THE BEE-HIVE

...IN ITS GLORY...

FOR the simple reason the wise people of Oregon City appreciate the fact that they can get better values for their money with us than any other house in Clackamas county. The reason we can sell cheaper than other houses is because we do a strictly cash business, both in buying and selling.

ELYVILLE.

Among the most noted events of the past week was a baby show, held at the residence of Mrs. Richard Tabor of Mount Pleasant. The invited ladies were: Mrs. C. L. Perry, Mrs. G. W. Kidder, Mrs. F. R. Andrews, Mrs. Prof. Betzel, Mrs. F. Josie, Mrs. J. McKilligan, Mrs. E. Dixon, Mrs. G. W. Grace, Mrs. E. D. Kellogg, Mrs. B. Hughes and Mrs. M. Warnock. All brought splendid looking babies. Mrs. Dixon borrowed one, which took the prize—the finest looking baby there. The afternoon was interspersed with music and songs and the time flew by on eagle's wings, as mirth, conversation, and laughing babies chased it away. An interesting feature of the afternoon was instrumental music by Miss Edna Tabor, which was well rendered and reflects much credit on the teacher, Prof. Betzel, and pupil shows she has had careful training. There were several other songs. Mrs. Grace and Mrs. Prof. Betzel sang a duet, and Mrs. Josie sang a German song, which was very well done. The house was beautifully decorated with ferns and flowers. Too much praise cannot be given Mrs. Tabor in the charming way she entertained her guests, assisted by Mrs. E. D. Kellogg, sparing no pains to make the afternoon pass pleasantly. The delicious ice cream and cake could not be excelled. The breezes, the smiling landscape and the glorious day all invited to make one of the most pleasant affairs that any of the guests had ever enjoyed.

G. W. Grace, Luciene Stout, P. A. Fairclough, E. P. Elliott and John Green Saturday made a fishing trip to the creek seven miles above Highland, where they caught enough fish to make a square meal for two.

CANEMAH.

Flavins Painter was thrown from a horse and kicked last Wednesday. The accident was rather serious but at present he is improving and we hope for his speedy recovery.

The closing entertainment given by the Canemah literary society last Friday was a grand success. The program consisted of recitations, music and dialogues. The two principal plays of the evening were "Going to a New Home" and "A Drop to Much." The persons who took a part, did ample justice to the characters which they represented. In connection with the program, J. E. Hedges gave a very good address on the history of the society. His speech was of interest and gave information to both old and young. The proceeds amounted to $8.15 and every auditor went home well satisfied and felt proud of the opportunity they had to "absquatulate," as Pat said in "Going to a New Home."

Mrs. Narcissa B. May and Mr. W. D. Bowers were married at the home of the latter Thursday, May 20th. They receive the good wishes of the Canemah people.

RURAL DELL.

Albert Spagle is cutting the large timber down on his slashing.

Philp Ogle is hauling lumber with his colt.

Mr. Lawler is on the sick list.

Chas. Ogle and John Johnston was up Rock Creek a fishing last Saturday.

It seems it is a becoming quite a common thing to have a croquet social after prayer meeting every Wednesday evening at Squire Sam's.

Our road supervisor, Walt Noblitt, gave our roads some work last week, which greatly improved them.

L. J. Bigelow is going Wednesday to Oregon City to work.

Some of our people were excited last Monday evening at some strange noise coming down the road and as it approached we investigated the matter and found it to be a drove of cattle, one of which had a tin can or something very noisy tied to its tail, which frightened the others and ran the drove up and down the road.

Emmet Lawler assisted in getting B——'s binder home last Sunday evening.

CANBY CAMP MEETING.

The annual camp meeting, under the auspices of the Oregon State Camp Meeting Association of the M. E. church, will be held on the Canby camp grounds, beginning June 18, 1897, and continuing until June 28, 1897.

The grounds are in order, and arrangements have been made for a successful meeting, to be under the direction of the three Presiding Elders of the Oregon Conference, Revs. John Parsons, D. D., T. B. Ford, D. D., and G. W. Gue, D. D. Bishop Cranston will be in attendance a part of the time.

This is not intended to be a meeting merely for intellectual improvement or pleasurable recreation, but an old-fashioned Methodist camp meeting, where Gospel sermons are preached and the people receive a genuine spiritual uplift.

In order to meet the expenses there will be an admission fee charged at the gate, which plan was found to be most satisfactory a year ago. The prices will be as follows:

Family ticket for the season.....$1 00
Individual ticket for the season..... 50
Single admission..... 10

All persons attending must come prepared to take care of themselves as to board and lodging. There will be a well-kept boarding hall on the ground at reasonable prices.

Owners of lots who intend to occupy them must notify Rev. Gabriel Sykes, 407 East Tenth street, Portland, ten days before the meeting, or other campers will be permitted to use them. Also owners of cottages not intending to occupy them are requested to notify the same party on what terms they will rent them.

From all points on the Southern Pacific Railroad, in Oregon, there will be an excursion rate of one and one-third fare for the round trip, good from June 14 to July 1.

A cordial invitation is extended to everybody. Bring your Bibles and the Methodist Hymnal, your children and your neighbors.

Sincerely,

G. W. GUE,

President of the Association.
