

Nothing furnishes a room like an artistically colored, well drawn wall paper. One may get along with very little furniture and few draperies, and yet have the room wear a comfortable and home-like appearance, if only the wall paper is warm and rich in effect. It's good economy to buy GOOD WALL PAPER. Inspect our stock of the latest wall hangings. Price—7 cents a double roll and upwards.

GARFIELD ITEMS.

We are having a refreshing rain. Some are not ready for the rain yet as they are trying to sow grain.

William Currins and Granvil Linn are getting their cattle out of the mountains. They brought out quite a band last Thursday.

George Lockerly brought his bride out home Tuesday and Wednesday evening quite a crowd called on them and spent a very pleasant evening. Mrs. Lockerly is an accomplished lady and we are glad to have her come to Garfield to live among us. Some one changed the wheels on one of the young gents' buggy and riled his good nature for a few minutes and he had to get out in the mud and soil his toothpicks.

Ed. Kolman is home again for a short time.

David Deardoff is here visiting his children, Mrs. Ider Huxley and Mrs. Frank Lemon. Mr. Deardoff and wife have been away two or three years, part the time in California and in Coos county, Oregon. They intend living in Portland again.

Aser Hawkins, who has been working near Salem for the last six months, has come out to his ranch for a while. He says he intends to prospect for gold in the mountains up on the Clackamas river. We will have an Oregon Klondike yet.

Irvin Wilson came out from the upper hatchery and reports a fine catch of salmon eggs.

Miss Jessie Currin of Currinsville was visiting at Iahue Davis last Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Duncan and Mrs. J. P. Irvin was guests of Mrs. Lockerly last Sunday.

The farmers are hauling their wheat to Oregon City this fall. There was three loads went from here Monday morning. J. J. Davis, Ed Linn and J. P. Irvin each took a load.

Mrs. Ed Hallway has returned from east of the mountains, where she has been spending the summer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sears. October 1st. AMERICUS.

RURAL DELL.

Well, the sun again shines in our part of the country, after several rainy days, but the ground is not wet enough to plow much yet.

Everybody is home again from outing and hop picking.

Miss Mamie Crocker is in Portland visiting her sister, Mrs. Ripply.

Miss Emma Eyeman, who has been staying in Portland quite a while, came home to pick hops and intends staying a while.

Our neighborhood seems kind a lonesome since so many of our young folks have gone off to school and other places.

W. H. Haskins is hauling material for a new trestle at the Pudding River bridge.

The pump peddlers have put in several new pumps in our neighborhood.

Miss Lottie Samson, accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Spangler, and husband and Misses Edith and Jessie Jackson of Oregon City are attending the fair this week.

Herbert Johnson will have a sale this week, he intends moving to Portland before long.

Mr. Hop is moving to Butteville.

Mrs. Sacks of Portland is making arrangements to buy the Tinzly farm.

Cattle and hop buyers are pesting the people of this part for the last cow and calf or a poor little pig.

Rev. Lingren preached two very interesting sermons in our school house Sunday afternoon and evening.

October 4th. Dew Drop.

CANEMAH.

Miss Emma Blanchard of Brownsville, who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Blanchard, returned home Monday.

Miss Ella Alderman, formerly of this place but now of Tillamook, was visiting friends of this place last week.

Master Reese Blanchard, aged 7 years, 5 months and 28 days, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Blanchard, died at a late hour Wednesday evening, September 22d. His illness has been of 4 months duration, having suffered from spinal trouble during the greater part of the time. He was steadily on the decline until about 3 weeks before his death, when improvement gave some hopes of recovery.

Reese was a much-sought playmate by his young companions, and was a general favorite of all who knew him. Being thus taken off so young will be greatly mourned by the family and a large number of friends. The funeral was held at the residence on Friday, September 24th; Dr. Williams conducted the services. The remains were laid to rest in the Canemah cemetery witnessed by a large number of people.

October 5th. PROGRESS.

"Only nervous" is a sure indication that the blood is not pure. Hood's Sarsaparilla purifies the blood and cures nervousness.

Not How High

But how low can we make the price, is the question we ask ourselves when marking our goods for sale. That's what makes ours an ever-expanding business, it's a potent advertiser; it tells the story through the purse in thousands of homes, only to be retold in countless others by appreciative money savers.
