PATRONIZE HOME INDUSTRY.

OREGON CITY, JUNE 25, 1897.

TARIFF GOSPEL.

The early tariff gospel was preached partly on the ground of patriotism, and partly on that of self-interest. The farmer and the producer of raw material were told and made to believe that if they paid the tax their money would return to them a hundred fold through the medium of a home market. The farmer permitted himself to be made a beast of burden, painfully and laboriously pursuing the pleasant rainbow of promise that never appeared to get any nearer. It was a most remarkable instance of self-deceit beguiled by prophecy.

The farmer, nevertheless, did not find the value of his product appreciating under the stimulus of a home market. Being a large exporter, the price of his wheat and cotton was fixed by a foreign demand and not at all by that of the home market. Then the hot gospellers of the tariff creed were put to their stumps to find some other excuse, and straightway they persuaded the farmer that the tariff is not a tax. The foreigner and not the farmer pays for it all. Still the farmer found himself growing poorer year by year. For years he had patiently and respectfully permitted New England to do his thinking, accepting the protect that New England was doing it all for his own good.

Something had to be done to pacify the farmer and persuade him to go on carrying the load, so some ingenious trickster hit on the idea of putting thumping big duties on wheat and cotton and other raw material. It is true we do not import these things to any material extent, and having a surplus for export of our own product, the price is fixed in a foreign market, so that the alleged protection was of no effect whatever. The duties were the nearest humbug. It is a strange fact, instructive and illustrative of the whole theory and history of tariff legislation, that these humbug duties are still put forward and seriously advocated as a guarantee that the intentions of congress are honorable as regards the farmer. All this is ancient history, but it is timely to be remembered now when the country is engaged in the triennial grab game over the tariff.

The fact is that all pretext of common and mutual benefit from the tariff has been abandoned. The wrangle in congress stands out to-day as a grab game without disguise. It is nothing more than a struggle of conflicting interests, based on the frank old principle that he shall take who has the power, and he shall keep who can. There is no longer the faintest pretense of legislation for the common good. Imagine a defense of the sugar schedule, for instance, on the ground that it is designed to advantage anybody but the trust. Yet that schedule appears likely to be adopted in some shape advantageous to the trust. Its passage will be effected by combinations with other interests which expects to be benefited by being permitted to grab more than their share and by the bribery of congressmen, taking the shape of inside information for speculative purposes. The country has not known so grave, so disgraceful, a scandal in a quarter century.

That is the condition in which the tariff gospel stands to-day. It is undisguised robbery of the many for the benefit of a few. It has demoralized the politics of the whole country and only survives by the cohesive force of public plunder, aided by bribery in a dozen different shapes.

The people of Salem are demanding an investigation of the methods of Judge Ferrell of Marion. Pass the investigation around.

In one district of New York 1034 families, aggregating 5072 persons, live in 2703 rooms. The wages of the head of these families average a trifle more than $5 a week.

The Vale Advocate says that the sheep shearers of Malheur county are mad. They were promised a raise of a cent a head for shearing if McKinley was elected, but instead they have been compelled to take a cent less than last year.

Mr. Bryant, in a recent letter, made the following remarks, which sum up the situation exactly: "It is as impossible for a person to belong to both democratic organizations as it is for a person to be both a democrat and a republican at the same time." There is no middle course on the financial question. One must either cast his lot with the friends of silver and humanity or join the ranks of the gold standard and the promoters of trusts and monopolies. Every citizen of the United States must make his choice. The issue is more fully understood now than ever before, and there is no fear of what the verdict of the people will be in 1900.

SEALED BIDS WILL BE RECEIVED

by the County Court for the construction of a bridge across Bull Run in accordance with the plans and specifications now on file in the County Clerk's office. Bidders may prepare plans and specifications and submit bids on the same if desirable. Bids will be opened Thursday, July 8th, 1897. The Court reserves the right to reject any or all bids.

Scrofula Swelling

On the Neck and Great Weakness Caused by Impure Blood—Was Constantly Growing Worse.

"When my son was 5 years old he was in very poor health and we could get nothing to relieve him. At the age of 7 years he began to complain of soreness on both sides of his neck and soon lumps began to gather on one side and grew to half the size of an egg. We then became more uneasy and began to doctor him for scrofula. He gradually grew worse, however, until at the age of twelve years we had lost all hope of his recovery. He became so weak he could sit up but a few minutes at a time. My wife saw Hood's Sarsaparilla recommended as a great blood purifier and we sent and got a bottle. We began giving our boy the medicine according to directions and it was not long before we saw he was improving. He continued taking it until he was in very good health. He is now 13 years old and is well. We recommend Hood's Sarsaparilla for all troubles caused by impure blood." E. M. SILVER, Grange, Oregon.
Hood's Sarsaparilla is sold by all druggists. $1.50 for 35. Get only Hood's.

SHERIFF'S SALE.

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, for the County of Clackamas.
Geo. F. Gordon, Plaintiff, vs. Catherine Cecilia Thurman, Defendant.
State of Oregon, County of Clackamas, ss.
BY VIRTUE OF A JUDGMENT ORDER, DEED, and execution, duly issued out of and under the seal of the above entitled court in the above entitled cause, to me duly directed and dated the 21st day of May, 1897, upon a judgment rendered and entered in said court on the 1st day of May, 1897, in favor of Geo. F. Gordon, Plaintiff, and against Catherine Cecilia Thurman, Defendant, for the sum of $22.23, with interest thereon at the rate of 10 per cent per annum from the 1st day of May, 1897, and the further sum of $100.00 as attorney's fee, and the costs of and upon this writ, commanding me to make sale of the following described real property situated in the county of Clackamas, state of Oregon, to-wit: The southwest quarter of the southeast quarter of the southwest quarter of section one (1) in township two (2) south of range two (2) east of Willamette Meridian, Clackamas county, Oregon.

Now, therefore, by virtue of said execution, judgment order and decree, and in compliance with the commands of said writ, I will, on Saturday, the 3rd day of July, 1897, at the hour of one o'clock P. M. at the front door of the county court house in the city of Oregon City, in said county and state, sell at public auction, subject to redemption, to the highest bidder, for U. S. gold coin, cash in hand, all the right, title and claim which the within named defendants had on the date of the mortgage herein or since had in and to the above described real property or any part thereof, to satisfy said execution, judgment, order, decree, interest, cost and all accruing costs.

G. W. BRACE,
Sheriff of Clackamas County, Oregon.
Dated, Oregon City, Or., May 28th, 1897.

Not How High

But how low can we make the price, is the question we ask ourselves when marking our goods for sale. That's what makes ours an ever-expanding business, it's a potent advertiser; it tells the story through the purse in thousands of homes, only to be retold in countless others by appreciative money savers.

A WORD OF MEN'S SHOES...

Shoe bargains, but never bargain shoes. Do you catch the idea? If great buying—if having large lots of shoes made—if the impetus of this great shoe business helps to make prices abnormally small—then we have shoe bargains. These causes and readjustments of our stocks, as sizes become missing, bring all the shoe bargains we ever have. "Bargains Shoes" don't exist otherwise. For shoes "made to sell," for shoe trash of any kind, we've no room.
