MAIN STREET, NEAR COURT HOUSE, OREGON CITY, OREGON

WORD FROM CONFER.— A letter has been received City from John A. Confer, who left for the Yukon July 30. It was dated at Lake Bennett, September 8 and said that in five or six days the party would be ready to start on down the lakes. The four horses the party took died on the Skagway trail. Confer left near the coast the provisions he took with him from here, and at Lake Bennett bought another supply. A boat that would carry about four tons was purchased at the lake for $200. Of the 4000 persons that had landed at Skagway since July. Confer estimated that about 20 would go through to the mines. Most of those going down the lakes, he said, has gone by way of Dyea and the Chilkoot pass, which is the best route. He says: "I can't say that I am stuck on this country, but I think it is all right. There is no doubt that this is a mineral country."

THE HATCHERIES.— Superintendent Hubbard reports that a great success is attending the efforts of get salmon eggs on the Little White Salmon river, in Skamania county, Wash., between 400,000 and 500,000 being taken daily since the beginning of the work. Probably 9,000,000 will be taken there this season. On the Salmon river, in this county, not so many eggs were taken as expected, the season's output not much exceeding 1,500,000. There are being transported in wagons to the Clackamas hatchery, about 200,000 being taken at a load. Only about 150,000 will be hatched and turned loose in the Salmon river. At the Clackamas station the king of eggs has begun. The prospect is not promising for a large number of eggs to be taken there this season.

KILLED BY TRAIN.—Patrick Gibson, a Macksburg farmer, was killed by the overland train two miles south of this city Tuesday evening. The circumstances as examined into by the coroner, indicate that Gibson stopped his team on the crossing and was himself on the ground when the train struck his wagon. Gibson's head was crushed. One horse was killed outright and the other was afterward shot. The wagon was ground to splinters. Gibson marketed a load of grain during the day, and was intoxicated when he left town, shortly before train time. Gibson was unmarried and lived with his father and was 52 years old. His brother lived near him. The coroner's jury on Wednesday found a verdict of accidental death and exonerated the railroad company.

W. H. Savage of this city has struck it rich and didn't go to Klondike. About a year ago he filed on 40 acres of improved land five miles south of Salem on the main road. His filing was first rejected by the land office but he carried the matter up to the commissioner and won and last week was permitted to file a homestead on the land. The land has been occupied 45 years, it being filed on as a donation claim in 1852 and was held as such until 1876. About 1858 or 60 the present occupants, who claim ownership, bought the land as state school lieu land. Mr. Savage left Tuesday to put in his crop, the land being already plowed by the alleged owners, who will no doubt fight for their land.

Rev. R. A. Rowley, state superintendent of Sunday schools, occupied the pulpit of the Congregational church last Sunday morning and gave a very interesting talk on his work in the state.

Rattlesnakes, Butterflies, and ...?

Washington, Irving said, he supposed a certain hill was called "Rattlesnake Hill" because it abounded in—butterflies. The "rule of contrary" governs other names. Some bottles are, supposedly, labeled "Sarsaparilla" because they are full of... well, we don't know what they are full of, but we know it's not sarsaparilla; except, perhaps, enough for a flavor. There's only one make of sarsaparilla that can be relied on to be all it claims. It's Ayer's. It has no secret to keep. Its formula is open to all physicians. This formula was examined by the Medical Committee at the World's Fair with the result that while every other make of sarsaparilla was excluded from the Fair, Ayer's Sarsaparilla was admitted and honored by awards. It was admitted because it was the best sarsaparilla. It received the medal as the best. No other sarsaparilla has been so tested or so honored. Good motto for the family as well as the Fair: Admit the best, exclude the rest.

Any doubt about it? Send for the "Curebook." It kills doubts and cures doubters. Address: J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass.
