OREGON CITY, OCT. 1, 1897.

PLEASE PAY UP.

The season of the year has arrived when the proprietor of a newspaper naturally expects to receive some compensation for his labors. The amounts due us from subscribers are individually small, but taken in the aggregate they amount to quite a large sum. During these hard times it taxes all one's energies to keep a paper afloat. Please try to send us a dollar or two on account, or if you are unable to get the dollar and have produce send or bring that and we settlement is not made before October 1st the accounts of those more than two years in arrears will be placed in a collector's hands. Please settle or call and see publisher before that date.

That every day our store is filled with buyers from every part of the city, regardless of distance? There must be some reason. People-especially ladies-don't go out of their way to buy unless there is a reason.

IT IS BECAUSE we have established a reputation for absolutely fresh goods-especially in the line of table delicacies, and our customers are sure of a superior article- and then the prices are right.
