HOOD VIEW.

Born, to the wife of Wm. Casey, a son, on September 27.

Grandma Seely is spending a few months in Astoria with her granddaughters, Miss Whitmore and Mrs. Elsworth.

Mrs. Wm. Brobst of Wilsonville is visiting her people in Illinois this winter.
Miss Twink Graham of Grahams' Ferry made Portland and friends a visit last week.

Joseph Roberts, we understand, is to move in our midst this winter.

Aniel Yeager has purchased a fine new spring tooth harrow.

Mr. Peper of Wilsonville intends erecting a fine new hall for public use.

C. T. Tooze is having some grubbing and clearing done this winter.

Rev. Jerome and Mrs. Barber, formerly of this place, are now residing in Sherwood.

Guss Yeager intends moving on his new farm soon.

Emanuel Sebastine of Idaho, formerly of this place, who was recently killed with a runaway team, leaves many friends and a few relatives here. A wife and two children survive him.

The fine new residence of Jim Turner of Frog Pond is quite an improvement to that neighborhood.

School commenced on the 4th. The children were happy when they met their favorite teacher again.

October 8th. X.

Not How High

But how low can we make the price, is the question we ask ourselves when marking our goods for sale. That's what makes ours an ever-expanding business, it's a potent advertiser; it tells the story through the purse in thousands of homes, only to be retold in countless others by appreciative money savers.
