

OREGON CITY COURIER.

15th YEAR.

OREGON CITY, OREGON, FRIDAY, JULY 2, 1897.

NO. 7.

Nothing furnishes a room like an artistically colored, well drawn wall paper. One may get along with very little furniture and few draperies, and yet have the room wear a comfortable and home-like appearance, if only the wall paper is warm and rich in effect. It's good economy to buy GOOD WALL PAPER. Inspect our stock of the latest wall hangings. Price—7 cents a double roll and upwards.

Prof. Heritage is in the city drilling three nights a week on the Old Folk's concert for the Chautauqua assembly. At the rehearsal Tuesday evening over 50 of the best singers of the city were present. The professor is stirring up musical interests generally and has already started private lessons at Chautauqua rates with Mrs. C. H. Canfield, Mrs. J. W. Gray, Mrs. W. B. Wiggins, Miss Kate Ward, Mrs. Mabel Treppan of Portland and Herbert Bestow as pupils. This is an extraordinary opportunity for our musical people who can find the professor at his headquarters at the Y. M. C. A. rooms.

Electric Bitters.

Electric Bitters is a medicine suited for any season, but perhaps more generally needed in the Spring, when the languid exhausted feeling prevails, when the liver is torpid and sluggish, and the need of a tonic and alterative is felt. A prompt use of this medicine has often averted long and perhaps fatal bilious fevers. No medicine will act more surely in counteracting and freeing the system from the malarial poison. Headache, indigestion, constipation, dizziness yield to Electric Bitters. Only 50c and $1 per bottle at Charman & Co's Drug Store.

Stands at the Head.

Ang. J. Bogel, the leading druggist of Shreveport, La., says: "Dr. King's New Discovery is the only thing that cures my cough, and it is the best seller I have." J. F. Campbell, merchant of Safford, Ariz., writes: "Dr. King's New Discovery is all that is claimed for it; it never fails, and is a sure cure for Consumption, Coughs and Colic. I cannot say enough for its merits." Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colic is not an experiment. It has been tried for a quarter of a century, and to-day stands at the head, it never disappoints. Free trial bottle at Charman & Co's Drug Store.

When you need legal advice, you go to a lawyer, and pay for it. Why? Simply because the lawyer keeps informed on law matters by reading reliable reports on new laws and decisions by the courts on matters of law in general. Law is his business; he keeps informed on it. You, you as a farmer, need to keep equally well informed on your business. THE RURAL NEW-YORKER gives you the information it costs only $1 a year. We can send it and the COURIER both one year for $2.

Too Big to Advertise.

When a concern is in the heyday of its prosperity, when business is good and competition is not felt is no unusual thing for the advertising solicitor to be informed that the concern is so well known and its business already so extensive that advertising is a useless expenditure of money. We have known a number to argue in this way. In almost every instance where this has happened we have seen younger competitors, by judicious advertising and push, pass them in the race for business. Then these concerns that were too well known to advertise would awaken to the situation and their advertisements would again appear; but while they were sleeping their wide-awake competitors must necessarily have made inroads into their business, which, with fair treatment and business-like methods, they will hold. Let the largest house in any line stop advertising, and note in what incredibly short time a larger business will be built up by somebody who works while they sleep. Are you sleeping?—The Wheel.

In cases where dandruff, scalp diseases, falling and grayness of the hair appear, do not neglect them, but apply a proper remedy and tonic like Hall's Hair Renewer.

After sickness of any kind, complete and speedy recovery is insured by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. It expels all disease germs which may be lurking in the system, and restores tone and efficiency to every organ of the body. It is the best summer medicine.

Celebrated for its great leavening strength and healthfulness. Assures the food against staling and all forms of adulteration common to the cheap brands.
