A BOLD HOLDUP.—The East Side Railway Co.'s car, Ona, bound for Portland, was held up at Meldrum station, four miles from Oregon City, at 6:45 Sunday evening, by two highwaymen, and from the 35 passengers on board about $97 was taken. Both the robbers were armed with revolvers, each had his face blackened, and each acted with perfect calmness during the robbery. Not a single shot was fired by either the robbers or passengers. An absurd civility prevailed, and when this work had been finished the highwaymen bade their victims a courteous adieu and said they would call again when broke. They then backed a short distance into the brush and secreted themselves until the car moved on. The names of part of the passengers and amounts lost by each are about as follows: A. D. Stewart; E. O. Brown, $5; H. Joy, $1.50; Lewis Smith, $3.65; Lewis Mayor, $15; B. Frank, $5; L. Way, $7.50; C. Dick, $7; Mrs. Sears; J. N. Rodgers, 75 cents; E. A. Linscott; Miss Hattie Porter, $4; Miss Fannie Porter, $1; Miss Lola Taylor, $1; L. D. Hunter, $1; Hiram Straight; Mrs. Hiram Straight; Miss Marie White; Adolph Willey, $8; Estella Blanchard; O. J. Gallagher, $18; Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Johnson; H. G. Friedman, 35 cents; M. M. Robbins, 75 cents; F. B. Jones, $2; Miss N. Davey; Mrs. Leo Dow, 25 cents; F. England, $1.10; Leland England, $2; and Conductor Anderson, 3.50. L. D. Hunter had $15 and secreted $14 in his shoe top and on the floor and gave the robber $1, who returned his pocket book when asked. J. H. Rogers of New Era gave 75 cents, and secreted $26 in his boots and on the floor. An unknown lady concealed $100 and gave up 25 cents. Hiram Straight of this city secreted $32. Adolph Willey lost $8 but concealed $2.50 in the pockets of a lady setting near him. The robber doing the work continually remarked about the amounts he was receiving. Once he said: "You all seem hard up; guess I'd better take up a collection for you." One lady asked him to leave her 10 cents for car fare, and he said: "Certainly, here is 35 or 40 cents, and handed her 50 cents in nickels. There is no clue to the robbers but several suspicious looking tramps have been arrested in Portland. A little more than a year ago, cars on this road were held up not far from the scene of the present robbery. In those jobs, there were two men engaged, and the passengers were searched in a manner very similar to the present hold-up, except that the robbers then took some jewelry, which was not done this time.

WAS LOADED.—T. M. Baker of Pleasant Hill was in the city on Wednesday. He relates particulars of the fatal shooting accident as follows. His son Tommy took his single barrel breechloading shotgun to go hunting and his father told him to clean it before he started, which he did, not knowing that there was a loaded shell in the gun. Then he started off with the gun over his left arm and was snapping the hammer with his thumb when it was discharged killing his brother Archie. Mr. Baker desires to thank his friends for their kindness during this unfortunate occurrence.

N. O. WALDEN DEAD.—Nicholas O. Walden died on Tuesday at about 11 p. m. During the day he was around as usual and in the early part of the evening he went into the basement of his house to get some wood when he became dizzy and would have felled had he not been caught. Everything possible was done for him but he soon passed away. A blood vessel had burst in his head, causing paralysis. Mr. Walden was born in Sweden December 7, 1834, and came to this country in the year 1871. He first settled at Milwaukie and later came to Oregon City. He followed surveying for a number of years and was clerk in the land office for several years. He assisted Ed. L. Eastham in organizing the W. T. & L. Co. and was instrumental in organization of the Bank of Oregon City. In 1878 he married Miss Winnie Kershaw, who survives him. Two daughters, Misses Nettie and Hilda, also survive. Funeral services were held at his elegant residence on Thursday at 2 p. m., Rev. Butler officiating. The services at grave were under auspices of the A. O. U. W., of which he was a member, and interment was made in I. O. O. F. cemetery, he being also a member of that order. On Wednesday evening a special meeting of the board of trade was held and a committee appointed to draft resolutions of condolence and request made that business house of city close between 2 and 3 p. m. which was generally observed, as Mr. Walden was one of the best known and respected citizens of this county. The funeral was one of the largest that has been witnessed by Oregon Cityites for a long time.

U. S. TROOPS.—Companies A, B, F and H, of the 14th infantry, and the troop E of the 4th cavalry, United States army, under command of Major Robe, arrived in Oregon City Monday morning, and went into camp on the west bank of the river. They were on their way back from the state fair at Salem, where they spent a week, leaving there Saturday morning. There are 300 men in the detachment, and their camp is of no mean size. All are dressed in campaign uniform, and while there is none of the display of barrack life, all the business of the camp is conducted strictly according to regulations, and the camp gives a good idea of a "sure-enough march." The camp was visited by a large number of people and was the center of attraction until Tuesday when the troops left for Fort Vancouver, which place they reached Wednesday, camping at Fulton on Tuesday evening.

FOR FIGHTING.—H. W. Koehler and Ernest Kiser of Oswego were arrested for assault and battery upon Sam Batdorf in this city Saturday night. Kiser pleaded guilty before Recorder Ryan on Monday and paid a fine of $12. Koehler stood trial and was convicted and fined $5 and costs amounting to about $20. The $5 was tendered and rejected, and the prisoner was committed to jail. A petition for habeas corpus was made before and granted by Judge Hayes on Tuesday for release of Koehler, alleging that it was an attempt to imprison the defendant for costs, which is not lawful, and also that the commitment was in sufficient in that it did not segregate the fine from the costs. The trouble occurred after a dance at Seventh street hall.

Resolution of Condolence.
Oregon City, Or., October 13th, 1897.
To the Board of Trade:
The undersigned appointed to draft resolutions expressive of our loss by the death of N. O. Walden, Esq., respectfully report the following, and recommend their entry in the journal of the Board:
Resolved, That this Board of Trade learns with the deepest sorrow of the death of our fellow member, N. O. Walden, Esq., who has, from the beginning of our work, been earnestly and faithfully identified with every effort to push forward improvement and develop the resources of undeveloped power and usefulness connected with this locality, and state at large.
Resolved, That we bear testimony to the great usefulness of his life among us; to his public spirit as a citizen; to his clean upright character in morals and as a business man; to his affectionate generous spirit in his family and social life; and to his attachment to the cleaner, better side of all issues presenting themselves for the decision of the community in which he has so long resided.

Resolved, That we desire to extend to his stricken and afflicted family assurances of our profoundest sympathy in the hour of their bereavement.
Resolved, That these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of the board and a copy furnished Mrs. Walden, and a copy also tendered to all local papers and to the Oregonian for publication.

WHY IS IT...
That every day our store is filled with buyers from every part of the city, regardless of distance? There must be some reason. People—especially ladies—don't go out of their way to buy unless there is a reason.
IT IS BECAUSE we have established a reputation for absolutely fresh goods—especially in the line of table delicacies, and our customers are sure of a superior article—and then the prices are right.

How Old are You?
It makes no difference whether you answer or not. It is always true that "a woman is as old as she looks." Nothing sets the seal of age upon a woman's beauty so deeply, as gray hair. The hair loses its color generally from lack of nutrition. If you nourish the hair, the original color will come back. That is the way that the normal color of the hair is restored by
