

OREGON CITY COURIER.

18th YEAR.

OREGON CITY, OREGON, FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 10, 1897.

NO. 17.

Nothing furnishes a room like an artistically colored, well drawn wall paper. One may get along with very little furniture and few draperies, and yet have the room wear a comfortable and home-like appearance, if only the wall paper is warm and rich in effect. It's good economy to buy GOOD WALL PAPER. Inspect our stock of the latest wall hangings. Price—7 cents a double roll and upwards.

GARFIELD ITEMS.

Everybody wears a long face on account of the rain. There is some grain not cut, and some in the shock is sprouting.

Dr. O. B. Smith and wife of Eagle Creek made a flying trip on the hill to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Wilcox, but papa had gone to the hop field.

I. J. Davis threw a rock at one of his horses and broke her leg so he had to kill her.

Miss Millie Davis cut her knee very bad while handling a drawing-knife. Girls don't make good carpenters.

All the dry houses, large and small, are in full blast; plenty of fruit if it don't rain to long and spoil it.

J. W. Palmateer is a little better this week.

Jim Lion and wife of Currinsville were on the hill visiting Mrs. Lee Willis last Sunday.

September 7th. AMERICUS.

HIGHLAND.

Highland has been exceedingly lucky this season in securing the most of the grain, however, there is plenty of grain out yet which is now sprouting and will all spoil. R. J. Stockley has about 40 acres out. Threshing is progressing slowly on account of the rain. There are two steam threshers here, viz: J. W. Jones & Co. and Fred Mink. The grain is not turning out as was anticipated.

The only hog grower in Highland, Amos Harrington, has commenced picking today at 35c a box. Hops are not very good this year and unless picked soon will all spoil; they are commencing to mould.

Our neighbor, James Parrish, has a monstrous large stray dog.

A goodly number of Highlanders went away to pick hops.

One of our enterprising Highlanders went to Oregon City with some wheat to sell for a dollar a bushel, but reported that when he approached the mill, wheat suddenly dropped to 82 cents. What fool mortals will be, if farmers would only hold their wheat now, the millers and other buyers of wheat would soon come to them.

M. E. Kandle is carrying the mail now as the regular mail carrier went hop picking.

G. Wallace is on the sick list, nothing serious, however.

Beef is scarce in this section of the country. A man went through here the other day buying for Seattle market.

Practise Economy in buying medicines as in other matters. It is economy to get Hood's Sarsaparilla because it contains more medicinal value than other—100 doses one dollar.

Hood's Pills are the only pills to take with Hood's Sarsaparilla. Cure all liver ills.

FAITHFUL UNTO DEATH.

Swede Spent Two Years in Vindicating His Brother's Honesty.

"I practiced law once in Silverton, Colo.," said one of the passengers in the smoking room of the Pullman, "and had a case that struck me as a model exhibition of faithfulness. A Swede was mail carrier over the pass to the other side of the range. It was not a long trip, but it was a severe one, made on foot and with the danger in winter from heavy snows added to its difficulty. Andrew carried the mail for a year, then one day he failed to reach home. There were valuable letters in his sack, and the inference that he had decamped was strong. On the night he should have come into Silverton his brother, fresh from Scandinavia and unable to speak English, got off the stage. As county attorney I had to break the news to the boy and stood by while he wept.

"Rewards were offered for Andrew, and I sent out parties to search the pass, but to no effect. A miner claimed to have seen him a week later in Leadville, but we got no more trace of him. The brother refused to believe that Andrew had done wrong and spent his days tramping the canyons searching for his brother's body. We tried to get him to go to work, but he did not yield until by his shortness of funds he was starved to it. In the summer, when most of the snow was off, he searched again, but in vain. During the winter he worked, but when the second spring came he renewed his lonely trampings up the trail. We thought him demented, but he cared not for our opinions. One day in August he walked along at the base of a cliff and saw a boot sticking out from some debris. He uncovered it, and his search was ended. That evening he came into town with the mail sack, much stained but intact, and his brother's coat. The grave he dug, with the rough stone he afterward put at its head, is up the canyon yet. It took two years to vindicate his brother's name, but he did not begrudge it. When it was done, he went back to his native land."—Chicago Times-Herald.

AN ANECDOTE OF LINCOLN.

He Measured Height With a Miner in a Pennsylvania Town.

