FAKIRS IN THE LAND—There should be an emergency clause in the city ordinance regulating the licenses granted to peddlers and fakirs. Under the present conditions a fakir can claim to be the manufacturer of his wares, and the officers are practically powerless to prevent him from doing business, or even collecting license for the privilege. A fakir was selling his bottles of medicine for 60 cents last Saturday evening at the foot of Sixth street, and they were going like hot cakes. In fact, he was drawing a crowd like Bryan, when Officer Shaw came around and demanded that he show his license. As he had none, he was taken into custody and held until the officer consulted with the proper authorities, who advised him to turn the fakir loose. Shaw then asked the medicine peddler why he did not tell him that he was manufacturing his own remedies. He replied that it would have ruined his business, to have made this acknowledgment in the presence of the crowd.

EARLY INDIAN NAMES—Grand Commander T. A. Wood, of the Indian War Veterans, was up from Portland Monday and has begun a series of inquiries to ascertain the original names of rivers, mountains, valleys, plains and places in the Northwest. Pioneers will remember many Indian names, but care will have to be exercised not to confound the Chinook names with original names as known by individual tribes. Clackamas county is probably rich in Indian lore, and the preservation of these names would make an interesting record. The names should be spelled out in syllables. If pioneers or old Indian residents will hand in any Indian names with which they are familiar, to K. H. Gabbert, they will be forwarded to Mr. Wood.

JESSE HAMMER—Jesse Hammer, aged 65 years, 5 months and 10 days, died at residence, where funeral services were conducted by J. B. Embree, and was buried at Cherryville cemetery. He was born January 8, 1832, in Ohio, and was raised in Indiana, and leaves a wife and seven children. He embraced religion in 1867 and departed strong in the faith.

Sunset lots are close to the mills and stores. F. E. Donaldson.

AT CANEMAH—There will be an ice-cream social given at the old school house in Canemah next Wednesday at 7:30 p. m. sharp. A good literary program has been arranged. Admission 5 cents, ice cream and cake 10 cents. All are cordially invited to come. This will be given for the benefit of Cuibono.

Money saved on railroad tickets to all points east. F. E. Donaldson, Agent.

ON A WRIT OF HABEAS CORPUS—R. N. Bradley, a private in Company F, O. N. G., is battling with the military powers to determine whether or not they can collect fines imposed on a member of the national guard for non-attendance at drill. He was court martialled some time ago, and a fine of $3 was imposed which he refused to pay. Upon returning to the city, after a brief absence, he was arrested Wednesday by Constable McCown, the transcript of the case having been transferred to Justice Schuebel's court by the military authorities. The justice issued an execution, which resulted in Bradley's arrest. Yesterday in County Judge Hayes' court a petition for a writ of habeas corpus, was argued on account of lack of jurisdiction by the justice court. The question of the constitutionality of the law in this matter will probably be considered, and the case will likely go to the supreme court to be tested on its merit.

SUMMER CLEARING SALE OF PIANOS...

Including strictly new pianos not of our regular styles pianos returned from our renting custom, and a few others which are perfectly new, and pianos taken in exchange. Prices from $85 upward. There are a number of these instruments presenting a very wide choice in style and cost. Every one of these instruments is offered at much less than its intrinsic value, as we must make room for our new stock, and we fully realize that only extraordinary inducements will move so many pianos at this time of the year. All the following pianos have been thoroughly overhauled in our own repair shop, and are guaranteed as represented in every particular. Prices are net cash, but easy terms may be arranged on an 8-per-cent basis. Persons buying pianos at this sale may exchange them later on for new instruments, should they desire to do so:

Sweetness and Light.

Put a pill in the pulpit if you want practical preaching for the physical man; then put the pill in the pillory if it does not practise what it preaches. There's a whole gospel in Ayer's Sugar Coated Pills; a "gospel of sweetness and light." People used to value their physic, as they did their religion,—by its bitterness. The more bitter the dose the better the doctor. We've got over that. We take "sugar in ours"—gospel or physic—now-a-days. It's possible to please and to purge at the same time. There may be power in a pleasant pill. That is the gospel of
