RAN FOR HIS LIFE.—About 11 o'clock Tuesday night officer Shaw observed a young man coming up Main street in an almost nude condition, and making time as fast as his legs could carry him. At first the officer thought it was some one with an attack of the "jim jams," who was trying to escape from the imaginary "blue devils." When the young man came up to where officer Shaw was standing he was so frightened that he could hardly speak for a moment. He was barefooted and had no clothing on except a thin undershirt and drawers, and explained that some unknown parties were trying to rob and murder him. The officer secured some old clothes and accompanied the frightened individual to his home in Kansas City addition, but there were no indications of burglary. The young man lives alone with his father, but the latter was away from home on this occasion, and stated that some one awoke him by knocking on the door, and asking for something to eat. Soon he heard another voice at the door and some one shouted, "your time is up." Thoroughly frightened he leaped out of bed through the window 12 feet above the ground, and one of the burglars started after him, in close pursuit, striking his back with his fingers, and muttering "d-n you, I will kill you." He said he was followed to the Barclay school building, where he outdistanced the chaser. The frightened individual, refused to stay alone in the house under any consideration that night, and requested that a bed be furnished him in the city jail, where he was kept awake all night by Perry Vorhies, an insane patient just brought in from Wilhoit. After investigation officer Shaw came to the conclusion that the young man was the victim of a practical joke, as the people are new comers.

THE CASCADE LOCKS EXCURSION.—The excursion to the Cascade locks on the steamer Harvest Queen last Saturday, under the auspices of the Ladies Aid Society of the Congregational church, was an unparalleled success. It was the first excursion from Oregon City that has ever passed through or even reached the widely known government locks. Two hundred and ninety-one passengers boarded the steamer at Oregon City, a few more added at Oswego, and enough were taken on at Portland to make up the limit of 600, all the boat is allowed to carry. The trip was a delightful one, and nothing occurred to mar the serenity or good nature of the excursionists. The party was made up of the best people of Oregon City and Portland, and the boisterous element, usually prominent on such occasions, were not in evidence. The musical program under the direction of Prof. Heritage, was all that could be desired, while the Taylor street M. E. orchestra won laurels for their good playing. The business managers of the excursion were Prof. J. W. Gray, Prof. W. L. McAdam, C. H. Dye and Herbert Bestow, and the ladies of the Congregational church are to be congratulated on the successful outcome of the excursion.

COMBINE RATES.—On last Thursday evening the East Side Railway Company formally accepted the provisions of the ordinance granting the company the privilege of running a freight car on Main street. The first monthly payment of $200 which will be applied on the indebtedness of the company to the city for street improvements. The pool on passenger and freight rates, between the East Side Railway and the O. C. T. Co.'s boats, which was declared off a few days ago, went into effect Tuesday. The passenger rates on both cars and boats will be 25 cents one way or 45 cents for the round trip, the tickets to be interchangeable and good on either transportation line. The East Side Railway Company will only deliver freight at their warehouse, opposite Charman & Son's store, and free cartage will be done away with.

COMPANY F AT THE ENCAMPMENT. Company F distinguished themselves and won laurels at the Hood River encampment. They returned home Monday evening bearing all evidence of a vigorous campaign, and the consciousness of having been styled the best drilled company in camp. General Beebe complimented them on the neatness of their uniforms, their soldierly bearing perfect drill discipline, and on the exemplary polish that their accoutrements carried. There was no fun in camp, but it was a continual round of hard work. Reveille at 4.30 in the morning, a set exercise before breakfast at five, after breakfast a battalion drill, guard mount, regimental drill, and similar exercise taking up all the forenoon. After dinner there was a rest until 3 p. m. when there was another repetition of drills until supper time. At sunset there was dress parade, which is pretty good exercise alone. Then in addition to this was the regular detail of guard duty, so that the boys had no time to visit the town or flirt with the girls. Capt. Kelly, Lieutenants Pickens and Huntley and the officers and members of the company are to be complimented on their achievements. Gen. Beebe often pointed out the great work of Company F as an example worthy of emulation to the other companies in camp.

How Old are You?

It makes no difference whether you answer or not. It is always true that "a woman is as old as she looks." Nothing sets the seal of age upon a woman's beauty so deeply, as gray hair. The hair loses its color generally from lack of nutrition. If you nourish the hair, the original color will come back. That is the way that the normal color of the hair is restored by