In the course of an article in St. Nicholas Mary Lillian Herr relates the following characteristic anecdote of Lincoln:

"Once while on his way to Washington as president the train stopped a little time in the town of Allegheny, Pa. Around the station a great crowd gathered, eager to see the new president. They shouted and cheered until Lincoln had to appear on the rear platform of his car. He bowed and smiled, but the crowd was so noisy he did not try to speak to them.

Very near to the platform stood a miner, wearing a red shirt and blue overalls and carrying a dinner pail. Like the rest, he had stopped hoping to see Mr. Lincoln. The workman was almost a giant in size and towered head and shoulders above the crowd.

No doubt he had heard that Lincoln also was very tall, and, encouraged by the friendly face, the workman suddenly waved his bare arm above his head and called out:

"Hi, there, Abe Lincoln! I'm taller than you—yes, a sight taller!"

This loud speech silenced the crowd by its boldness, and a laugh arose. But Mr. Lincoln, leaning forward with a good humored smile, said quietly:

"My man, I doubt it—in fact, I'm sure I am the taller. However, come up and let's measure."

The crowd made way and the workman climbed to the platform and stood back to back with the president elect. Each put up a hand to see whose head overtopped. Evidently Mr. Lincoln was the victor, for with a smile of satisfaction he turned and offered his hand to his beaten rival, saying cordially:

"I thought you were mistaken and I was right, but I wished to be sure and to have you satisfied. However, we are friends anyway, aren't we?"

Grasping the outstretched hand in a vigorous grip the workman replied:

"Yes, Abe Lincoln—as long as I live."

Value of the Egg in Sickness.

The value of egg albumen as food in certain diseased conditions is pointed out by Dr. C. E. Boynton. When fever is present and appetite is nil, he says, when we want an aseptic article of diet, the white of an egg raw serves both as food and medicine. The way to give it is to drain off the albumen from an opening about half an inch in diameter at the small end of the egg, the yolk remaining inside the shell. Add a little salt to this and direct the patient to swallow it. Repeat every hour or two. In typhoid fever this mode of feeding materially helps us in carrying out an antiseptic plan of treatment. Furthermore, the albumen to a certain extent may antidote the toxins of the disease. Patients may at first rebel at the idea of eating a "raw" egg, but the quickness with which it goes down without the yolk proves it to be less disagreeable than they supposed, and they are very ready to take a second dose.—Pacific Medical Journal.

Plants From Beds.

There are certain varieties of mountain plants which have a singular provision of nature for perpetuating their species. The duration of summer in those elevated regions is too short to permit of the ripening of seeds, and the top buds fall off and take root as would the seeds.

Electric Bitters.

Electric Bitters is a medicine suited for any season, but perhaps more generally needed in the Spring, when the languid exhausted feeling prevails, when the liver is torpid and sluggish and the need of a tonic and alterative is felt. A prompt use of this medicine has often averted long and perhaps fatal bilious fevers. No medicine will act more surely in counteracting and freeing the system from the malarial poison. Headache, indigestion, Constipation, Bilexness yield to Electric Bitters. Only 50c and $1 per bottle at Charman & Co's Drug Store.

Stands at the Head.

Ang. J. Bogel, the leading druggist of Shreveport, La., says: "Dr King's New Discovery is the only thing that cures my cough, and it is the best seller I have." J. F. Campbell, merchant of Safford, Ariz., writes: "Dr King's New Discovery is all that is claimed for it; it never fails, and is a sure cure for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. I cannot say enough for its merits." Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds is not an experiment. It has been tried for a quarter of a century, and to-day stands at the head. It never disappoints. Free trial bottle at Charman & Co.'s Drug Store.

Not How High

But how low can we make the price, is the question we ask ourselves when marking our goods for sale. That's what makes ours an ever-expanding business, it's a potent advertiser; it tells the story through the purse in thousands of homes, only to be retold in countless others by appreciative money savers.

CHARMAN & SON,

Dealers in DRY GOODS, GROCERIES, HATS, CAPS, FURNISHING GOODS and GENERAL MERCHANDISE. Call at the PICNEER STORE of CHARMAN & SON before buying elsewhere.

WHY IS IT...

That every day our store is filled with buyers from every part of the city, regardless of distance? There must be some reason. People—especially ladies—don't go out of their way to buy unless there is a reason.

IT IS BECAUSE we have established a reputation for absolutely fresh goods—especially in the line of table delicacies, and our customers are sure of a superior article—and then the prices are right.
