WHY IS IT...
That every day our store is filled with buyers from every part of the city, regardless of distance? There must be some reason. People—especially ladies—don't go out of their way to buy unless there is a reason.
IT IS BECAUSE we have established a reputation for absolutely fresh goods—especially in the line of table delicacies, and our customers are sure of a superior article—and then the prices are right.

TEACHERS' MEETING.—The Clackamas County Teachers' Association held its regular monthly meeting Saturday in the schoolhouse at Redland. The leading feature was a talk by A. C. Strange on "The Laws of Habit." "Alexander Hamilton in United States History" was a topic that had been assigned to a teacher who was absent. It was opened for contributions from all present, however, and the fund of interesting information that was drawn out was surprising. It was voted to hold the next meeting at Clackamas station, on the last Saturday in November.

A Good School.—Attention is called to an advertisement, in another column, of the Holmes English and Business College, of Portland, Oregon. This institution has probably educated more young men and women for business, and found them employment, than all the schools of that kind in the Northwest. Miss Holmes, in addition to being assisted by an able corps of six teachers, gives her entire time to the up building of the school and everything that can add to the students advancement and comfort is provided. The school maintains six departments, namely: Three years course in English branches, a course in book keeping, penmanship, shorthand, typewriting and telegraphy. The Holmes college is a Christian institution and has at heart not only the mental but the moral and the physical welfare of the students entrusted to its care. The principal has given much thought to the home life of students and is able to provide safe and comfortable rooms at a low cost. The past years of business depression has impressed upon the minds of all the necessity for practical education and never in the history of the country has the work of the thorough business college been so much appreciated as to-day.

COMPANY CENSURED.—The coroner's jury in the fatal accident of last week Tuesday on Saturday reported that Jacob S. McComb came to his death by drowning, and that George Natterlin (or George Gjurovich, as his name was officially determined to be) lost his life through a broken neck, by the breaking of a dam at the power-house of the Portland General Electric Co., and that the cause of the accident was "that the company ventured too far in weakening the dam before shutting off the water at the headgates." All six of the jurors signed the report—John G. Porter, W. A. White, Ezra Hutson, G. R. H. Miller, H. S. Gibson and Dan Lyons.

The Monopoly Breakers.

You will find clothing, boots and shoe stores cards stuck out at reduced prices. Who did it—the Reliable Clothing Store; therefore we claim your patronage. SCHWARTZ & MICHAEL, props. The cheapest place in Oregon City for clothing, men's furnishing goods, boots and shoes. Main street, between 5th and 6th streets.

THE SOUTH OMAHA DAILY DROVERS JOURNAL, (with WEEKLY, SEMI-WEEKLY and TRI-WEEKLY editions), published at the Union Stock Yards, South Omaha, Neb., should find its way into the hands of every stockman, farmer, feeder, shipper, fancy stock breeder, ranchman, grain dealer and shipper in the west. It is well and carefully edited by men who make it their business to study the market and write it up in an intelligent and absolutely impartial manner. No other paper in the west gives as good and complete market reports nor as many sales as THE DROVERS JOURNAL, and no other market paper publishes matter of a miscellaneous character that is so well suited to the needs of those in whose interest it is published; and THE DROVERS JOURNAL is the only paper in South Omaha that furnishes all the important telegraphic news "while it is news," six days in the week. THE DROVERS JOURNAL has a larger circulation than any other live stock newspaper and market reporter in the west, and it is the very best advertising medium where it is desired to reach farmers, stock-raisers, breeders and dealers. The subscription price of THE DAILY DROVERS JOURNAL is $4.00; THE WEEKLY $2.50; SEMI-WEEKLY $2.50, and the WEEKLY $1.50 per year, and you can get free sample copy by addressing THE DROVERS JOURNAL COMPANY, Denna Allbery, treasurer and manager, Union Stock Yards, South Omaha, Nebraska.
