THE ATHLETIC.—A goodly number of the Hesperians met at the Barclay school last Friday evening and held one of their interesting and helpful meetings. Mr. Fred Meindle, the president pro tem, presided over the deliberations of the evening. The opening song, rendered by the girls' chorus, was a very pleasing and much appreciated one. Miss Mabel Woods read a selection in her usual unique style. Miss Maud Noble recited the old but patriotic selection, "The Battle of Lundy's Lane," in a most impressive manner. The embryo orators displayed their wit and arguments upon the topic, "Resolved, That more Knowledge is Derived from Reading than by Traveling," the affirmative being heroically represented by Messrs. Meindle and Chas. Patcock. Messrs. Arthur Holden, Edgar Meresse and Carl Joenke sustained the victorious negative. Miss Maud Winslow delivered an original declamation and was greeted with volleys of cheers and enthusiastic applause. The society journal, a comical and mirth-provoking document of sparkling wit, was then read by Miss Woods. Misses Jeanette Read and Echo Sampson sang the closing song, entitled, "The Last Letter." Next Friday will be invitation day and a rousing time is anticipated. ONE.

MINER KILLED.—A dispatch from Victoria, B. C., dated March 1st, states that "Marshall Cleveland, a miner, fell down a precipice, and was killed yesterday. He was returning from Lillooet, and had taken a short cut. The ground was very slippery, and Cleveland missing his footing, fell over the precipice, a distance of 200 feet. The body was recovered early this morning, and brought into Lillooet. Cleveland's relatives, it is said, live at Oregon City, Or." He was formerly in the photograph business in this city and was a brother of Mrs. R. G. Pierce, who has arranged for the funeral here Thursday. About 2½ years ago Cleveland left here with two companions for a trip overland to Alaska, though he was not sure of going beyond British Columbia. He was an exceptionally quiet and industrious young man, and highly esteemed.

SCHOOLS OFFICERS.—The following school officers were elected in their respective districts on Monday: In the West Side district, H. Shipley was elected director and I. D. Taylor was re-elected clerk. The children of school age in the district number 223, a gain of 36 over last year. In the new district of Willamette Falls, J. H. Ralston was chosen director for three years, and E. Mass for one year, and G. C. Kinney was elected clerk. At Milwaukie, Richard Scott was elected director, and Frank Mullen clerk. The salary of clerk was cut from $40 to $20 for the year. The number of school children reported was 123, 25 less than last year. At Parkplace, B. S. Bellomy was chosen director, and Geo. T. Howard clerk. The clerk's census showed 352 children of school age in the district, 41 more than last year.

SCHOOL MEETING.—The annual school meeting for Oregon City district was held in Pope's hall Monday evening. There was little interest in the meeting because only the annual reports of the clerk and board and superintendent were to be presented. The financial condition of the district was set forth at the meeting in January, at which the rate of the tax levy was determined. The election of director and clerk will not take place till next Monday.

AGAINST WATER COMMISSION.—In the contest of the Portland Water Commission vs. Homesteader John H. Buregard, for land in section 27, 1 south, 6 west, being in the Bull Run timber reserve, the local land office Saturday rendered a decision that the water commission had failed to make out a contest, and recommending that the homesteader's final entry pass to patent.

OVER BOUNDARY LINES.—T. R. Worthington and Henry Thiesen, who have adjoining farms lying between Clackamas station and Oak Grove, have had much trouble about the boundary line between their possessions, the matter having been in circuit court several times. At the trial last fall, the jury rendered a verdict in favor of Worthington, but the court has not yet given judgment on the verdict. Acting on the presumption that the jury's verdict was sufficient warrant for taking possession of the disputed property, Worthington a few days ago went upon the land and began taking steps to make it a part of his farm. Thiesen objected to such action, and had Worthington arrested and tried before Justice Genglebach on the charge of malicious trespass. The defendant was adjudged by the court to be guilty of the offense charged, and he was sentenced to pay a fine of $5. This he refused to do, so he was committed to the county jail. County Judge Hayes afterward released him from custody under habeas corpus proceedings, maintaining that the process upon which Worthington was held was null and void.

A BIG DEAL.—F. E. Donaldson, the Oregon City agent for the Royal Insurance Co., has received particulars of a big insurance policy which the company has written, covering various railroad properties aggregating over $2,250,000. To the reporter's inquiries as to the ability of the company to carry so large a risk, this reply was made: "The Royal Insurance Co. is the largest fire insurance company in the world, having assets of about $50,000,000 and an annual income of fire premiums alone of over $10,000,000. The company has recently taken first place in the insurance world, and now leads the largest amount of fire premiums income in the world." It pays to buy the best, especially when it costs no more to get a policy in the Royal than in the smaller and weaker companies.

GRANGE DELEGATES.—A meeting of delegates from the granges of this county was held at the courthouse Tuesday to elect delegates to the state grange at Corvallis the fourth Tuesday in May. Twelve of the 13 granges of the county were represented. Thomas Turner of Tualatin presided, and William Grisenthwaite, of Beaver Creek, was secretary. The following delegates were chosen: Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Ingram of Barlow, Mr. and Mrs. William Grisenthwaite of Beaver Creek, Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Young of Damascus, Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Turner of Tualatin. The alternates selected were T. R. A. Sellwood of Milwaukie, A. C. Newell of Damascus, W. F. Harris of Beaver Creek and A. Lacy of Springfield.

Sweetness and Light.

Put a pill in the pulpit if you want practical preaching for the physical man; then put the pill in the pillory if it does not practise what it preaches. There's a whole gospel in Ayer's Sugar Coated Pills; a "gospel of sweetness and light." People used to value their physics, as they did their religion,—by its bitterness. The more bitter the dose the better the doctor. We've got over that. We take "sugar in ours"—gospel or physic—now-a-days. It's possible to please and to purge at the same time. There may be power in a pleasant pill. That is the gospel of
