and, at the midnight hour, thanking Mrs. Latourette for her kind, genial hospitality, the guests departed.

RYAN-MARSHALL WEDDING—Miss Inez Naomi Marshall and Thomas F. Ryan were married at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr and Mrs A. J. Marshall, 308 Lincoln street, Portland, on Wednesday evening, February 24, by Dr. Powell of Trinity Episcopal church. Mr. T. P. Randall of Oregon City acted as groomsmen and Miss Grace Marshall as bridesmaid. Those present from Oregon City were: Messrs. T. P. Randall, J. W. Moffatt, F. S. Kelly, D. W. Kinnaird, W. H. Howell; Misses Erma Laurence, Mary Conyers and Neita McCarver, and Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Walker. Those from Portland: Messrs. Edward Marshall, A. J. Jacobson, A. L. McCallman, R. T. Wright; Misses Grace Marshall, Stella Kellogg, Jeanette Perkins, Lottie Clark, Bessie Cleland; Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Bailey, Dr. and Mrs. McLain, Capt. and Mrs. Kellogg, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Washington's Birthday Exercises. On Friday members of the Women's Relief Corps and Grand Army marched to the Eastham school to join the children in appropriate exercises to commemorate the virtues of the father of our country and instill lessons of patriotism. The children were addressed in the separate rooms by members of the Relief Corps and Grand Army, after which the teachers marched the children to the assembly hall. The marching of the children was particularly creditable to the teachers and school. After the children had been arranged in order, according to size, the following program was rendered: Song "Hail Columbia" By School.

Recitation "A Zealous Patriot" Gerald Eastham. "Washington's Birthday Mable Tower.

Song "Our Country Grand Mable Posey.

Recitation "Some New Hatchets Clarence Greene.

"Price of Greatness Twelve Pupils from First Primary.

Flag Salutation by entire school

Song "Washington's Birthday School.

Dr. W. E. Carl was called upon and gave the children a short talk on the "flag salute," explaining the lessons of patriotism which it teaches.

The assembly hall was beautifully decorated with flags and bunting. Two pictures of Washington, drawn from memory by Burton White, were particularly good. One was a bust view, the other Washington on Horseback.

The Ladies' Relief Corps carried the department banner which is a beautiful piece of artistic work. The back ground is dark blue silk on which is painted a splendid picture of Mount Hood in colors. The reverse side is red silk beautifully lettered, showing the name of department, etc.

The members were very well pleased with the school exercises and the children were undoubtedly benefited by their visit.

Appropriate Washington's Birthday exercises at the Willamette Falls, West Oregon City, and Park Place schools Monday afternoon.

"I have used Ayer's Cherry Pectoral in my family for twenty years, and recommend it to others for coughs and colds, and whooping cough. Have never known a single case of whooping cough that it failed to relieve and cure, when it will keep on coughing, until he changes his mind or changes his earthly residence. Singular, isn't it, how many stubborn people persist in gambling, with health as the stake, when they might be effectually cured of cough, cold, or lung trouble, by a few doses of

The man who scoffs at friendly advice to "take something for that cough," will keep on coughing, until he changes his mind or changes his earthly residence.
