

OREGON CITY COURIER.

13th YEAR.

OREGON CITY, OREGON, FRIDAY, OCTOBER 1, 1897.

NO. 20.

Nothing furnishes a room like an artistically colored, well drawn wall paper. One may get along with very little furniture and few draperies, and yet have the room wear a comfortable and home-like appearance, if only the wall paper is warm and rich in effect. It's good economy to buy GOOD WALL PAPER. Inspect our stock of the latest wall hangings. Price—7 cents a double roll and upwards.

THE GROCER...

CLACKAMAS.

Wm. Paddock and Edward Johnson left Monday for Eastern Oregon to get work, and expect to be gone for several months.

Frank Johnson's horse got his leg broken at the railroad crossing south of Clackamas last week and had to be killed. It is supposed it was done by the engine.

Mrs. Clara Deiman came up from Portland last Sunday evening to make her little daughter, Nida, a short visit.

Mrs. J. O. Paddock went down to Portland last Saturday morning to do some trading, returning home in the evening.

Mrs. Alcetore of Portland has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robinson for the past two weeks.

At the annual election of officers at the M. E. Sunday school Robert Cramer was elected superintendent, Mr. Harmon, assistance-supt.; Willis Johnson, secretary; Dora Talbot, treasurer.

Milo Thomson led the league and Mr. Manning the endeavor on last Sunday evening and Miss Mabel Laurence will lead the league next Sunday evening. All are invited to be present.

Ralph Youman, after an extended trip through Southern Oregon and Northern California on his wheel, returned home one day last week looking hale and hearty.

School commenced last Monday with Miss Sturchler and Miss House as teachers.

Everett Becker, brother-in-law of Mr. Hatch, visited here last week on his way to Corvallis, where he is going to attend school.

Mrs. Wheeler, of Northern Iowa, an Evangelist, and mother of our worthy townsman, Mr. Wheeler, preached an excellent sermon last Sunday.

The familiar face of Mr. Toney Foster, after gone all summer, was seen on our streets one day last week.

We are glad to know that the long promised wave of prosperity has struck at least four persons, namely: The four bank robbers that the president has pardoned after serving half their time.

We noticed in your valuable paper of last week a report of the verdict of coroners jury in the matter of the killing of Patrick Gibson, of Macksburg, that the said jury had exonerated the Southern Pacific company of blame. Now gentlemen of the jury how about the party that sold him the liquor? Have you exonerated him, if so, we think a just God has not but will hold him responsible.

STAFFORD.

Hon. E. A. Moses, of Portland, spent Sunday in our midst.

Wm. M. Gage, of Kansas, an only brother of J. P. Gage of this place, arrived here on the 26th. It is the first time the brothers have met since 1870.

John Schieve and Chas. Polivka have made several barrels of cider on the Goldsmith place. Several more barrels have been ground out at Wm. Schatz's mill.

T. L. Turner and sons have been hauling lumber from Jones' mill on the macadam road to build a house for his son, Albert. Gephart and Reichle have the contract to erect the building.

Edward Sharp is getting along slowly with his residence.

Many people are traveling on the road and camp in many out-of-the-way places.

School commenced here in district No 41, Monday the 29th, with our former teacher, Miss Ida Francis, at the helm. Wild brands have begun to go southward; it must be that autumn has come at last.

Sports have not had very good success in these parts, not much game here and some of the farmer boys don't have any respect for bird-dogs.

Sam Mayer has been making grape wine.

P. A. Baker has some plowing done and is now ready to sow fall grain.

Fruit harvest is now at hand. Pitch in now if you ever expect to partake of it in the winter.

September 27. LENTHAY.

COLTON.

Fall plowing has commenced.

Everybody in this section has returned home from hop picking.

J. Gorbett is having the inside of his house painted. P. P. Hall of Meadow Brook is doing the painting.

Geo. Bonney and wife and Dick Bonney and Edgar Pratt of Wamic, are visiting relatives at this place.

Mrs. W. E. Bonney has the erysipelas.

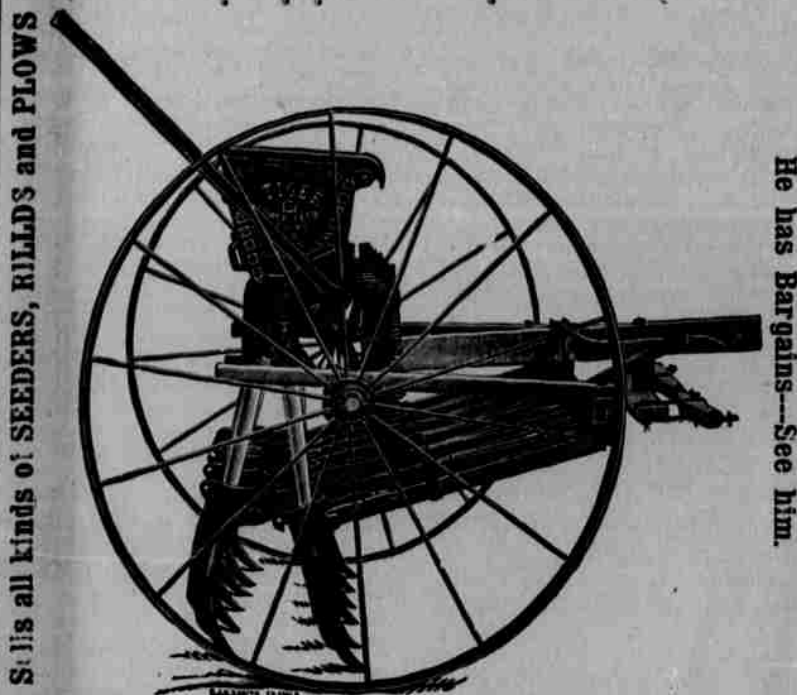

C. O. Hubbard and daughter, Miss Bessie, went to Oregon City one day this week.

Miss Ellen Bonney returned to Portland Thursday.

Miss Grace Gorbett was the guests of Miss Pessie Hubbard Sunday.

GARFIELD.

Mr. Tom Yocum finished threshing last Monday and pulled his machine home at last. He had 31 days' run and was somewhat tired of threshing. There was a threshing crew badly "sold" last week when they thought George Lock- erty was married and all went to give a serenade. He came out smiling and told the boys they had come a week too soon and that they would have to come again.

The coyotes are getting pretty bold as one came in day time close to Mr. Frank Lemon's house and got a sheep down, but one of the boys seen it in time to save the sheep. More good hound dogs needed around Garfield.

Q. P. Irvin had the misfortune to lose one of his good hounds not long since.

Jack Honebane has moved out on his farm and will build a new house right away. Mr. Liberal and wife from Portland are camping near Mr. Honebane's and will help him with his house.

Born, to the wife of F. N. Covey, a girl, on September 23d. Grandpa Irvin wears a broad smile on his face over his fine grand daughter.

Ira and Elmer Davis have returned from east of the mountains, where they have been herding sheep for several months past.

Mrs Sarah Wilcox and family returned from the hop patch last Sunday.

There was quite a large crowd at the Rankineus lodge last Saturday night.

Mrs Annie Hiccibotham of Viola visited Mrs J. P. Irvin and Mrs. D. A. Jones last Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Hammer of Cherryville is visiting her daughter here, Mrs. Della Davis. AMERICUS.

Not How High

But how low can we make the price, is the question we ask ourselves when marking our goods for sale. That's what makes ours an ever-expanding business, it's a potent advertiser; it tells the story through the purse in thousands of homes, only to be retold in countless others by appreciative money savers.
