The Only Exclusive First-Class
Dry Goods House in the City

Every article in our establishment is a Leader—and everything first-class in all respects. NO SECONDS. Do you know what seconds are? "Seconds" are articles with manufacturers imperfections damaged in process of making, which are usually sold less than perfect goods—most "cheap stores" handle them—we do not—there is nothing in cheap, shoddy goods for you—no saving of money. We sell you first-class goods for less money. Twenty years business in the city of Portland to back up this statement.

WE HAVE JUST OPENED:

- AT 25c
75 dozen Summer Corsets, the correct thing for warm weather, which we place on sale at 25c pair. Bicycle riders can keep cool in these corsets. Self-adjustable.
- AT 5c YARD
3000 yards 12 inch printed India Lawns, this season's styles, handsome designs. Other houses ask as high as 12 1/2c for them. Our price while they last 5c.
- AT 35c
Men's extra heavy unlaundried shirts. This is the corker that knocks them all.
- AT 25c
25 dozen Men's Ribbed Shirts and Drawers—cream colored. Best garment ever placed on a dry goods counter. Will be placed on sale at the low price of 25c each.
- AT 50c AND 69c PAIR
1000 dozen Ladies' Kid Gloves, hooks and buttons. Values up to $2 a pair; the entire lot will be placed on sale at the phenomenal low price of 50c and 69c pair.

A SOCIAL AFFAIR.—The residence of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Westervelt was illuminated on last Saturday evening, the event being the assembly of a jolly crowd in the style of a social party, which was given by Miss Bursie Reddick, in honor of Miss Milian of East Portland. The gathering found pleasure in playing games, chatting, dancing, music, etc. Misses Louise and Mattie Draper favored the party with a variety of instrumental music which was excellently rendered and highly appreciated. A bountiful spread of ice cream, cake and lemonade was served at a late hour and after the indulgence in a few more dances the party dispersed, all having spent a most enjoyable evening. Those present were: Miss Anna Bebb, Miss Virsteeg, Miss Elma Albright, Miss Bursie Reddick, Miss Milian, Miss Josephine Chase, Misses Louise and Mattie Draper, Miss Lizzie Wilson, Miss Florence Campbell, Miss Mamie Lewthwaite. Messrs. Charles Wilson, Clare Campbell, Edward Allen, William Lewthwaite, Grafton Cheney, Ira Wishart, Harry Draper, Bert Greenman and Charles Burns, Mr. and Mrs. Reddick, Mrs. Westervelt and Miss Louis Westervelt.

FOR A BICYCLE PATH.—On Friday evening a meeting was held at council chamber for purpose of making arrangement for building a path between this place and Portland. The following persons were appointed as a committee of 12 to meet a similar committee from Portland wheelmen: Mayor E. G. Cautfield, Judge G. E. Hayes, Hon. H. E. Cross, Col. R. A. Miller, J. F. Clark, W. A. Huntley, F. E. Donaldson, E. E. Charman, E. E. Williams, J. J. Cooke, J. M. Lawrence and A. W. Cheney. The following committee was appointed to view routes and report at Wednesday's meeting: J. F. Clark, F. S. Kelly, W. A. Huntley, F. E. Donaldson and J. J. Cooke. The committee from Portland wheelmen met with the above committees on Wednesday and after considerable discussion the matter of route was left to a committee composed of J. F. Clark, F. E. Donaldson, W. A. Huntley, E. G. White and F. A. Heitkemper. The following committee was appointed by Chairman R. A. Miller to secure funds and have charge of construction, the Portland wheelmen to put up half of expense: J. F. Clark, E. E. Charman, F. E. Donaldson, W. A. Huntley and Frank Busch. The members of Portland's committee present were Eugene D. White, Col. L. L. Hawkins, F. A. Heitkemper, G. W. Hazen and R. G. Morrow. The citizens of Oregon City, Clackamas, Milwaukie and other towns enroute should materially aid this enterprise. After path is finished thousands of wheelmen will make the ride every week.

WHY IS IT...
That every day our store is filled with buyers from every part of the city, regardless of distance? There must be some reason. People—especially ladies—don't go out of their way to buy unless there is a reason.
IT IS BECAUSE we have established a reputation for absolutely fresh goods—especially in the line of table delicacies, and our customers are sure of a superior article—and then the prices are right.
